RUTH M. THOMPSON AND LEON HAAS MARRY AT
BAPTIST CHURCH SUNDAY

The wedding of Miss Ruth M. Thompson and Leon Haas, both of this city, was performed by Rev. H. P. Sconce at twelve o'clock Sunday, October 15th, at the First Baptist church, following the morning church service.

White Michaelmas daisies, evergreens, ferns, baskets of colorful autumn flowers and white tapers turned a beautiful setting for the impressive ceremony.

Following the ceremony Mrs. Joseph Dwyer and Mrs. Hugh Whipple sang, "I Love You Truly," followed by Lovengrin's Wedding March played by Mrs. Clyde Beach.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely wedding gown of white or satin, fashioned floor length with short puffed sleeves. She wore a finger-tip veil caught at the back of her head by a wreath of roses and gladioli buds. She carried a bride's bouquet of pink rosebuds and maiden-hair fern tied with white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Lois Burton, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore an attractive floor-length peach-colored organza frock. She carried an arm bouquet of pink and orchid gladioli and white chrysanthemums with matching color flowers in her hair. William Loomis was best man at the bridegroom.

The bride and bridegroom knelt on a white satin prayer pillow at the close of the ceremony for the benediction.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Thompson of this city. She is a former student of the Roseburg high school and is a popular member of the younger set of this city. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haas, of Johnstown, Neb., and was graduated from high school at Johnstown. For the last three and a half years, he has been making his home in Roseburg.

Following the wedding ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Haas left on a honeymoon, after which they will return to Roseburg to make their home.

COUNTRY CLUB TROPHY DINNER TO BE LARGELY AFFAIR OF FRIDAY

One of the largest and most interesting affairs of the week will be the annual trophy dinner of the Roseburg Country club, which will take place at seven o'clock Friday evening, October 20th, at the clubhouse.

Trophies and prizes will be presented to both ladies and men winning golf tournament awards this year.

Mrs. J. F. Dillard and Mrs. Frank Coen are in charge of the calling committee for the affair with Mrs. E. B. Van Ness, Mrs. Arthur H. Mountain and Mrs. E. A. Pearson in charge of the cards; Mrs. John Marks, Mrs. Kenneth W. Kline and Mrs. W. T. Peters in charge of coffee and Mrs. J. M. Judd, Mrs. H. C. Stearns, Mrs. R. D. Bridges and Mrs. W. M. McEachern are in charge of decorations. Mrs. W. M. McEachern and Mrs. H. C. Stearns are acting as general chairmen of the dinner.

Cards will be enjoyed during the evening and prizes will be awarded. Every member of the club is being urged to enjoy the affair.

PUPPET SHOW PRESENTED AT GRADE SCHOOLS HERE

A very delightful puppet show, put on by the Good Teeth club, a national organization, and sponsored in Oregon by the state board of health, was presented here three times Friday at the local grade schools. Miss Cleo Stephens and John Teek, of Chicago, presented the show at Benson at 9 a. m.; Rose at 11 a. m. and at Fullerton school at two p. m.

The story is of a little boy who didn't take care of his teeth and was forced to go to the dentist on the day of the circus. Through the work and advice of the dentist on the care of the teeth, Jack was able to go to the circus with his sister, Joanne, after all. Eight characters took part in the show. Comedy parts were played by an Italian fruit and vegetable vendor, the milk man and Tony and his monkey.

Mrs. Hazel Lytle, Douglas county health nurse, accompanied Miss Stephens and Mr. Beck to the grade schools during the day.

Refreshments were served by the following members: Mrs. Helen Verrell, Mrs. Veta Norman, Mrs. Capitola Abbot, Mrs. Emma Leegerwood, Mrs. R. Mickelson, Mrs. N. Burke, Mrs. Laura Cornutt, Mrs. Ethel Chase, Mrs. J. C. Maxson, Mrs. Emma Buick, Mrs. Mary Mannett and a guest who accompanied her.

STATE OFFICER TO VISIT JOE'S DAUGHTERS NEXT TUESDAY EVENING

Of special interest here will be the official visit of Mrs. Edna Caldwell, grand guardian of Joe's daughters of Oregon, which she will make at the Roseburg Bethel next Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Masonic temple.

Mrs. Catlow will make her official visit on inspection to the Roseburg Bethel and all members, parents and those with proper Masonic affiliations are invited. Miss Betty Mae Whipple, honored queen, will be in charge of the meeting.

DINNER ENJOYED AT CABOT HOME

TENMILE, Oct. 19.—Sunday evening a dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cabot to Mr. and Mrs. Leland Bloom and daughter, Sharon Lee, of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. McCaffrey, Jack Cabot, Mary Ann Cabot and the host and hostess. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cabot. The evening was enjoyed by all visiting.

