WHATEVER attitude the United States takes toward the European war, all patriotic people are agreed that that attitude must be dictated only by what seems best for the United States.

Those who seek a more or less active participation in the war on the side of the British and French base their view on the feeling that if the Germans beat them the world will be uncomfortable and unsafe for American democracy.

Those who seek to insure that the United States take no part in the war base their view on the feeling that American democracy is best served by preserving its strength and its essence by keeping as clear as possible of the whole thing.

Either view sounds selfish. But what else is justified by the record of both sides since the World war? The Miami Daily News recently assembled the damning record of all the warring powers since 1919. By permission we reproduce that record:

Germany:

Spent from 1919 to 1933 complaining against the treaty of Versailles and trying to evade many of its provisions.

Spent from 1933 to 1939 tearing up the treaty of Versailles.

Decreed military conscription, 1935.

Occupied the Rhineland in violation of the Locarno treaty, 1936.

Invaded and annexed Austria, 1938.

Sliced off a portion of Czechoslovakia, 1938.

Invaded and annexed the remainder of Czechoslovakia, 1939.

Took Memel from Lithuania by extortion, 1939.

Started, according to the best information available at present, a new world war, 1939.

Poland:

Seized a large part of Upper Silesia from the League of Nations in defiance of the result of a plebiscite, 1921.

Seized Wilno, capital of Lithuania, 1924.

Mistreated German and Ukranian minorities, 1919 to 1939.

Seized Teschen area from prostrate Czechoslovakia, 1938.

France:

Blocked every effort to induce the victorious powers to disarm, as promised in the treaty of Versailles, 1919-1929.

Dominated the League of Nations which put seal of approval upon Polish seizures of Silesia in 1921 and Wilno in 1924.

Occupied the Ruhr valley of Germany on thin reparations pretext, 1923, with Prime Minister Poincaire privately expressing hope the Germans would not pay so France could annex the valley.

Unofficially supported Japanese invasion of Manchuria until realizing her stand was undermining her own insistence upon sanctity of the Versailles treaty, 1931.

Blocked effective sanctions against Italy when latter invaded Ethiopia, 1935.

Sacrificed Czechoslovakia to appeasement policy, 1938.

Violated Syrian mandate by letting Turks take district of Hatay in deal for Anglo-French-Turkish alliance, 1939.

Defaulted on war debts to United States up to and including the present time.

England:

Carried on intermittent bombing of tribes on Northwest frontier of India, 1920-1939.

Supported Japan against United States at time of Manchurian invasion, 1931.

Failed to deal effectively with Italian aggression in Ethiopia, 1935.

Sacrificed Czechoslovakia to appeasement policy, 1938.

Broke Balfour promise of a Jewish homeland in Palestine, 1938-1939.

Defaulted on war debts to United States up to and including the present time.

truce now, on the basis of Germany's PRESENT VICTORY, might succeed.

That factor is the ingrained stubbornness of the British character and the demonstrated willingness of the British people to FIGHT AGAINST ODDS for what they conceive to be their destiny. In nearly every major war in which they have engaged, the British have been licked at the start but have come out victors in the end.

If they have made up their minds that for the good of the British Empire Hitler must be destroyed, Germany is in for the long war Hitler says he is ready to wage.

Either that or the character of the British people has CHANGED BASICALLY.

AGRICULTURE LEADS IN JOBS PLACING

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 20.—Agriculture led the parade of placements in the Oregon state employment service's banner August job matching accomplishment, a report by Director L. C. Stoll to the state unemployment compensation commission disclosed.

Thirty-five per cent of the 12,549 regular placements recorded for the month now are following Oregon's various farm pursuits. In addition, a similar percentage of the 13,768 casual placements listed is estimated as having found their way to the farm.

Government service accounted for 27 per cent of the August totals. Officials credited an unusually heavy forest fire season as responsible for the relatively high percentage of placement in this category.

Public construction absorbed 18 per cent; lumber manufacturing, 5 per cent; personal services, 4 per cent; food manufacturing, 3½ per cent; and private construction wholesale distribution and commercial mechanical services, 2½ per cent each.

Eighty-six per cent of regular placements were men.
