TENMILE

TENMILE, Sept. 21.—Arthur Hatkey, returned to Salem, Ore., Saturday to attend Willamette university. He spent the summer months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hatkey, of Tenmile. James Homolka, is painting his home, along with other improvements.

Among the local people to shop and attend to business matters in Roseburg, Saturday, were Mr. and Mrs. James Homolka, and daughter, Lillian Joan, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Smith, and son, Sidney, L. M. McCaffrey, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Henry and daughter, Dorcas, and Mr. and Mrs. James Divine and daughter, Marie.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Coats' small son, Gary Coats, is home after an operation for the removal of his tonsils and adenoids and is convalescing satisfactorily.

James Divine is busy moving to Mrs. Jennings farm in Olalla, Mr. Divine and family came to Tenmile about three years ago from Waukegan, Mont. They have resided on the James Sprague farm for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cabot and small daughter, Mary Ann, were shopping and transacting business in Roseburg Monday.

Cecil Riley of Sutherlin visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Crowley for several days last week. Cecil formerly resided in Tenmile and attended high school in Canas Valley. At present he is employed in a sawmill at Sutherlin.

Jeans Ware sheared goats for James Divine last Friday.

L. M. McCaffrey was shopping and transacting business in Roseburg Monday.

The ladies of the Tenmile Sunday school will give a program at the church Sunday, Sept. 24, at 10 a. m. This public is cordially invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore of Edgewater are in the valley harvesting their prune crop. Mr. Moore owns and operates a prune drier in this vicinity.

Jim Henry has purchased a new tractor and seed drill.

OLALLA

OLALLA, Sept. 21.—Mrs. Richard Hook and small daughter, Sally Jean, who have been spending the week as house guests of Mrs. Hook's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Carnall, returned to their home at Glide Friday.

Ralph Heater is working for the season in a prune drier in Looklinglass. The prune crop is unusually good this year.

Mrs. Gus Johnson returned recently from Silverton, where she kept house for her sons while they worked in the hop fields. Vernon went on to Hood River to pick apples and Raymond returned with Mrs. Johnson to attend high school at Canas Valley.

Cell and Henry Ireland had their goats sheared the first of the week. While not as heavy as usual the clip is of extra good quality this fall.

Mrs. Vivian Heater was shopping and attending to business matters in Roseburg Friday.

Joe Nevaud and party left Sunday for eastern Oregon to be ready for the opening of the deer season Wednesday, September 20. Deer are reported to be plentiful in the Lakeview and Klamath districts and to be in excellent condition.

Roy J. Carnall returned from a few days fishing on the North Umpqua the first of the week. He landed a nice twenty-six inch steel head near Hook creek Sunday evening.

MYRTLE CREEK

MYRTLE CREEK, Sept. 21.—An epidemic of whooping cough is going the rounds in Myrtle Creek, the children in several families having the disease.

Mrs. Howard Bobb has returned from a visit with her daughter, Marie, who is in the Children's Home hospital in Portland.

Gerald Fitzpatrick, who has been employed by the Arrow Transportation Co. in Portland for some time, is in the Portland sanitarium for medical treatment. Mrs. Fitzpatrick and small daughter, Donna, are with him.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gibson are comfortably located in Mrs. Clara Bailey's home on Heard street where they will live during the school year. Mr. Gibson is the 7th and 8th grade teacher and Mrs. Gibson, nee Elisen Quarm, teaches the 5th and 6th grades. Mrs. Bailey expects to spend most of the winter in California with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bailey, who live near Red Bluff.

G. A. Fitzpatrick and son, J. E. (Happy) have gone to their mine at the headwaters of Wolf creek where they spend a good part of the year. Mrs. Clara Strong of Roseburg, is visiting with Fitzpatrick at the Umpqua Auto park.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kinsey enjoyed a very pleasant trip to the state fair at Salem. They spent one night with Rev. and Mrs. John Wilson at their home at Pratum, near Salem. The passenger there is an old building but the Wilsons are having it remodeled and are making it into a very comfortable home, so state the Kinseys.

Reports from some of the sheep owners in this part of the county tell that the lack of pasture due to scarcity of rain and too much hot weather is being remedied by the abundant crop of acorns which are falling fast in almost all the pastures. One owner says his sheep will leave an alfalfa field to eat acorns, and that the sheep are fattening on the nuts.

D. J. O. Van Winkle of Harrisburg motored down Saturday bringing his mother-in-law, Mrs. Adelle Hutchinson, back to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Iress Cooper, where she will visit for some time. Mrs. Hutchinson has spent some of the summer at the home of a son in Bremerton, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. (Bill) Bates were Roseburg visitors last Friday, this being Mr. Bates' first visit to the county since in two years due to poor health.
