"MAN OF CONQUEST"—A STIRRING SCREEN SPECTACLE

Against a background of stirring action scenes are shown the five major stars of Republic's million dollar entertainment spectacle, "Man of Conquest," Richard Dix, who plays the title role in the film, is shown in the center, surrounded by Robert Barrat as Davy Crockett, Gail Patrick as Margaret

Lea, Sam Houston's second wife; Joan Fontaine as Eliza Allen, partner of Houston's unhappy first marriage, and Edward Ellis as Andrew Jackson. The historic fall of the Alamo and the Battle of San Jacinto, highlights of the picture, are emphasized in "Man of Conquest."
