

SAFeway FETES 24TH ANNIVERSARY

Daily Devotions
DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

What particular sin has had dominion over you? Where have you fallen down again and again? Is it fear, or gloom, or worry, or ugly temper, or jealousy, or unkindness, or selfishness? St. Paul admonishes us to confess them unto the Lord and He will forgive and abundantly pardon. Along with the pardon for your sins ask God for power over your sins, make it a personal, definite and complete restoration. Accept it and believe that God is able to keep that which you have committed unto Him against that day. God can never do for us beyond what we believe, but by grace we can win out by His spirit which dwelleth in us. I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth us. "He breaks the power of cancelled sin. He sets the prisoner free; His blood can make the foulest clean. His blood availed for me." Our Father we believe Thy grace is sufficient. Help us day by day to trust Thee, grant us pardon for our sins and power to live daily in Thy spirit, for Jesus sake we ask it. Amen.

establish Elmer's identity. Zaayer saw fit to break his silence. "People began calling me Elmer for no good reason at all, as my name is not Elmer," he wrote to Pitt. Continuing on this logical plane, he reported he was tagged with the name when he appeared at the Louisville convention in 1929, and "it kept growing" at succeeding conventions.

Zaayer, who is superintendent of the motor vehicle service at the Columbus post office, was the first to claim the name, Boley said. The query, "where's Elmer?" was uttered seriously by some one at an early convention and taken up by the wags until it became a national gag line.

Now the organization thinks its members ought to be informed not only where Elmer is, but who he is.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—(AP)—To that oft-repeated cry, "where's Elmer?", Earl B. Zaayer of Columbus, Ohio, spoke up today and said, "here."

Until now Zaayer has been satisfied just to stroll around at American Legion conventions dressed in his hayseed outfit. But since Fred Boley, chairman of trophies for the 1939 convention at Chicago, has begun a contest to
