Today's Pattern

Clever Pattern Summarizes All Summer Playful Needs

By CAROL DAY

Slacks, topper, sun hat and jacket—that just about covers the essentials for active sports, and for outdoor loafing at the beach or the country.

Here they all are, in one design. Pattern 8217, that even beginners can make with no trouble at all.

The little jacket, in bolero style, with the new round edge, is more than all right to wear with your daytime frocks. The sun hat is comfortably air-conditioned and the ends make it stay put, securely, no matter how breezy the day. As for the slacks, they fit to perfection.

Denim, broadcloth, jersey or flannel are good materials for the slacks and bolero. Any bright printed cotton is good for the hat, stripes being especially smart right now.

Pattern 8217 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 14 requires 4 1/2 yards of 35-inch material for slacks and bolero; 1 3/4 yards for topper and hat.

The new SPRING AND SUMMER PATTERN BOOK, 23 pages of attractive designs for every size and every occasion is now ready. Photographs show dresses made from these patterns being worn; a feature you will enjoy. Let the charming designs in this new book help you in your sewing. One pattern and the new Spring and Summer Pattern Book—23 cents. Pattern or book alone—14 cents.

EUGENE WEDDING SUNDAY IS OF INTEREST HERE

EUGENE REGISTER-GUARD, August 3.—At a ceremony held Sunday afternoon at four o'clock at the First Congregational church, Miss Louise Leair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Laird of Pleasant Hill, was married to Edwin P. Lathrop, son of E. G. Wuest of Oregon City, read the service.

Rollie Callin sang "Because" and "Oh Promise Me" and Miss Mary Field played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The church was decorated with large bouquets of pastel gladioli and ferns, and palms and white candles.

The bride wore a floor length dress of white chiffon with long sleeves. Her veil, which was also floor length, was fastened across the back of her head with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white gladioli, carnations, sweet peas, and other flowers.

Mrs. G. E. Galligan of Winona, Minn., sister of the bride, who was matron of honor, wore a dress of tea rose dainty and carried a nosegay. Her white picture hat was trimmed to match the dress. The bridesmaid, Miss Veda Daley of Ellensburg, Wash., wore a white cotton sheer dress with a pattern of pastel flowers and a wreath of white flowers in her hair.

Patricia Galligan, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and Billie Galligan was the ring bearer.

Holders were Lyman Tinker, Lloyd Abrams, Albert Hopp of Oregon City and Roy Nelson of Gladstone.

The bride's going away costume was a navy blue sheer and coat to match white accessories. A reception was held at the church after the wedding, with Mrs. Lyman Tinker, Mrs. Ralph Laird, Mrs. Lloyd Abrams of Portland and Miss Esther Lange assisting. Miss Margaret Lange cut the cake.

After a trip to the coast, the couple will live at Jennings lodge. The bride is a cousin of Dale Guiley of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Guiley drove to Eugene over the weekend to visit their daughter, Miss Marjorie Guiley, and to attend the wedding Sunday.

The bride was graduated from University of Oregon, where she majored in music and for the past three years has been teaching in the high school in Oregon City. Mr. Lange is also an instructor in the schools at Oregon City.

MR. AND MRS. GUILLEY ENTERTAIN AT TWO PICNIC SUPPER PARTIES

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Guiley entertained at two very delightful picnic supper parties at their beautiful home on the North Umpqua river this week. The suppers were served in the beautiful garden, on the banks of the river.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and
