JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB MEMBERS ATTEND CONFERENCE SUNDAY

Six members of the Roseburg Junior Woman's club attended the district conference at Bandon Sunday, Oct. 22. Mrs. Jack Chapman representing the Roseburg club, her election was to replace Mrs. William Unruh whose term expired this year.

Over 100 club members attended the one day conference which was opened with a president's breakfast. Miss Elaine Brown and Mrs. Chapman, both past presidents of the club, represented Roseburg at the gathering. Round table discussion on club problems was included on the breakfast program.

Following the breakfast panel discussion was led by Mrs. O. C. Sanford, of Coquille, and the delegates attended the church services at the Presbyterian church with Rev. Einarson presiding in the pulpit.

A no-hostess luncheon followed at the Masonic hall at which Mrs. Walter Kuan, of Newport, talked on club problems and at the close of the luncheon the business meeting was opened with Mrs. Verne Brown, of Bandon, presiding. Mrs. E. A. Pantner, of Bandon, gave the address of welcome with Mrs. Harold Carver, of Myrtle Point, responding. Club reports were heard, with Mrs. Chapman, discussing Roseburg Junior Woman's club activities for 1939.

Mrs. Eugene Owens, of Portland, state chairman for the Junior clubs, was guest speaker for the conference and discussed "Juniors and the Jubilee." During her talk Mrs. Owens offered a cup to the club having the largest percentage of club attendance at the conference meetings. At the end of 25 years the cup will become the permanent property of the club having its name engraved on the cup the most number of times.

"What Is News" was the tonic chosen by Doreen Dobson Smith, state chairman of press and publicity. Following club reports a program number was presented by each of the clubs represented. Members of the local club presented a skit entitled "Fashion in Hats." The skit, written by Miss Brown, was resorted to have attracted considerable attention when hats from the Civil war days to modern and future times were modeled.

Other program numbers included a dance by the Bandon subclubs, music by North Bend and several vocal selections by the North Bend trio.

Business discussed at the meeting was changing the district conference from fall to spring. The next conference is scheduled to be held at Newport in April, 1940. A recommendation was voted that the clubs plan a travel fund for the president and delegates who attend the district meetings.

Roseburg delegates included Miss Brown, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Ralph Herriman, Mrs. Adrian Boyen, Mrs. Margaret Langer, Mrs. Sidney Domienko.
