Louis Knocks Out Pastor in 11th Round

CHALLENGER PUTS UP GAME BATTLE

Loser Stages Rally After Being Floored 5 Times in First 2 Frames.

By GAYLE TALBOT

DETROIT, Sept. 21.—(AP)—A crushing right to the jaw sent little Bob Pastor to his knees, dazed and helpless, in the 11th round at Briggs stadium last night, and Champion Joe Louis had snuffed out one more fighter who made the mistake of facing him the second time.

The blow so numbed Pastor's senses that he didn't hear as the referee, Sam Hennessey, tolled 10. They had to lift him to his tired legs, and he mumbled apologetically: "I didn't see it coming at all."

It must have been a deeply satisfying victory for the big, vacant-faced negro, who was defending his title for the first time before cheering "home folks," a great number of them of his own race. Joe looked as nearly happy as he ever looks.

He had knocked the New York Jewish boy down five times in the first two rounds, and then, after what he described as a "breathing spell," had dropped him with a single blow, clean and neat. It was what he had dreamed of doing ever since the night 30 months ago when Pastor had danced around and taunted him for ten rounds in Madison Square garden.

Pastor Wins Three Rounds

Some of the experts were saying after the fight that Joe wasn't the Brown Bomber of old, else he never would have let Pastor get up after slugging him to the canvas repeatedly at the outset of the battle. They thought the champ's legs looked tired and that he was befuddled in the eighth, ninth and tenth rounds, all of which Pastor won. But Joe laughed at that.

It wasn't a particularly brutal fight. Pastor, who weighed 183 and spotted Louis 17 pounds, came out of it with a gash on his left eyelid and a slightly bruised face. Louis had a mouse under his left eye.

Pastor got in one pretty good lick, first and last. Once in the eighth round, he stood Louis up against the ropes and whaled him right smartly. In fact, long after the scrap was over, he kept insisting to his manager, Jimmy Johnston: "I can punch with that guy, Pop."

Louis in all probability will not pull on the gloves again until he fights Tony Galento next summer. He's about fought himself out of opponents, for one thing, and he has his eye on his income tax, for another.

SEATTLE, SACTOS TURN IN VICTORIES

By the Associated Press

Los Angeles and Seattle were even today in their ball of the post-season Shaughnessy playoffs in the Pacific coast baseball duel, but Sacramento was two up on the San Francisco Seals.

A five-hit, three-run blast in the first inning helped the pennant-winning Seattle club to a 5-to-1 victory over the Angels at Seattle last night, while Sacramento won its second straight from the Seals at San Francisco 5 to 4, in 10 innings.

Seattle's Les Webber had strong fielding support as he let the Angels down with only five hits, two of them in the sixth when Stats drove in Stringer with the sole Los Angeles tally.

The five-hit Seattle splurge in the opening frame drove Prim from the hill. Flores took over and pitched effectively the rest of the game. Prim and Flores together gave up 12 hits. Garibaldi's single, an intentional walk, and double steal on a sacrifice fly scored the winning run in the 10th inning after the Seals had knotted the score with a three-run rally in the ninth.

Mr. Barney jumped two large bucks and dropped both of them. Both deer were four pointers, weighing 165 and 142 pounds respectively.

NATIONAL LEAGUE WINNER IN DOUBT

Cincy, 2½ Games Ahead, Faces Deciding Series With Cardinals.

JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Like the break of dawn, it's constantly becoming clearer that the National league pennant race isn't going to be decided until the Cincinnati Reds and St. Louis Cardinals come to gripe in the waning hours of the season next week.

For days the two have been separated by the smallest of margins, unable to make a decisive gesture.

This situation was emphasized yesterday as Bucky Walters pitched the Reds to a 3-2 victory over the Phillies and the Redbirds swarmed over the Brooklyn Dodgers, 10-4, to maintain their 2½ games out of first place.

The day wasn't static throughout the circuit, however, because the Chicago Cubs lost to the New York Giants, 4-2, and saw their last hope of repeating their 1938 pennant parade go glimmering. Carl Hubbell's hex put them ten games behind the leaders with only nine left to play.

Sundra Wins 11th in Row

The New York Yankees, their American league flag safely stowed away, showed no signs of letting down as they walloped the Chicago White Sox, 8-4, for Sundra's 11th victory against no defeats.

Coupled with Cleveland's 7-2 triumph at Washington, this dropped the Pale Hose into fourth place. The Indians' victory was accomplished on a six-hit pitching performance by Harder.

The St. Louis Browns meanwhile undermined the Boston Red Sox' second place position with an 11-8 victory in 16 innings, the longest game of the year in the American league. Bob Harris worked nine innings in relief for the tail-enders with four-hit hurling and his teammates helped with a three-run outburst off Ostermueller as gathering darkness threatened to end the game.

