Supreme Fifth Messenger of The International Order of Job's Daughters

Members of Roseburg Bethel No. 3, were especially pleased last week, when they learned that Mrs. A. J. Young of Roseburg, had been installed as Supreme Fifth Messenger of the International Order of Job's Daughters, Friday evening, at a very beautiful ceremony in the ballroom of the Fairmount hotel in San Francisco. Mrs. Young was guardian of Roseburg Bethel from 1920 to 1934 and for many years has been very active in the order and has accomplished excellent results for the local Bethel, as well as outstanding work in the state.

Roseburg Bethel felt doubly honored as Mrs. Young was escorted in the installation ceremony by the Honored Queen of the local Bethel, Miss Betty Mae Whipple, daughter of Attorney and Mrs. R. L. Whipple, of this city. Mrs. Whipple, also a past guardian of the Roseburg Bethel, was present for the affair.

Mrs. Young has served as Grand chaplain, grand mistress, grand marshal, grand guide, vice grand guardian and in 1934 was grand guardian of Job's Daughters of Oregon. During her year as grand guardian of Oregon, she instituted Bethels at Ashland, Oregon City and Portland. Other Bethels instituted by Mrs. Young include: Myrtle Creek, Coquille, Grants Pass and Medford.

Mrs. Stella Jensen, of San Francisco, who is well known here, having visited the Roseburg Bethel, was elected Supreme Guardian of the International Order of Job's Daughters at the Supreme session in San Francisco last week. On September 26th, Mrs. Jensen will arrive in Roseburg to be honored with Mrs. A. J. Young at a very charming reception. Mrs. Jensen plans to be with Mrs. Young for two weeks and together they are arranging to visit Bethel in southern Oregon. Roseburg Bethel will sponsor the reception, honoring Mrs. Jensen and Mrs. Young on September 26th, at which time Grand officers of Oregon and other Supreme officers plan to be present. Mrs. Young was accompanied to San Francisco by her friend, Mrs. Henrietta Frey, of Hartford, Wisconsin, who is a past supreme guardian of the International Order of Job's Daughters. Mrs. Frey attended the Grand session of Job's Daughters held in Roseburg about three years ago. Following the Supreme Session in San Francisco, Mrs. Frey left for her home in Wisconsin and Mrs. Young returned to Roseburg.

MEDFORD COUPLE MARRY AT BEAUTIFUL SERVICE ON MONDAY

At a beautiful and impressive wedding ceremony Monday, August 21, at the home of her parents, Miss Edith Ward, became the bride of Marion Clifton Friend, son of Mrs. Addie Friend, of Berrydale.

Proceeding the eight o'clock evening service, Mrs. Darrell Hanson sang "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacobs Bond.

The bride couple, unattended, entered the living room to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Darrell Hanson, cousin of the bride.

The bride, who is an attractive blonde, wore a floor length dress of pink silk lace with full length pink lace veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bridal sheaf of pink carnations, pink roses and baby's breath.

The couple took their vows before the fireplace, which was banked with pink and white asters and ferns, large bouquets of pink gladioli and lighted mating tapers were about the rooms.

Professor A. J. Hanby, long time friend of the couple, performed the ceremony, in the presence of a few intimate friends and members of the immediate families.

The Misses Fern Hawley, Neva Chambers, Betty Mundy and Avandale Clemens, friends of the bride, assisted about the rooms and in serving refreshments. Both Mr. and Mrs. Friend attended high school in Medford. The bride attended the grade school three years ago. Mr. Friend is associated with his brother in business in Berrydale, where the young couple will make their home.

BOISE CLAN ENJOYING BIENNIAL REUNION HERE THIS WEEK

The Boise clan has gathered for their biennial reunion and are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Watson E. Boise on Chadwick street and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene B. Boise and daughters, Miss Louise and Miss Marion of Dixonville.

Those who have come for the reunion are: Mr. and Mrs. David W. Boise and sons, Otis and Charles, of Hilly, Nev. Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Boise and daughters, Miss Anne and Miss Mary, and son, Charles P. of London, England; Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Boise, of Medford, and Professor and Mrs. Reginald C. Bell (Florence Boise) and daughter, Miss Barbara, and son, David, of Palo Alto, Calif.

As a number came from quite a distance, it is surprising that all of this branch of the Boise family, with one exception, were able to be present.

David W. of Hurlay, New Mexico; Charles W. of London, England; Howard S. of Medford, and Eugene B. of Dixonville, and Mrs. R. C. Bell, of Palo Alto, Calif., are the sons and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Watson E. Boise, of Roseburg.

Thursday evening, Charles W. Boise, of London, entertained at a very enjoyable seven o'clock family dinner party at the Hotel Umpqua, at which, covers were placed for twenty members of the family. Following the dinner, a social hour was enjoyed at the Watson E. Boise home on Chadwick street, at which time motion pictures of the beautiful one hundred acre estate "Emmetts," were shown. "Emmetts" is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Boise and family, which is located about twenty-five miles from London.

The pictures of the many beautiful acres of gardens and lawns of the home were especially enjoyed by the group.

Yesterday the family took a trip up the North Umpqua and enjoyed a picnic dinner at Steamboat. This was the first opportunity that most of the family has had of seeing the beautiful scenery along the North Umpqua.

The Medford and New Mexico Boise families plan to return to their homes this week-end, while the London visitors and the Bell family from Palo Alto, plan to remain here for a longer visit, before leaving for their respective homes.

PUBLIC INVITED TO HEAR DELIGHTFUL CONCERT NEXT THURSDAY EVENING

Music lovers of Roseburg and vicinity will be interested in the very delightful concert, announced for eight o'clock to be held next Thursday evening, August 31, at St. Paul's Lutheran church in West Roseburg at the corner of Corey and Military streets at which time America's foremost hymn-thriller, Orson Sime, will present an unique and inspiring program of chorales and hymns on the theramin.

The theramin is an instrument played entirely without touch, the beautiful tones being produced merely by waving the hands over the instrument. Mr. Sime will be assisted by Laverne Olson, Mr. Sime and Mr. Olson will play selections also on the melodeon, the Nordic viol, the electric guitar, chording-harp and the forked-tongue.

A most cordial invitation has been extended to the public to enjoy this very unusual and interesting concert. There will be no admission charge, but a free will offering will be taken to defray the expenses of bringing these noted artists to Roseburg.
