

Roseburg News-Review

Issued Daily Except Sunday by the News-Review Co., Inc.

Member of The Associated Press... The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and to all local news published herein.

HARRIS ELLSWORTH, Editor

Entered as second class matter May 17, 1929, at the post office at Roseburg, Oregon, under act of March 2, 1879.

Represented by

New York—271 Madison Ave. Chicago—333 N. Dearborn St. St. Paul—100 N. Wabasha St. Minneapolis—100 N. Wabasha St. Los Angeles—121 S. Spring St. Seattle—602 Stewart St. Portland—526 S. W. Sixth St. St. Louis—411 N. Tenth St.

Subscription Rates: Daily, per year by mail, $5.00; Daily, 6 months by mail, $2.50; Daily, 3 months by mail, $1.25; Daily, by carrier per month, .45; Daily, by carrier per year, $5.00.

THE innocents pay in war almost in the same proportion as the belligerents. The little nations which aren't interested in conflict are finding out again that it costs a lot to remain neutral.

States, and both are now on the spot. The receipt leader is charged with using a false name on a passport; the band leader, with embezzling funds from the organization he heads.

THE annual clamor urging you to do your Christmas shopping early has begun again, but the stores on Saturday, Dec. 23, will probably be just as jammed with riotous last-minute shoppers as they always are just before the holiday.

This is too bad, because merchant can't very well save their choicest merchandise for the convenience of harassed eleventh hour buyers. It is also a pretty well established fact that getting your toes stepped on and your hat pushed down over your face amid the frenzy of late shopping doesn't help to develop Christmas spirit.

Folks who have tried checking off their holiday purchases early have found the holiday season to be a lot less strenuous, and a lot more fun.

WAR 25 Years Ago Today

Bulletins in ROSEBURG REVIEW

November 21, 1914 PARIS.—A German plan to attempt burning the allies out of the trenches in northwestern Belgium is suspected. It is certain they have provided themselves with large numbers of huge barges and vast quantities of crude oil.

PETROGRAD.—The Germans' offensive in Russian Poland, between the Vistula and Warthe rivers, has been checked, the war office asserted. The fighting has been said to be of the bloodiest character.

EL PASO.—A general movement of the Villistas from Francisco and Queretaro to Mexico City is on. Twenty thousand soldiers and a hundred cannon have already started to the capital.

Editorials on News

(Continued from page 1)

Hitler probably isn't ready for that yet—even Stalin. The world has changed a little since Genghis Khan and Tamerlane— not fundamentally, but in matters of detail.

IT'S still a war of words, with Hitler threatening bloody murder about every other day but so far pulling his punches.

HERE is a luncheon: Hitler is cooking up something; probably a new deal with Stalin. He expects it to be good when he gets it ready.

Someone must pay for all this. The warring powers aren't going to foot the bills of neutrals, even if the belligerents are responsible for the expenses.

KLAN CHIEF HITS TERROR METHODS

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 20. (AP)—J. A. Colestock of Atlanta, new imperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, said today he did not intend to tolerate such methods of intimidation as the burning of crosses and parades of white-robed figures through negro sections.

THE patience of the American people is sometimes amazing. For years we listened tolerantly, if a little indignantly, to Earl Browder's assaults on our government.

Here From Eugene — George Dammig, who fled from Eugene yesterday in this city on business.

OUT OUR WAY

HEROES ARE MADE—NOT BORN

By Williams

SERIAL STORY

JOAN OF ARKANSAS

BY JERRY BRONDFIELD

COPYRIGHT, 1939, NEA SERVICE, INC.

CAST OF CHARACTERS

JOAN JOHNSON—a mysterious cool, glamorous girl of the Tech campus.

KEITH RHODES—Tech's star fullback, headed for All-American honors.

DAN WEBBER—the blocking back who clears Keith's way; a steady, industrious student.

YESTERDAY: Tech stops Pitt inches from the goal, but the Panthers score on a place kick. Late in the final quarter Tech intercepts a short pass. Rhodes goes wide on a reverse. Blockers cut down Pitt and Dan takes out the last two tacklers.

CHAPTER XXX Dan left the house through the back door. He took no chances by venturing through that mob downstairs.

He hailed a cab on the corner and climbed in. "Hotel Regent," he directed.

A shower of feathers broke over Dan as he alighted from the cab. Someone on the seventh floor of the Regent had slit open the pillows as a substitute for confetti.

Street cars were tied up for two blocks as wild-eyed undergrads pulled the trolleys from the wire. Police whistles shrilled unheeded as traffic rules and regulations were tossed to the winds.

The lobby at the Regent was in an uproar. The management, with great discretion, had removed the rugs and more expensive furniture.

Dan jumped back just in time as three freshmen splashed by with a large gold fish aquarium they had appropriated from the far side of the lobby.

He called the Johnson suite on the house phone. "I don't dare to be recognized," he told Joan.

"Where'll I meet you?" Her laugh tinkled back over the wire. "Duck into an elevator and come right up. Dad's ordered dinner served in the rooms."

