Today's Pattern

4291
A PARTY OR ROMPING DRESS
PATTERN 4291

For childhood capers or "ice-cream-cake" times, could anything be prettier than this versatile Anne Adams pattern, 4291? Mother's fingers will fly nimbly over the straight princess seams, so perfect for a small active body. For the paritied version, she'll probably run ribbon under the front panel, make the yoke and round collar of dainty eyelet embroidery or lace, and use ruffled edging. Either the flared or the puffed sleeves are sweet. Then for school or romping days, she'll speedily attach up another frock all in one fabric, or make a popular jumper style with gay buttons.

Pattern 4291 is available in children's sizes 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50, 52, 54, 56, 58, 60, 62, 64, 66, 68, 70, 72, 74, 76, 78, 80, 82, 84, 86, 88, 90, 92, 94, 96, 98, 100. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER. Send your order to News-Review, Pattern Department, Roseburg, Ore.

MRS. KLAENHAMMER IS HONORED AT CHARMING SURPRISE PARTY

Mrs. J. McQueen, Mrs. P. O. Ackley and Mrs. W. W. Ackley were hostesses to the Mid-Week Bible class of St. Paul's Lutheran church at a charming surprise farewell party and luncheon given for Mrs. Klaenhammer yesterday afternoon at the Klaenhammer home on South Main street. Attractive bouquets of summer flowers were used about the room.

Mr. and Mrs. Klaenhammer and family are leaving this week for Marion, Ind., where the former will be employed at the Veterans Administration Facility.

Many beautiful handkerchiefs were presented to Mrs. Klaenhammer and the afternoon hours were enjoyably spent in visiting. At the tea hour delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. McQueen, Mrs. P. O. Ackley and Mrs. W. W. Ackley, hostesses, to Mrs. Klaenhammer, guest of honor, Miss Virginia Klaenhammer, Mrs. W. Sylvester, Mrs. Charles Mortimer, Mrs. A. A. Coughlin, Mrs. Charles Bessert, Mrs. V. Andrade, Mrs. Louisa Volat, Miss Vera Goetz and Miss Pearl Goetz.

MUSIC LOVERS INVITED TO HEAR CHARMING CONCERT THIS EVENING

Musical lovers of Roseburg and vicinity are most cordially invited to hear a very beautiful sacred concert to be presented at eight o'clock tonight, August 15, by Lorraine Dossert, famous concert tenor, at the First Christian church.

Mrs. Dossert will play the accompaniments.

Mr. Dossert is well known in Roseburg, having presented a very successful concert here a year ago, which proved so delightful that his audience has asked him for a return concert. Last year, Mr. Dossert sang 51 concerts besides attending to his duties as director of music at Northwest Christian college at Portland. No admission charge will be made for the concert as a freewill offering will be taken.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY ACTIVITIES

By MRS. CLAUDE BAKER
District No. 4, which includes Roseburg, "brought home the bacon" from the American Legion convention at Salem last week.

Niel Allen, Grants Pass attorney, will be the next state commander and Mrs. Lydia E. Horvath, wife of Dr. William Horvath of Marshfield, is the new state auxiliary president.

Roseburg also has the district auxiliary president in the person of Mrs. Roy O. Young. Mrs. Young is automatically placed on the executive council which makes it possible to more efficiently operate the hospital rehabilitation work, of which Mrs. Irwin Riegel is state department head. Mrs. Walter Fisher is on the state rehabilitation commission as is Roy O. Young. This commission was given a fund of $3000 from both the Legion and Auxiliary to aid the rehabilitation work among veterans.

The local auxiliary president for next year, Mrs. M. R. Richards, headed a group of auxiliary members who received third prize in the midnight stunt show at the convention. This group consisted of Mesdames Victor Misset, current president, Roy Young, Irvin Riegel, Walter Fisher, Claude Baker and M. R. Richards.

Others in attendance at the convention were Mrs. W. Olmscheid, Mrs. James Young, Mrs. Clinton Gorty, Mrs. Malone, Mrs. Will H. Gorty, Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly and Mrs. A. Midland.

This year has every indication of being a big year for the local unit. The first meeting will be in September.
