Up and down the field the opposing forces sweep, mightily and meditally contending.

It is inexplicably trivial, this preoccupation with the question of whether 11 men can move a ball across a bit of field while 11 others try to prevent them.

No, we don't think so. These football players and those who watch them are getting what they have a right to expect of it—the right to play.

Keeping this blessed immunity will be something else again, something which we cannot trust to luck, but which will cost work, and thought, and struggle.

It seems that in the great city there was a wise astrologer, who by esoteric calculations could foresee the future.

Does this call to your mind a medieval city, with a tower reached by winding stairs, and a wizarded man in peaked cap poring over volumes of necromancy?

It is that is true, it opens up a great vista. Hitler is supposed to be not unimpressed by astrologers and astrologists.

During the work of Oct. 15, approximately 2800 American farm boys are to meet in Kansas City.

If America means anything at all, it means the forward look toward the better, brighter future.

It is a fine thing to see farm boys assembling there with their eyes on the future, and it is the job of the present to see that so far as possible its events do not cloud that future.

command. Again the Napoleonic pattern. NAPOLEON made two fundamental mistakes.

struction. Led on by towering ambition and military success, he bit off more than he could chew.

NAPOLEON'S peace, made at the cannon's mouth, NEVER LASTED. Fear of him and hatred of him always brought his enemies back fighting.

THERE are plenty of signs that Hitler has a Napoleonic complex. It remains to be seen whether he can avoid the mistake that overthrew Napoleon.
