Married 50 Years and Still "Young"

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Young.

Of special interest to the many Longliss county residents is the fiftieth wedding anniversary celebrated here this week by Mr. and Mrs. George W. Young, which occurred Monday, October 2nd. Mr. and Mrs. Young have resided in Roseburg since 1916 and have hundreds of friends here, who wish them continued good health and happiness.

A very charming dinner party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Young was enjoyed Monday evening at "The Rose" on the North Umpqua river. Covers were placed for the guests of honor and Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Bubar, F. M. Akeley, Dr. and Mrs. D. B. Bubar, Howard A. Young, of Oroville, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Young and two daughters, Miss Faith and Miss Anita, and son, Randall.

Mr. and Mrs. Young were married October 2, 1889, at Mars Hill, N. H. They are the parents of three children: Faith, Eleanor Bubar, who was born July 6, 1890, and died in 1925; Roy Otis, who was born June 20, 1892, who resides in Roseburg; and Howard A. Young, born November 18, 1895, and who resides in Oroville, Calif. They have three grandchildren, Miss Faith and Miss Anita and Randall Young, daughters and son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Young of this city. With the exception of Miss Virginia, who is a freshman at University of Oregon, the entire family spent the day together in honor of the occasion.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Young were born in the United States. Mrs. Young's people originally came from England and settled in Acadia, now known as Nova Scotia. Mr. Young's people also came from England and settled in Maine.

Mrs. Young, formerly Mary Alice Snow, was the daughter of Isiah and Catherine (Kiddout) Snow. Her father was a farmer and a private in the thirtieth Maine regiment in the Civil war. She was born November 23, 1867, at Mars Hill, Maine.

George Warren Young, son of Charles Wellington Young, and Marinda Thompson Young, was born at Temple, Franklin county, Maine, June 13, 1865. He was educated in the public and high schools and studied medicine for three years at Maine with Dr. Fulton, but preferred a mercantile career. He also studied civil engineering for a time at Farmington, Maine. His boyhood and youth were spent on his father's farm and at the age of twenty-two he built a store at Mars Hill and established himself in business as a general merchant. He also did barbering in addition to conducting the store. He sold the store