The Philadelphia Athletics edged out the Detroit Tigers, 5-4, in another marathon which ended in the 13th inning when Catcher Hayes tripled and raced home on an infield grounder.

Boston's Bees were rained out at Pittsburgh.

NYA JOB OFFICIAL DATED IN ROSEBURG

District Supervisor Earl L. Rice will be in Roseburg on Tuesday, September 26, to interview applicants for work-experience assignments on the local national youth administration program, he announced today.

Interviews will be conducted at the court house between 2:30 and 5 p. m.

Rice said openings are available for nine young men and three young women between 18 and 21 years old. In addition to the valuable job-experience they will receive, the youth will earn $15 a month, Rice said.

WAGE LAW BAN IN NUT INDUSTRY ASKED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—A hearing on petitions for a seasonal exemption from the wage-hour law for the English walnut industry in California, Oregon and Washington will be held in San Francisco September 28, the wage hour administration announced today.

The administration said the hearing called because of the filing of objections to proposed issuance of an exemption order which would have permitted the industry to employ workers as long as 56 hours a week for a period of 14 weeks without paying time and a half for overtime. Without the exemption overtime pay is required for work done in excess of 44 hours.

ROOSEVELT FAVORS FARM PRICE RISES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—(AP)—President Roosevelt has advised Representative Cannon (D., Mo.) he believes farm prices still are below parity and need to go higher to give fair returns to producers.

The president's letter, made public by Cannon today, replied to a letter from the representative requesting that should prices rise due to war no legislation be enacted curtailing or limiting price of wheat or other farm products unless everything else the farmer had to buy was subjected to similar limitations.

The president said the problem now was a double one—to do all possible to get farm prices up to fair levels and to keep them there and at the same time to prevent profiteering at the expense of the consumer.

On the one hand, the president said, he thought this would require continuation of the farm program so the nation would be in a position to take the fullest advantage of every opportunity to increase farm income.

On the other hand, he continued, he believed it included the assurance the consuming public and not the profiteer would get the benefit of ample supplies the nation now has and which the president believes it will continue to have.

SUPPOSED BATTLE MERELY PRACTICE

FREDERIKSHAVEN, Denmark, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Information Swedish artillery units have been practicing on a low island several miles south of Saroe church offered a possible explanation today for the sounds of heavy cannonading that yesterday alarmed fisherfolk along the east coast of Jutland.

Some of those who heard the firing insisted, however, the cannonading was too heavy to fit this explanation.

The sounds, they said, bore a strong resemblance to the thunder of heavy naval guns audible here during the famous world war battle of Jutland (May 31, 1916).

Others pointed out it is well-known that acoustics play strange tricks in these waters.

CLOSED PHEASANT AREA DESCRIBED

The dividing line in Douglas county for pheasant hunting is the boundary between township 28 south and township 29 south, which crosses the Pacific highway near the location of the new bridge across the South Umpqua river south of Dillard, according to an announcement by the state game commission. The season on pheasant hunting has been closed north of that line, as a result of petitions by Douglas county sportsmen, but south of the line the season will be open.

Remonstrances against the proposed closing of the bird season were filed with the commission by sportsmen's groups in the southern part of the county resulting in the decision to leave the southern half of the county open. Pheasant hunters also will be permitted to hunt in Coos county, as the commission ordered that that county be open to hunting for china pheasants from Oct. 15 to 31, inclusive.

DISCOUNT RATE CUT BY RESERVE BANKS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The federal reserve board announced today that six of the twelve federal reserve banks had reduced their discount rate for government bonds in an apparent effort to discourage selling of the bonds by banks.

The reductions—from 1½ to 1 per cent—was made by the federal reserve banks of Boston, Atlanta, Kansas City, Dallas, Chicago and St. Louis.

The cuts have been made quietly since war broke out in Europe, but the latest cut, that at St. Louis, became effective only today.

The 1 per cent rate was effective at the New York bank even before the European war. At the five other federal reserve banks, the discount rate for advances on government loans by commercial banks is 1½ per cent.

M·J·B WHY?

"I found the answer at 10,000 feet..."

1 The boss phoned from New York: "I want you here tomorrow to help me close that Simpson contract." Just like that! I barely had time to kiss the wife goodbye and catch the evening plane. Early next morning the stewardess asks if I'd like some breakfast. "Sure," I say, so she fixes a tray and pours me a cup of hot coffee from a thermos bottle.

2 It smelled great and I took a sip. "Gosh," I said, "do I have to fly every time I want such swell coffee!" She smiled. "We'd like to have you, but frankly it's M·J·B—same as you get in any grocery store. We've standardized on M·J·B because its fine, full flavor makes a hit with everybody."

3 "Thanks for the tip," I said. Next day I wired the Mrs. from New York: WE GOT THE CONTRACT I GOT A RAISE SWITCH TO M·J·B LOVE. She must have thought I was crazy, but she took the hint.
