GORY BOUT GOES 15-ROUND LIMIT

Armstrong Loses 5 Frames on Low Punches; Welter Fight Next Slated

By WHITNEY MARTIN
NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(AP)—The stage was set today for a welterweight championship fight November 1 between Henry Armstrong and Lou Ambers, but there was divided opinion among the 29,088 fans who saw Ambers regain his lightweight crown from Armstrong last night as to the merit of the setting.

Ambers won the unanimous decision at the end of 15 rounds of ten-to-ten and head-to-head manning at Yankee stadium. The welterweight title bout hinged on an Ambers victory, all of which worked out very nicely for Armstrong last night as to the merit of the setting.

Ambers won the unanimous decision at the end of 15 rounds of ten-to-ten and head-to-head manning at Yankee stadium. The welterweight title bout hinged on an Ambers victory, all of which worked out very nicely for Armstrong last night as to the merit of the setting.

In fact, the low blows among the decision toward Ambers. Five rounds were taken away from the dusky hurricane on that account. The Associated Press score card gave six rounds to Armstrong and five to Ambers, the latter including those won on low punches. Ambers might have won some of those on his merits, but the fact remains there were enough taken away from Armstrong to swing the decision.

Although lacking the knock-down thrill of their earlier meeting, it would be difficult to match for sheer sustained action and merciless punishment inflicted by bobbing heads and flailing fists.

Armstrong started to bleed from a cut eye in the third round, Ambers' eyebrow crimsoned in the fourth, and from that point on it was the gory spectacle of two little warriors slugging and pushing and mauling in their own blood, neither conceding a thing.

Ambers said later he was hurt on a couple of occasions, but couldn't recall just when they were. The low blows, he said, did not bother him much. Armstrong recognized at what he was doing were Ambers' thinking tactics, pointing to swollen and inflamed eyes as proof. His manager, Eddie Mead, was outspoken in his criticism of Ambers' tactics, and threatened to have no part of the welterweight championship fight, contract for which already have been signed.

The 29,088 fans paid $137,925.77 at the gate. The net receipts were $116,296.85.

Eludes Marshals With Summons

Claimed by the defense to be the "mainspring" of the movement to deport Harry Bridges, Stanley Morton "Larry" Doyle, above, of Minneapolis, eluded U. S. marshals trying to serve him with summons to testify in deportation case. Counsel for Bridges may seek aid of Attorney General Frank Murphy in bringing him to San Francisco. Minneapolis marshals said they couldn't locate Doyle, but newspapermen found him at American Legion convention there and sent pictures to prove it.

BEAVERS WALLOP S. F. SEALS, 19 TO 7

(By the Associated Press)
Portland's swiftly-climbing Beavers came rapping on the first division door of the Pacific Coast baseball league today after plastering a 19-to-7 defeat on the San Francisco Seals.

With half of the Seal infield on the shelf with injuries, Portland pushed across seven runs in the sixth inning and continued the spurge with three in each of the next two frames as they harassed two Seals pitchers to the tune of 39 hits.

Portland in five and one-half games behind the fourth-place Sacramento club, which tipped Oakland, 2 to 1, in 11 innings at Sacramento last night. Garbahl's fly brought in Max Marshall with the winning tally. A second-inning home run by Levy gave the Oaks their lone tally.

KEY INFIELDER OF CARDINALS INJURED

Brown Sent to Hospital as Collision Result; Reds Blanked by Higbee.

By JUDSON BAILEY
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Injuries, always baseball's bugaboo, may decide the National league pennant. It had begun to look like nothing else but time could.

The St. Louis Cardinals lost infielder Jimmy Brown yesterday as well as their second straight ball game to the Brooklyn Dodgers, 8-5. Even though Brown may be back in the lineup within a week, his absence isn't going to help the Cardinals' challenge during this crucial interval.

Only Monday, Manager Ray Blades singled out Brown as the key to the Cardinals' campaign. The slender little shortstop-second baseman collided with Mize as they raced to take a throw from the outfield. Mize wasn't hurt, but Brown was knocked unconscious and will be in a hospital three or four days convalescing from concussion.

Cincinnati Blanked.
The Cincinnati Reds were shut out by the Phillies, 4-0, yesterday as Higbee recorded his fourth consecutive victory on five-hit pitching.

However, the Cardinals' defeat kept the leaders from losing ground. A couple of home runs, including

Question of Peace or War in Europe Now up to Poland; Aid From France, England to Save Danzig Doubtful

By DWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Foreign Affairs Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—The Danzig crisis has now reached a point where it appears that the question of peace or war may depend very largely on whether Poland feels she can make concessions to Germany's demands.

