MARJORIE WILSON AND JOHN A. IRVING MARRY SUNDAY AFTERNOON

At a beautiful and impressive ceremony, Miss Marjorie Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Purdy Wilson, of Idaho, became the bride of John A. Irving, son of Mrs. Benjamin Irving, of Willbur, Oregon, Sunday afternoon at four o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Irving, in Grants Pass. The bride was escorted by her sister, Mrs. and Mrs. Herbert Groves, in Laurelwood. Rev. C. A. Edwards performed the ceremony in the presence of a number of relatives and several friends.

The ceremony took place before the fireplace which was lit with fresh, gladioli and fern. Tall lighted candelabra on the mantel formed a beautiful background for the ceremony.

The bride was charming in an afternoon gown of rose tulle. She carried a colonial bouquet of gladioli, gardenia and miniature fern.

Mrs. Herbert Groves, twin sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was lovely in an afternoon frock of tulle blue. Her corsage was of maiden hair fern and roses. Robert L. Irving, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Mrs. Purdy Wilson, mother of the bride, wore an attractive afternoon dress of powder blue and a corsage of gladioli and gardenia. Mrs. Benjamin Irving, mother of the groom, wore a dark blue sprayed chiffon dress with white accessories and a corsage of gladioli and gardenia.

Following the ceremony, Miss Evelyn Wills played "The Song of Song" and Mrs. J. L. Samuels sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by Miss Evelyn Wills, who also played softly while the bridal party entered the room.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was held with Mrs. Herbert Groves in charge. Mrs. Robert L. Irving presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. John Wilson cut the cake. The beautiful decorative wedding cake was cut by the bride and served by Mrs. Jordan Schultz, sister of the bride.

Miss Jane Irving and Miss Melba Wilson had charge of the many beautiful wedding gifts. Mrs. Austin Wilson assisted in receiving the gifts.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Irving are well known in Roseburg, the former being a graduate of Oregon State college, the latter attended Oregon normal school at Monmouth and for the past six years has been employed at the local office of the California Oregon Power company.

Following a wedding trip to California, Mr. and Mrs. Irving will return to Roseburg to make their home. Mr. Irving is employed as assistant secretary to the Douglas County Agricultural Conservation association in this city. They will be at home to their many friends after August 15th at 912 Harvard avenue.

Those attending the wedding included Mrs. Purdy Wilson, of Willbur; Mrs. Benjamin Irving, of Willbur; Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wilson and son and daughter, Melba and Billy, of Willbur; Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Wilson and son and daughter, Dewey, Jr., and Jennie, of Marshfield; Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Wilsch, of Myrtle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Irving and two sons, of Willbur; and the following from Roseburg: Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Schultz and son, Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Irving and daughter, Miss Frances, Miss Evelyn Wills, Maynard Bell, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Samuels, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hellwood and Mr. and Mrs.

Three-Way Coat is a Fur Wardrobe

Zip! It's Short!
Zip! It's Shorter!

NEW YORK.—Something absolutely new and equally practical is this budget-priced, kidskin coat which may be worn three different ways, depending on the weather and the occasion. Cleverly put together with concealed slide fasteners—one at the waistline, the other around the neckline—it is a perfect, full-length coat for wintry days.

When taken apart, it forms a sleek jacket, right, and a dressy cape, center, for afternoon and informal evening or when the weather is mild. The sash becomes the deep yoke of the cape or may be used around the bottom of the jacket to form a fur blouse to wear with separate skirts.

Dorthea Brinsfield, radio star, models the garment in its full-length and short jacket versions. Katharine Stevens, also a radio actress, wears the skirt, converted into a cape.—Marian Young.
