MELROSE

MELROSE, Aug. 8.—Mrs. J. L. Conn and children, and Miss Evelyn Galla are spending their vacation at Winchester Bay.

N. L. Conn and Mrs. Emma P. Woods left Friday to attend the Baptist convention at Elsie, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bonbrake are vacationing at Big Camas. They visited Crater and Diamond lakes en route to Big Camas. Their sons accompanied them on the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John Galla and daughter, Marion, spent the last weekend at Sunset bay, Oregon. They report a catch of ninety tom cod.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Tison and the former's sister, Miss Ruth, recently arrived from Medford to visit their mother, Mrs. Carrie Tison. The former left Tuesday for Coquille to visit Mrs. Tison's parents, but Miss Ruth remained with her mother at Melrose.

Mrs. Elva Ward arrived from Portland Thursday evening to spend a month visiting her husband and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Grimes. Mrs. Ward is a former Melrose resident.

Mr. George Moore and small daughter, Shirley Ann, of Coquille, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Zena Lynn. Mrs. Moore was formerly Miss Ruth Lynn.

Bonnie Jean Matthews of Flournoy Valley is the guest of Patty Holmquist over the weekend.

Mrs. Carrie Tison and daughter, Miss Ruth, left Saturday for Coquille where they spent the weekend with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Lynn and daughter of Albany spent the last weekend visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Zena Lynn.

E. R. Lumsden is confined to his home with a badly infected foot.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Sjogren moved Saturday from their home in the Elgar district to the George Newman place on the Boomer road where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leander Johnson and some returned home Wednesday evening from Klamath Falls where they have been employed for the past two months. They will spend two weeks here fixing up their new home and then return to Klamath Falls where they will be employed again.

OLALLA

OLALLA, Aug. 2.—The hot weather of the past few days has ripened up the grain through the valley and made it ready for heading.

Harvey Northcraft, who purchased a new tractor and header outfit this summer will do the work for most of the ranchers thereby doing away with the drudgery and for once giving the women a break.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ollivant went to Remote Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Englund.

Cell and Henry Island were transacting business in Roseburg Friday.

Ralph Heater went over to Happy valley Thursday to help his father Clyde Heater with threshing.

Gaylord Leoney has been receiving treatment at the hospital in North Bend the past few weeks but is expected home Monday.

John Byron, Orin Smith and Bud Ireland are working on the West Douglas electric line right-of-way on Camas mountain.

Ellis Nevad, who suffered head injuries last spring in a timber accident near Bandon, will return to the hospital there Monday for further treatment. He has been staying at the home of his brother, Joe Nevad, in upper Olalla the past few weeks.

Joe Nevad, superintendent of the West Douglas Electric Cooperative association, has returned from the conference of I.R.A. managers in Yellowstone park and is much pleased with the progress made on the project during his absence.

A meeting of the directors was held in Roseburg Monday night at the office of Maurice Hallmark, attorney for the company, and reports were made by the engineers on progress of the work.

John Cunningham, of the firm of Barr and Cunningham, contractors, was present and stated that the north half of the line was practically completed and could be energized at once if so desired.

The matter was taken under advisement by the board of directors and arrangements may be made for turning on the electricity on that part of the line as soon as all the numbers are ready to receive it.

The north part includes Melrose, Elgar, Benton, and Lookingglass, while Teanimo, Olalla and Camas Valley are included in the south portion.

One crew is working at blazing holes and setting poles between Gena Ollivants and Ireland Bros. ranch in Olalla at present.

for family. She plans to enter the Canyonville academy this fall.

Mrs. Snyder of Days Creek visited Mrs. Frank Sullivan Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Zed Chaney of Days Creek visited here Saturday.

Ted Ross returned from the fire at Shively creek Sunday evening.

He has been stationed at County creek above Hiddle.

Dee Humbrecht of Alpine Lodge has gone to Chehalis, Washington, to attend the funeral of Marie Johnson, who formerly worked at the lodge.

Arnold Hask is working at the Alpine while Miss Humbrecht is gone.

The local men returned from the fire on Shively creek Monday. The fire is under control now.

The main street of Canyonville is being graded and oiled this week.

The work is being done by the Frank Sullivan and G. M. Jones crews of the state highway division. Mr. Holcomb of Grants Pass is operating the grader. This will be a great improvement through the business section and eliminate much of the dust, making it unnecessary for the daily watering of the streets by the merchants.

Evelyn Paulson of Azalea and Myrtle Wheeler of Glendale visited at the Ray Paulson home Sunday.

A meeting of the Myrtle Creek and Canyonville Methodist churches will be held at Paul's auto camp Sunday afternoon. The purpose of the meeting is to get the people of the two churches better acquainted and to discuss future plans. There will be a basket lunch.

Sleeping sickness in horses apparently is caused by mosquitoes and other blood-sucking insects, biologists say.

CAMAS VALLEY

CAMAS VALLEY, Aug. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Perry are having their home rebuilt and a second story added on. Bert Golbert and Charles Roth have entered the herculean task of clearing the brush and stumps from the site.

Swimming is a favorite pastime during the last two weeks. The favored swimming holes are at Brockway and down the canyon a few miles below the valley at Slater Bottom.

Mrs. Orval Thrush and daughter, Sylvia, have returned to the valley after spending the past year in California. They are at present staying with the former's mother, Mrs. Flora Wade, until Mrs. Lillian Case, who has occupied the Thrush home for some time, finds a place to rent.

Jack Smith has been visiting relatives here during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stoble have gone to the Golden Gate fair to spend their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Brown have been staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wheeler the last few days while getting their home ready to move into. They will live in the Richter cottage on the county road.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Lawson took the Junior Sunday school class to Brockway Sunday afternoon for a swim. Those enjoying the afternoon were Doris Church, Marie Seigel, Virginia Conn, Don Conn, Donald Lawson, Leola Seigel and Marjorie Brown.

H. W. Lawson spent Tuesday in Roseburg attending to business matters.

Rui Doyle, brother of Mrs. Robert Martindale, was taken to the Klamath Brothers hospital in North Bend a few days ago. He has been suffering for some time with an infected foot. Attending physicians at the hospital pronounced the trouble dangerous caused from lack of blood circulation since Mr. Doyle suffered a light stroke last winter.

Mrs. Noble Standley and daughter, Catherine, Mrs. Elsie Baker and daughters, Carol and Marilyn, and Polly Roberts spent Monday vacationing at Bandon beach.

Donna Gilmore of Marshfield is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Gilmore.

Poles for the electric line are now being set in the valley. The wire was strung as far as the Wayne Reitz place on Camas mountain Saturday.

F. R. Brown started threshing Friday for Axel Brown and will thresh the Lawson and Dick crops also this week.

Henry Church returned from Portland Tuesday night as the operation on his hand was put off until Monday. He will go to Portland again Saturday.

Mr. Curry of Portland, representing the Electrical Distributing Co., will demonstrate the uses of electric appliances at the Ritchie store some time during Tuesday, Aug. 8. Anybody interested is invited to attend.