LIONS AND LADIES TO ENJOY DANCE

The Lions and their ladies and invited guests are asked to enjoy a delightful informal dancing party to be held at the Roseburg Country clubhouse Saturday evening, October 21st. An interesting and enjoyable evening has been planned by the committees in charge.

Beware Coughs Following Flu

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows feels like it will tear your chest walls apart. You need reliable and ready help. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to loosen germ laden phlegm, increase secretion and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding that you are to take the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back. DR. LEAVITT HAS INTERESTING CLASS MEETING MONDAY

A very enjoyable meeting was held by members of Dr. L. E. Leavitt's psychology and speech class Monday evening in the Umpqua hotel. The subject of the evening in psychology was one of intense interest to all as the matter of making adjustments is one that must be met wisely in order to live an effective and harmonious life. The subject covers a wide field and will be continued as part of next week's instruction. Class members are urged to bring up special problems which they wish discussed.

The class in speech is progressing rapidly, and Dr. Leavitt is arranging to place the latest books available on the subject of crowd control where class members may have access to them without charge. Special instruction will be given class members who are interested in radio broadcasting at a later date, and arrangements will be made for those who desire to do so to appear before clubs, etc., as speakers or entertainers.

Daily Devotions DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

The unsatisfied life is one that lacks its appointed relationship. It spends itself in mean fellowship when it was ordained for the communion of the Holy Spirit, and to fellowship with the Infinite Life becomes dissatisfied because its powers are not exercised and developed. The spirit of man grows old when it lacks the primary satisfaction. But when God enters our lives and satisfies us with His good things, the heart grows young again. How can any heart grow old, if faith and hope, and love dwell within it. The Prophet Isaiah said many years ago, "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength. They shall mount up with wings as eagles, they shall run and not weary; they shall walk and not faint." Many years later Victor Hugo wrote, "They tell me I am growing old, the snow of winter may have fallen upon my brow, my form may have become feeble, but the spring of eternal youth is in my heart. God is its refuge and strength." How true it is, too few catch the secret of the joy that comes from intimate fellowship with God. Help us, dear Father, to cultivate fellowship with Thee and with Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

New music for the year's work has arrived and work will be started on it immediately. Indications are that a large number of men will sing in the club this year. R. M. Church is director of the club and Mrs. Homer Grow is pianist.

EAGLES AUXILIARY TO MEET FRIDAY

The Eagles auxiliary will meet at the Eagles hall Friday at one o'clock, instead of ten o'clock as previously planned. The members will make and repair clothing for relief. Members are urged to bring donations and attend this meeting.

MEN JAILED HERE WANTED IN EUGENE

John Clifford Burns and Albert John McGuire, who are being held in the county jail here for circuit court hearing in November are wanted in Lane county for allegedly attempting to burglarize the home of George Dayton at Meadview Saturday according to word received from Eugene.

The men were picked up in Douglas county by state police Saturday by the license plate numbers which had been secured when Burns and McGuire were leaving the Dayton home.

Judge R. W. Marsters said today that the men will be held on the local charge of larceny in a dwelling, as the men had in the stolen car, the guns which were reported to have been stolen from the Melvin Howard home at the foot of Rice hill.

If charges are pressed against the men for the attempted burglary at Meadview, a hold warrant will be issued for the men and they will be taken to Eugene after completing the sentence on the first charge, according to Judge Marsters.

INSTITUTE MEANS SCHOOL HOLIDAY

Douglas county school students are looking forward to a holiday tomorrow when teachers will attend the county teachers' institute, to be held at junior high school in this city.

It is expected that nearly 235 teachers will attend the one-day session, according to a report from the county school superintendent's office. Registration will begin Friday morning at 8:30 o'clock, followed by a full day's program, which includes talks, departmental meetings and a business session.

SPREE BRINGS FINE

Claude Atkins, of Glendale, pleaded guilty to being drunk in a public place and was fined $15 in the justice court this morning by Justice of Peace R. W. Marsters.

Atkins was arrested Monday afternoon at the county court house after entering the treasurer's office and the sheriff's office in search of a "restaurant," according to Judge Marsters. He was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Cliff Thornton.

Today's Pattern

APRON PAIR FROM ONE PATTERN 4278

by Anne Adams

A really good housekeeper keeps herself looking just as neat and charming as the inside of her home. This efficient, pretty Anne Adams apron style, Pattern 4278, comes in two versions. Side-front skirt panels rise to give a slimming, high waistline and nice softness through the bustline does away with that skanky look. There's even thoughtful "behind the scenes" treatment in a sash drawn right through the hemmed part of the top for secure tying. When laundered, the whole garment opens out in a flat piece for easy ironing. The hemline and neckline may be pointed or straight. Pattern 4278 is available in sizes small, medium and large. Small size, view B, takes 2 1/8 yards 35 inch fabric and 1 yard ruffling; view A, 3 yards 35 inch fabric and 4 yards ruffing.
