REBEKAH CONVENTION HELD AT RIDDLE

RIDDLE, Nov. 20.—The 33rd annual convention of the Rebekah lodges of district 11 was held at Riddle, Ore., Wednesday, Nov. 15. The morning session was opened at 10:30 by Relief Rebekah lodge of Riddle, who surrendered their chairs to the convention officers when they were seated in a drill led by Lora Riddle and Oma Kellar. Josie Pfaff, chairman; Ethel Husebark, vice-chairman; Alta Aspey, secretary; Josie Pruner, treasurer; Ann Worthington, warden; Jane Knight, conductress. Each officer was presented with a boutonniere of flowers when seated.

The president, Sister Alma Henderson, of Salem, was introduced and welcomed. She was accompanied by Christine McCormack, publicity chairman of Portland.

The address of welcome was given by Helena Riddle, of Relief lodge No. 185, and responded to by Mabel Rader, of Umpqua No. 173.

The chairman also spoke words of greeting and read a poem she had written for the occasion.

The following committees were appointed by the chairman:

Thanks, Eva Poole, Ida Thomas, Addie Maxon.

Press, Gertrude Hatfield, Alice Green, Helena Riddle.

Resolution, Katherine Fenley, Myrtle Spangh, Winnie Hawn.

Memorial, Ethel Mae Worthington, Leona Slack, Vera Norman.

The past chairman of the convention were called to the center of the hall and two children, Bertha May Aspey and Kerry Adams, driven by Priscilla Pruner, with lines of pink and green, entered and presented each of them with a small gift.

Before the noon adjournment Sister Ethel Bailey, chaplain, read a beautiful prayer and Helena Riddle sang "In the Beautiful Garden of Prayer."

A basket dinner was enjoyed at noon.

The afternoon session opened at 1:30 o'clock. Members of the Roseburg lodge then presented a very beautiful memorial service. A white cross trimmed in green vines was placed in the front of the hall and "Rock of Ages" was reinstated in pantomime by Sister Nelson while the song was sung. Then each sister advanced and placed a tribute of flowers on the cross for the departed members, who were Gladys Cain, Genevieve Cornutt, Lois Hammond and William Austin.

Reports were read from the lodges in the district and the past noble grand clubs showing all in a progressive condition. The dice droll netted $6.21.

Sister Ida Thomas of Elktion gave two very amusing readings.

Relief Rebekah lodge gave the banner drill.

The president opened the question box and very ably answered the questions it held.

Relief Rebekah lodge exemplified balloting. Bertha Rebekah lodge of Canyonville the flag ceremony. Arthur Vitea of Myrtle Creek seating of officers march and Elktion No. 173 examining a member from another jurisdiction.

Roseburg was elected as the next meeting place and the Myrtle Creek lodge extended an invitation for the convention in 1941. The following officers were elected: Ethel Husebark, chairman; Helen Verrell, vice-chairman; Myrtle Spangh, secretary; Louise Young, treasurer; Vera Norman, conductor; Eva Poole, marshal; Josie Pruner, chaplain; Frances Hedden, I. G.; Alma Anderson, O. G.; Mayme Pickens, musician.

The president was presented with a lovely gift by the convention and the chairman received a bouquet.

The evening session was given over to the fraternal visit of the president to Myrtle Creek and Riddle lodges. After the business session the president gave a short talk as did other visiting brothers and sisters. Members of the Canyonville lodge gave a very amusing skit. Oma Kellar, Flora Dean and Ethel Chase gave reading and Anna Mills sang a solo. The president was presented with a myrtle wood bowl from the two lodges. Sister Lizzie Crow, charter member of the Riddle lodge was presented with a gift and Ann Dean, faithful musician also received a gift.