J. G. met him at the door. "Welcome, young man. Glad you came. Sit down. Sit down." J. G. shifted his cigar and drew up a chair. "Joan'll be right on with her makeup. . . silly stuff."

It was a delicious meal, but Joan, glancing at him every once in a while, sensed something was wrong.

"I'm there's something bothering you," J. G. remarked. "Guess I might as well tell you," he replied quietly. "I found a letter at the house when I got back. It . . . it wasn't good news at all."

"What's wrong, boy . . . what's wrong?" J. G. demanded. "Nothing we can't fix. . . nothing we can't fix. . . I'll take care of it."

"Thanks, you overwhelm me," he replied a little dryly, "but this is something different. It's just that I got a letter from the company I expected to work for after graduation. They say they're awfully sorry, of course, but it seems as though a change in ownership and policy has made it necessary to break any commitments they had made to me previously. In fact, they promise nothing."

He turned to Joan fiercely. "I'd been counting on that job. I'll be darned if I play pro ball or take a teaching job. He stared moodily at his salad."

Joan winked at her father. J. G.'s laugh exploded through the room and Dan looked at him, somewhat hurt. He didn't notice Joan was smothering a grin.

"I don't get it at all," Dan said dourly. "Or have I lost my sense of humor?"

J. G. cleared his throat for another verbal barrage, but Joan bent him to it.

"Maybe I should have told you this before, Dan . . . especially since it concerns you so vitally." She smiled impishly. "Don't look now, but you're dining with your future employer."

"I'm what with who?" he echoed. "Acme Pottery Products," she announced. "It's now a unit of J. G. and common industries, Inc. It was Dan's firm that bought it."

GUARD UNIT HERE

GIVEN STREAMER

The Roseburg national guard company was awarded special honor at the regular drill period last night when a golden streamer was formally presented in recognition of the achievement of being the first national guard company in the 162nd Infantry to complete recruiting to the new quota.

The state of Oregon it was reported, was the first in the nation to be recruited to full strength authorized by presidential order issued Sept. 22.

Captain Robert L. Irving notified the members of plans for field training periods to be held Nov. 25 and 26, Dec. 2 and 3 and Jan. 5, 6 and 7. All active members will be required to attend.

The local company has planned many social activities for the winter season. The first of these was a dance last Friday night for all active and inactive members and their ladies. Lunch was served by the newly formed ladies auxiliary under the supervision of their mess sergeant Arvilla Buffington.

More dances are planned for the balance of the winter. Skating parties also are planned and it is proposed to form vocal units, rifle squads and other groups within the company and auxiliary.

BRIDGES LASHES 'FRISCO C. OF C.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21. (AP)—Harry Bridges gave the chamber of commerce a tongue lashing as opposing sides in the latest San Francisco waterfront dock boycotted for position and tried to woo public sentiment to-day.

Bridges also told Mayor Angelo J. Rossi that ship owners are taking you for a ride.

The labor union leader's declarations left the score on statements about even-employer and business groups and the mayor have been lampooning Bridges—but the waterfront remained approximately 55 per cent tied by the CIO ship clerks' strike.

Six hundred and fifty clerks walked out November 15 following a prolonged deadlock in negotiations for a new contract. Negotiations have been suspended since that time, although Federal Mediator William T. Gearty has been trying to bring the two sides to-day.

Bridges' statements, issued after his return last night from southern California, was in answer to a challenge to his leadership by the chamber of commerce, the mayor, waterfront employers, and the associated farmers.

Bridges' statements, issued after his return last night from southern California, was in answer to a challenge to his leadership by the chamber of commerce, the mayor, waterfront employers, and the associated farmers.

THANKS SERVICE IN ROSEBURG DATED

The union Thanksgiving service of the Roseburg churches will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at the Episcopal church. The following program has been arranged.

Invocation—Rev. M. H. Roach, Episcop. Responsive reading—Led by Rev. Perry Smith, Episcop.

Scripture—Rev. A. J. Schuke, Episcop. Prayer—Rev. H. P. Scotter, Episcop. Special music.

Thanksgiving message—Rev. John Barney, Episcop. Hymn. Benediction.

A cordial invitation is extended by the pastors association to everyone in the community to attend this Thanksgiving service.

RAMBLINGS

By PAUL JENKINS

YOU'RE just the fellow I've been looking for," said a friend of mine who lives in the country, as I met him in front of the Douglass National bank Saturday. "I cried five times and drove five miles trying to find a place to park, while I bought groceries today. Isn't there ANY PLACE one can stop, without breaking some kind of parking law or other?"

Well, yes, there is. Quite a number of places, in fact, unless someone beats you to them.

I suppose you (speaking generally to my friend and his friends) are complaining chiefly of those "no parking" signs marked off so prominently along our curbs, with orange colored paint. Also, possibly, of the many recessed curbs.

Let's see about this. Several months ago I inquired about this situation from a prominent city official. "At the present time," this gentleman told me, "there are no authorized 'no parking' zones, except those in front of fire hydrants, intersections, corners, the city hall, the hotels and the theatres, and only during performances at these latter places. The reason the theatres and hotels are zoned for 'no parking' is not to afford their patrons parking privileges, but fire protection."

