Virginia Wright Becomes Bride of Joseph D. Cowan on Nov. 11

At one of the most impressive weddings of the season, Miss Virginia Wright, attractive and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wright, of Roseburg, became the bride of Joseph D. Cowan, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cowan, of Columbia, Missouri, Saturday, November 11th, at the home of the bride's parents on North Kane street. Rev. S. Raynor Smith, pastor of the Jason Lee Methodist church in Salem, formerly of this city, performed the double ring ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

The fireplace was flanked by baskets of white and pink chrysanthemums, while the mantle was decorated with colorful roses and chrysanthemums. Coral and gold-fall flowers were used about the room.

Preceding the ceremony, J. P. Sage sang, "Star Eyes" by Oley Sage, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Paul Geddes, who played Lohengrin's Wedding Processional for the bride party to descend the stairway and enter the living room.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful floor-length afternoon gown of white blue chiffon velvet, fastened along princess lines with a short train. Two large crystal clasps were used on the bodice. The sleeves of the gown were short and she wore silver slip-overs. She carried a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums circled by sprays of bougainvillea and tied with white ribbon.

Mrs. Richard Wood, of Portland, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and was attractive in a plum-colored, floor-length chiffon velvet gown. She carried a round bouquet of white chrysanthemums tied with matching ribbon. Gordon Wright, of Baker, brother of the bride, acted as best man to the bridegroom. The bride's mother was charming in a floor-length afternoon gown of pale rose tulle, fastened with a bolero jacket and a white belt of variegated crystals. She wore a cascade of gardenias.

Attending the wedding ceremony were Mrs. Richard Wood and Miss Mignon Wright, a cousin of the bride; Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wright, of Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Webb, of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. B. Meyer and Rev. and Mrs. S. Raynor Smith, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Booth, Mr. and Mrs. George Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geddes and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sage.

A very charming reception followed the wedding with guests calling between two-thirty and four-thirty o'clock at the Wright home. During the reception hours, Mr. Sage sang two numbers by Franklyn "Blue Night in May" and "A Thought Like Music" accompanied by Mrs. Paul Geddes.

The refreshment table was covered by a lovely lace cloth and centered by a bowl of orchid and white chrysanthemums. The floral wedding cake, decorated by pale pink and white roses, was cut by the bride.

Mrs. Edwin Booth received the guests calling at the reception. Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Mrs. George

FORMER ROSEBURG BOY MARRIED IN EL PASO, TEXAS, OCTOBER 21ST

Miss Mary Bernice Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shanks Carpenter, of the Lower Valley, became the bride of John Milton Green, son of Mrs. Jessie M. Green, 3006 North Florence street, El Paso, Texas, at a beautiful ceremony held Saturday at eight o'clock in the evening at St. Rita's chapel, St. Patrick's cathedral.

White chrysanthemums against a background of ferns formed the decorative theme and Rev. Fr. Kirgan performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Oscar Gutsch accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Herman Rosch, sang Schubert's "Serenade" preceding the bride party's entrance to the chapel to the music of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Rosch.

True Childs was his brother's best man and John A. Johnson was groomsmen. Ushers were Eugene Carpenter, Philip E. Adams and Henry Jerrell, Jr.

The bride was gown in white lace over tulle and net, designed with a sweetheart neckline and puffed sleeves. The full skirt was fastened in bustle effect with ruffles of the lace up the back. Her bouquet was of carnations and sprays of tuberose. Her jewelry were a diamond-set gold locket, wedding gift from the bridegroom, and a bracelet of gold hand-carved bracelets which belonged to the bride's late grandmother, Mrs. H. H. Blanchard, member of a pioneer southwestern family.

The "something borrowed" which was a Brussels lace handkerchief of Miss Elvace Lincen, brought to Miss Lincoln by a friend after European travel.

Miss Lucille Carpenter, sister of the bride and maid of honor, was gown in orchid tulle over tulle of the same shade, trimmed with rhinestones. Her bouquet was of orchid ostrich plumes and her bouquet of pink roses.

Mrs. O. J. Mitchell was matron of honor, wearing tulle of aquamarine blue. Her bouquet was also of pink roses.

The bride's mother was gown in black crepe, encrusted with heavy gold embroidery. Accessories were gold and her corsage bouquet was of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a black Chantilly lace gown over black tulle with pearls and a black velvet hat, ostrich trimmed. Her corsage bouquet was of tallman roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Carpenter home.

Mr. Green and his bride left on a motor trip to California following the reception, after which they will go to San Francisco to make their home. For traveling the bride wore a black tulle with white chiffon blouse, black accessories and fox fur.

The bride was educated in the Incarnate Word academy and the high school of Ysleta. Mr. Green attended St. John's Military academy in Delafield, Wis., and the high school in Roseburg, Ore., after which he went to Graceland college in Lamoni, Iowa, and later was graduated from the school of Journalism at University of Missouri. He is a member of the alumni of Alpha Tau Omega and the Kiwa club.