The following Rebekahs registered during the day and evening: Alma Henderson, president, Salem, Ore.; Sarah E. Jones, Salem, Ore.; Christine McCormack, Portland, Ore.; Alma Williams, Evelyn Hoover, Eugene, Ore.; Minnie James, Ruth Dishman, Ethel Bailey, Gertrude Hatfield, Alice Goff, Ethel Husebark, T. B. CHARTER MEMBERS GUESTS OF HONOR AT CHAPTER MEETING

GLENDALE, Nov. 20.—At a stated communication of Glendale chapter No. 71, O.E.S., the three charter members, Mrs. Nettie M. Levens, Mrs. Christina Olson and Charles T. Nail, were especially honored by their chapter. The initiation ceremony from a ritual of 1868 was exemplified for them and invited guests. The entire setting was arranged as of the period of 1868. The officers all wore gowns of green with ruffles and hoop skirts made for the occasion. The lighting was with old-fashioned candles. The parts were all well rendered and the evening will be remembered as one of the high lights in the history of the chapter.

Those who put on the ceremony were: Mrs. F. N. Harrel, worthy matron; Carl J. Sether, worthy patron; Mrs. W. D. Meissner, associate matron; Mrs. Frank Woodley, secretary; Miss Aileen Williams, treasurer; Mrs. W. T. Harhour, conductress; Mrs. E. J. McMullin, associate conductress; Mrs. O. G. Sether, organist; Mrs. R. E. Robinson, Adah; Mrs. H. P. Reed, Ruth; Mrs. G. H. Ashman, Esther; Mrs. R. E. Place, Martha; Mrs. Walter Kemp, Elecia; Mrs. Henry Gaelecke, warden, and Mrs. U. B. Austin, sentinel. Mrs. Harvey Stumbo acted as candle and was very lovely in a peach colored gown of the period.

After the close of the ceremonies about one hundred partook of dainty refreshments at beautiful appointed tables that carried out the harvest theme, with candles, garlands, ears of corn and other seasonal decorations. The after dinner speeches were many and were profuse in their praise and appreciation of a pleasant evening.

The dining room was in charge of Mrs. C. J. Sether, assisted by Mrs. H. Aydelott, Mrs. Anna Williams, Mrs. Melvin Nye, Mrs. Emma Humphreys, Mrs. C. B. Austin, Mrs. R. E. Robinson, Mrs. A. G. Henninger and others.

A number of out of town chapters were represented, visitors from these including Mrs. Mae Light, Mrs. Elma Pfister and Mrs. Volma Cool of Drain, Mrs. Grace Becker and Mrs. Sarah Ball of Riddle, Mrs. Myrtle Wampole of Roseburg, Tillie Youm and R. E. Critchfield of Myrtle Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sullivan, Helen Conlar, Margaret Kimmel, Mr. and Mrs. Guy McGee, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Weaver, Mrs. Etta Shaw, May Fenn and Mrs. Michaels of Canyonville; Mrs. Melvin Nye of Quartz Mountain, Mrs. Edna Fortune, Portland; Mrs. Bess Hopper, Astoria, Calif.; Mrs. Warren N. Hazen, Sultan; Washington; Mrs. J. H. Stewart, Central Point; Mrs. Frankie Schroder, Junction City; Mrs. Nette Theroux, Oregon City; and Miss Elev Walker, Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Harvey and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carlson of Klamath Falls were out of town members who returned for the occasion.

CHEERY PRINCESS HOUSEFROCK PATTERN 4171

by Anne Adams

It's buoyantly youthful... refreshingly gay... vastly becoming... so practical that you can't live without it. In other words, it's Anne Adams' new housedress, Pattern 4171—just what you need for sensible "look your best" home wear. The princess lines that curve so engagingly at the shoulders mold your figure to slim perfection. And see the prettily scalloped neckline. Best feature of all is that decorative, full-length buttoning that opens up flat for easy fronting and closes in a flat second for easy donning. Use the accompanying Sewing Instructor for a speedy job.

Pattern 4171 is available in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32 and 34. Size 16 takes 4 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER. Send your order to News-Review, Pattern Dept., Roseburg, Ore.
