SLENDER LINES FOR THE

MATRON

PATTERN 4174

By ANNE ADAMS

Do you know that good lines not only erase that bulky overweight look, but make you feel lighter too? What a fit description of this attractive Anne Adams frock, Pattern 4174! It's young and cool and crisp, especially with a ray bit of ruffling here and there. But its high point is the grand front panel that curves in one easy graceful piece from the yoke. Its effectiveness is heightened by novelty buttons. Don't miss the important gathered fullness below the yoke and above the waistline... so becoming! The neckline has a demure, pretty shape; the sleeves may be flared or in smooth fitting puff. A real wardrobe star that takes a minimum of time and expense.

Pattern 4174 is available in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, and 48. Size 36 takes 33 yards 39 inch fabric and 21 yards edging. Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coin for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER. Send your order to Roseburg News-Review, Pattern Department, Roseburg, Oregon.

STELLA ROSELVA HALL BECOMES BRIDE SATURDAY OF JESS WILMER YOCUM

At eight o'clock Saturday evening, August 19th, Miss Stella Roselva Hall, daughter of Mrs. F. S. Jones, of Myrtle Point, became the bride of Jess Wilmer Yocum, of Redding, Calif., at an impressive ceremony performed by Rev. H. H. Barr at the Jones home in Myrtle Point.

The service was read before a fireplace bathed with beautiful blue and white summer blossoms. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Marilyn Ziebarth, a cousin of the bride, sang, after which she played Lohengrin's Wedding Processional.

The bride was lovely in a floor-length wedding gown of white tulle. Her full-length veil was held in place by a wreath of white roses and she wore a corsage of white orchids and lilies-of-the-valley, and her wedding bouquet was of white gladioli tied with white satin ribbons.

The bridesmaids, Ruby Parks, Freda Ziebarth and Thelma Peterson, wore blue and pink tiptoe length gowns and carried shower bouquets of blue delphiniums and baby's breath. Rita Rose Thomas and Patty Lu Peterson, small nieces of the bride, acted as flower girls, and were charming in frocks of white net over pink and blue satin. They carried pink and blue baskets of rose petals.

John Haugensen, of Marshfield, acted as best man to the bridegroom and Lloyd Gilliam, H. O. Peterson and Harold Schroder were ushers. The many lovely wedding gifts were displayed at the reception following the ceremony.

Guests attending the wedding included: John Haugensen, Leonard Forrester and Mrs. Ellen Forrester, of Marshfield; Mrs. A. S. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Peterson and daughter, Patty Lu, Lloyd Gilliam, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Thomas and daughters, Nina, Rose and Martha, all of Roseburg; Mrs. N. A. Holm and sons, of Portland; Rev. H. H. Barr, Mr. Louis Falke, Mr. N. Bell, James Mullin, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ziebarth, Harold Schroder, Mrs. Herman Nelson, Miss Freda Ziebarth, Miss Marilyn Ziebarth, Mrs. M. J. Mullins and Miss Ruby Parks, all of Myrtle Point.

The bride chose as her going-away costume, a suit in sheer pink silk with white accessories. Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Yocum left for points south on their wedding trip, after which they will go to Redding, Calif., to make their home, where Mr. Yocum is employed.

The bride is well known in Roseburg, having attended school here for several years. She was graduated from the North Bend high school in 1935 and attended the Southern Oregon Normal school for two years. Mr. Yocum is the son of Mrs. H. J. Helms, of Redding.

ANNE HAASE AND BILL MACHEN ARE MARRIED IN UTAH

Surprising their many Roseburg friends, Bill Machen of this city, and Anne Haase, of Provo, Utah, were married at a beautiful six o'clock ceremony Tuesday, August 8th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Broadbuss at Provo, Bishop Bennett, L.E.S. church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a few relatives and close friends of the couple.

The living room was entirely lighted by tall ivory tapers in candleholders. The fireplace was banked with colorful summer blossoms and the mantle was centered with a lovely bouquet and flanked by the lighted tapers.

The bride wore an attractive tulle dress of black and white with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Broadbuss, nee Alice Baker of Oakland, Oregon, and her husband, Andrew Broadbuss, acted as attendants to the bride and bridegroom. Relatives of the bride attending the ceremony included: her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. Christiansen, of Fairview, Utah, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Larsen, of Provo, Utah.

Following the impressive ceremony, Mrs. Broadbuss served a charming buffet supper to the bride and wedding guests, at which time the beautiful decorated wedding cake was cut and served by the bride.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Machen left on their wedding trip to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., and are now in Roseburg at the Hotel Umpqua until after the first of the month, when they will move into Mr. Machen's duplex residence in Laurelwood. Mr. Machen is associated in business with Phil Hart at Hart's Men's Clothing store.