This is to say that Poland would seem to be in the unhappy position of having to deal the cards whether she likes it or not.

If she can bring herself to pay the price asked, there will be no war at this time.

The consensus of European observers is that if Poland doesn't recede, the eventualities will be grave.

They base this view on the belief that Germany has made territorial demands so categorical—backing them up with marching troops and blare of martial trumpets—that there is small possibility of the country receding very far from its position.

Some observers go further and feel that Hitler believes he will get what he wants without war, but that he is willing to run the risk of an upheaval.

If that is true, and if it is also true that somebody must make concessions in order to preserve peace, it would seem to leave Poland holding the sack. And, thus far, she has said she will fight to preserve her territorial integrity and independence—that she won't surrender to force.

England and France have announced, and reiterated on numerous occasions, they would back Poland with arms in this stand.

Reasons for Hitler's Ideas
Why then does Germany believe the Anglo-French-Polish combine will give ground? There are several reasons.

(1) Because both Britain and France in the past frequently have

HANCOCK OILERS BEST SUTHERLIN, 8-7

League Game Nip-and-Tuck Affair; Oakland Takes Safeway, 18 to 7.

For the second straight night, an out-of-town member of the City Softball league went home smarting under the sting of an 8-7 defeat at the hands of their hosts. Last night the Hancock Oilers nosed out Sutherland in the 18th inning in a nip-and-tuck contest and on Monday, Oakland was downed by the Elks in a self-same margin. In the nightcap game, last night, Oakland took their revenge over on Safeway, bowling them over to the tune of 18 to 7.

With the second half of the league rapidly nearing the end, only three league encounters remain to be played. Thursday night's schedule calls for the Elks to take on Hancock and Safeway will cross bats with Azules in a "things-a-gone" game. On Friday, the league-leading Dunham Transformers will take on the strong Boucek team in the opener and an out-of-town embroil between Oakland and Sutherland will feature the nightcap.

A big triple-bill is scheduled for Sunday at Finlay field featuring both hard and softball, all games to be played for the swimming pool fund. Starting at 1:30 o'clock a Roseburg girls' team will take on a feminine line from Coquille at softball, to be followed by the Coquille-Roseburg all-star softball game for the boys. This contest should be a rip-roaring one as the two teams met at Coquille last Sunday and played a scoreless, eight-inning tie. Final game for the day will be hard ball between the Roseburg Junior Legion team and a visiting Legion team from Marshfield.

YAMHILL CLAIMS FIRST COUNTY FAIR

McMINNVILLE, Ore., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Discovery of a certificate awarded in 1855 today brought forth Yamhill county's claim to the first county fair held in Oregon.

The certificate was won at Lafayette in October, 1855, four years before Oregon became a state. It was unearthed in a Portland antique shop by H. P. Taylor, Portland, Oregon history researcher for a project under the sponsorship of Dr. Hurt Brown Barker, vice-president of the University of Oregon.

Claims to the first county fair in Oregon hitherto have been pushed jointly by Marion and Clackamas counties. Both have claimed fairs held in 1857 as the first.

The Yamhill fair, award was made to John G. Barker, prominent 1843 pioneer in Yamhill county, who was a grandfather of Gordon Baker, McMinnville insurance executive.

REFUGEES BEACH SHIP, SWIM ASHORE

JERUSALEM, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Plying the blue and white Zionist flag, the refugee ship Partia was beached by her all-Jewish crew on Tel Aviv's sandy shore early today with 870 passengers, mainly refugees from Germany and Czechoslovakia.

As soon as the ship was beached about 125 passengers leaped overboard and swam ashore. They were given first aid and breakfast at a hotel.

Police and troops then began disembarking the rest of the refugees, who said they had been sailing 11 weeks without a captain but with their own crew. With the exception of the sick, all aboard will be transferred today to a concentration camp.

FUGITIVE WORRIES INSURANCE FIRMS

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—(AP)—The Daily News says that "quiet but none the less frantic pleas by insurance companies that the authorities find Louis (Leopke) Buchalter before his underworld foes locate him first brought the amazement of the public."

Leopold, youthful king of the Belgians, in calling a conference of foreign ministers to solve the mystery of his disappearance this week to try to reconstruct these countries are Belgium, Holland, Luxembourg, Sweden, Norway, Denmark and Finland.

Some wonder whether there is significance in the fact that Leopold is very close to England in friendship.

Conspicuously, though, England calmly reaffirmed her policy of restraint to "aggression."
