Daily Devotions

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

"I went away. I washed. I received my sight." What a stirring witness. You cannot argue against that. Has anything wonderful happened to you? Why are so many Christian people silent about God? Where is our witness? Have you ever been to Paul Simon to meet the great physician, and have we come back with the cure? Jesus sent out the twelve, the seventy, the one hundred and twenty, and they shook the world out of its indifference. "Ye too shall be witnesses unto me." Think of a doctor who never cured anybody, or a teacher who never lifted the veil of ignorance by sharing his knowledge. Think of a bank that never used its money by circulating it. Yet we have millions of Christian people who have never added another recruit to the church of Jesus Christ. A fruit tree that produces no fruit is a dismal failure, let us ask ourselves, is there any redeeming quality in my life? Has Christ used me to change another person? If not, then go wash and come again. Go tell, and discover the Christian's deepest joy. Amen.

H. E. Club to Meet—The Riverdale Home Economics club will meet for a potluck luncheon and session Tuesday at the garage hall.
