Today's Pattern

by Anne Adams

A YOUTHFUL NEEDLE "QUICKIE"

PATTERN 4209 You'll look gay and sweet as little sister in this adorable dress with its bib-shaped yoke and lively young lines. A perfect "try-first" frock, Anne Adams' Pattern 4209, for as you'll see in the illustrations of the accompanying instructor, there's nothing to its making. The skirt that swirls and flares so beguilingly is circular in style, with only a single front seam. Think of it—no seams to fuss with at sides or back! The pockets are set on a novel angle. You'll like either of the two sleeves—the puffed style with the well-shaped, stitched bands, or the slashed, short flared sleeves. For extra snap, make the yoke, sleeve bands, pockets and sash all in brilliant contrast.

Pattern 4209 is available in misses' sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 16 takes 3 3/8 yds. 39 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coin for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

Send your order to News-Review Pattern Department, Roseburg, Ore.

W.C.T.U. COUNTY CONVENTION TO BE HELD HERE FRIDAY

Of great importance to all W.C.T.U. members and friends is the all-day county convention planned for Friday, September 1st, to be held at the Methodist church in this city with Mrs. Earl Agge, president, in charge.

The all-day convention will open at ten o'clock in the morning. A covered dish potluck luncheon will be enjoyed at twelve o'clock followed by the afternoon program. Mrs. E. E. Woodcock will be in charge of the music for the all-day convention and the state president, Mrs. Nedra Buck will be the guest speaker. All members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

The program includes: 10:00 a. m.—Worship service, Mrs. C. A. Edwards; convention called to order by Mrs. Earl Agge, county president; introduction of guest speaker, Mrs. N. Buck, state president; appointment of committees.

10:30—Consideration of county efficiency standards, Mrs. Buck; report of county treasurer, Mrs. V. J. Micelli; the year's accomplishments, Mrs. Agge.

11:00—Prayer, election.

12:00—Noontide prayer, Mrs. J. A. C. Marsters; covered dish luncheon, Mrs. Hugh Harrison, chairman; greetings from Ladies Aid; Missionary societies; ministers; Woman's club; Sunday schools; Business and Professional Woman's club schools; response, Mrs. V. J. Micelli.

FLAG RAISING CEREMONY AT CHILDREN'S FARM HOME AT CORVALLIS IS HELD

The flag-raising ceremony, which was held at the Woman's Christian Temperance union's Children's Farm home at Corvallis Saturday, was attended by a number of friends from Portland, Salem, Roseburg as well as those from the community of Corvallis.

The new flag was the gift of Mrs. O. M. Plummer, of Portland, who presented the flag to the home. The flag was raised by two members of the Boy Scout troop on a one-hundred ten foot pole furnished by Mr. Plummer and H. C. Seymour.

C. L. Starr, president of the home board of trustees, presided over the ceremony. The invocation was given by Mrs. Nedra Buck, of Portland, state president of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Mercer, music teacher at the home, led in the group singing of "America" and Miss Betty Starr sang "The Star Spangled Banner." The flag salute was given followed by the presentation of Major-General George A. White, guest speaker. Major-General White gave a very fine talk on the flag, telling the meaning of its colors and stated that the real beauty of the flag was in what it stands for. He cited the fertility of war and urged those present to diligently work for peace for the reason that the United States flag is a symbol of peace, sacrifice and service.

Mr. Starr reminded the one hundred sixty children present that they could take any kind of white cloth, put the stars and stripes on it and they would be afforded protection under it in any land.

"America the Beautiful" closed the program with L. L. Butler, of Hood River, giving the benediction.

Members of the board of trustees and several guests were invited to a fried chicken dinner at the Unruh cottage of the home at one o'clock.

Those attending from this city included Mrs. A. C. Marsters, a member of the board, Mrs. C. A. Edwards, Mrs. F. C. Gurnee and Mrs. Earl Agge. They were accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Howard, who visited relatives. The Roseburg ladies drove to Corvallis Friday and returned here Saturday evening.

CONCERT THURSDAY NIGHT TO BE OPEN TO GENERAL PUBLIC

St. Paul's Lutheran church, located at the corner of Corey and Military streets, has issued a most cordial invitation to the public to enjoy a very interesting and delightful concert at eight o'clock at the church Thursday evening, August 31st.

Guest artists to be presented on the interesting program include: Orben Sime, America's foremost hymn-therapist, who will be assisted by Laverne Olson. A number of unusual and lovely musical instruments will be played during the concert of chorales and hymns. The theramin is one of the most unusual musical instruments known and is played entirely without touch; the beautiful tones being produced by waving the hands over it. Other instruments to be featured on the concert program will be the melodian, the Nordic, viol, electric guitar, chordon-harp and the fork-cello.

There will be no admission charge made for this concert, but a free-will offering will be taken to defray the expenses of bringing these noted artists to Roseburg.

CLUB PROGRAM IS DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

AZALEA, Aug. 30.—A most delightful time was enjoyed by all who attended the girls "Needle and Thimble club" program at the strange hall Friday night.

The miscellaneous program consisted of songs, recitations, and music by the Paulson orchestra, a style show, showing the styles that were worn in 1909, in 1929, and the present time.

There also was a fancy work booth showing a display of work the girls had done this summer.

Refreshments were sold later in the evening.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORS HOLD INFORMAL PARTY

GLENDAL, Aug. 30.—Members of the Senior Christian Endeavor society of the Olivet Presbyterian church enjoyed an informal party in the church parlors Friday evening. After several hours spent in visiting and playing games, watermelon was served to Bertha Nixon, Leota Whaley, Mildred Gardner, Helen Williams, Gloria Wansch, Bob Lewis, Don and Bill Jones, Dale McMillin, Arthur Young, Paul Archambeau and the Endeavor advisor, Mrs. Wm. Wansch.

CHINATOWN FIRE PROVES TOUGH JOB

PORTLAND, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Two barred, iron-sheathed doors delayed firemen last night in controlling a blaze at a northwest Fourth avenue and Everett street building in the heart of Chinatown. Fire Chief Edward Grenfell estimated the damage at the Hop Sing Tong headquarters, an empty restaurant and two Chinese grocery stores at $10,000.

Seventeen pieces of equipment blocked the busy streets. Billowing smoke forced fighters to don gas masks. One fireman was burned by tar.
