MRS. MARIETTA HAINES HONORED AT BIRTHDAY PICNIC AFFAIR SUNDAY

ELKTON, Aug. 31.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Adams was the scene of a very pleasant affair Sunday when the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren gathered to honor Mrs. Marietta Haines' eighty-fifth birthday. The picnic was held at the old home place where Mrs. Haines lived forty-nine years. She moved to Elkton in the year of 1922. The picnic will be held the same place next year. Eight of her eleven children were present.

Those present were Mrs. Marietta Haines, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Haines, Vera Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Binder, Mr. Carl Binder, Dorothy Binder, Benton Binder, Charles Binder, Eleanor Binder, Mrs. Jean Johnson, Donald Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Haines, Mrs. Dora McClay, Orpha Millough, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones, Blanch Rowe, Pauline Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Van Haines and Milo Haines, of Drain; Mrs. W. B. Huggins, Victoria Huggins, Marlan Huggins, Elsie Huggins, Gay Huggins, Shirley Huggins, Mrs. Robert Smith, Donald Smith, Patricia Smith, Mrs. Barbara Tarnowski, Iris Haines, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cox, Lawrence Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Reisin, Gloria Reisin, Jean Listrud, Norma Reisin, of Lakeview, and Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Adams.

RIDDLE GRANGE HAS REGULAR MEETING

RIDGELAND, Aug. 31.—Riddle grange No. 715 met in regular session last Thursday evening with eight officers and about twenty members present. Ernest Pruner acted as master in the absence of Joseph Casati. The grange conducted a refreshment stand at the Community fair at Canyonville Saturday. After the business session the members enjoyed an old fashioned sing. Mrs. May Faye, an esteemed member of the grange, was called forward and presented with a gift shower by the ladies of the grange. Refreshments of cookies and punch were served later at a table decorated with greenery and tall yellow candles. Mrs. Loren Butler, Miss Melba Wilson, Jean Hiles and Jack Connitt were guests who enjoyed the social hour with the members.

CLARKE FAMILY ENJOY DINNER

BOY HIKERS HELD HERE FOR THEFTS

Two Portland youths, aged 13 and 14 years, respectively, who "just wanted a little trip before school started," were in jail here today charged with automobile theft. Juvenile authorities did not reveal the names of the youngsters, who told Sheriff Percy Webb, the latter reported, that they hitchhiked from Portland after running away from home Monday night. They told the sheriff, Webb said, that they stole an automobile at Drain Tuesday night and drove it about three miles before it ran out of gasoline. They then came into Roseburg, where one of the youths pawned an electric razor, which according to the sheriff, he brought from home. Then, having had enough adventure, they "wanted to get home in a hurry," and attempted to steal a car last night at Oakland, where they were apprehended by the sheriff. Portland probation officials, notified of the arrest, said arrangements were being made to return the youths to their homes.

Just Watch His Smoke

KANSAS CITY—Bill Matheson, slugging outfielder for the Kansas City Blues, smoked a big black cigar as his part of the pre-game festivities honoring a sports announcer. A few moments later when Louisville and Kansas City took their places for the regular American association game, Buzz Boyle played in left field. Matheson was sick.