It seems to me this is plain enough. If you wish to park when you come to town, park wherever you wish, as long as it isn't in front of a fire plug or other street police-zoned area as mentioned above.

If the city ordinances covering this situation have been changed since the pronouncement of the official quoted above, I'm not aware of it. Even if they have, if you get up loud enough a holler about it, if they still don't suit you, they may be changed. There's a lot of plain dumb-foolishness gotten away with here in the matter of "no parking" privileges.

It's a fine how-do-to be invited to come to a town to do your trading, then be shunted out into the suburbs to find a place to park.

I wish the marine recruiting sergeants and their office personnel would wear their field uniforms when they come to town on business. These natty dress outfits are enough to turn the head of every young man, with enlistment in his blood, in the county, and deplorable it.

How many members of the A. E. F. now in Roseburg ever saw an officer or an enlisted man in dress uniform? Don't all speak at once, boys.

I don't know what a marine dress uniform would do to the enemy; but I sure would knock the madamoles for a row.

That is, if the men ever get to wear 'em, except on recruiting service.

Twenty years after the Mexican volcano, Mount Jorullo, erupted, a cigar could be lighted from the lava a few inches below the surface.

VENERABLE MONARCH

HORIZONTAL Answer to Previous Puzzle 7 Iteration, 8 Science of Language, 9 To throw, 10 Elms, 11 You, 12 Marched formally, 13 Gypsy, 14 Banquets, 15 Card game, 16 Settled, 17 Eye, 18 Owned, 19 Mined, 20 To go to bed, 21 Conventional jargon, 22 Sawlike organ, 23 Every, 24 To quote, 25 Requisition, 26 Double, 27 To drip, 28 Long grass, 29 Constellation, 30 Pithy saying, 31 Male servant, 32 Unit of work.

ROLL CALL TO BE EXTENDED TO HOMES

A solicitation throughout the residential district of Roseburg in connection with the annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross will be made prior to Nov. 30, it was announced today.

A thorough canvass has been made in the business districts, and persons not already contributing to the Red Cross are asked to be prepared to secure their membership through the solicitors who will conduct the house-to-house canvass in the residential district.

Ladies who have volunteered to assist in the membership campaign are Mrs. Kenneth Hollowell, Mrs. J. E. Bailey, Mrs. Carl Posey, Mrs. O. Feldkamp, Mrs. Carl Nickerson, Mrs. Albert Mitchell, Mrs. Frank Long, Mrs. C. P. Snoddy, Mrs. Ivan Pickens, Mrs. George Wharton, Mrs. H. O. Pargeter, Mrs. Stan Lapham, Mrs. Morris Bowker, Mrs. G. W. Marshall, Mrs. George Kohlhaas, Mrs. C. D. Fies, Miss Elinor Fies, Mrs. C. V. Cook, Mrs. Daniel Keobane, Mrs. A. D. Parr, Mrs. H. H. Frank, Mrs. Thomas Summers, Mrs. J. V. Koel, Mrs. W. L. Herron, Mrs. S. Richmond, Mrs. H. E. DeBernard.

GRANGERS SET 27TH THANKS PROGRAM

Residents of the South Deer creek community will gather at their grange hall Thursday for the 27th consecutive community Thanksgiving celebration. The continuous record of the South Deer Creek grange's annual celebration is believed to be unequalled in Oregon.

Tables will be spread in the grange hall at noon for the Thanksgiving dinner. A program of music, skits, talks and general entertainment will be held during the afternoon hours. Supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock and dancing will follow until midnight.

The annual celebration, open to all residents of the community and their friends, usually draws from 80 to 100 participants.

DRIVER DAMAGES COURTHOUSE LAWN

Officials at the courthouse are greatly aroused today over the act of some unknown person in driving an automobile across the courthouse lawn. Although the act was believed to be either a youthful or drunken prank, the result was considerable damage to the well kept lawn, which is maintained in its beautiful condition only at much expense. Officers are searching to determine the identity of the responsible person, who, it is stated, if located will be arrested and prosecuted for wanton damage to property.

Don't NEGLECT PAINS OF STOMACH ULCERS

MAKES THIS 25¢ NO RISK UGGA TEST Thousands prove UGGA Test is the only relief for heartburn, burning sensation, flatulence, indigestion, gas, pain, and other conditions caused by excess acid. Get a 25¢ package of UGGA Tablets TODAY. Absolutely safe to use. They must help you YOUR MONEY will be refunded.

AT CHAPMAN'S PHARMACY

HORT. SOCIETY TO MEET DEC. 7 AND 8

Fruit growers of Oregon will gather at Hood River on December 7 and 8 for their thirty-first annual meeting of the Oregon State Horticultural society, tentative program for which has been prepared by President Dan Pierson of Hood River, O. T. McWhorter, secretary, and other officers.

Fruit marketing is to be the chief subject under consideration this year and will be discussed from many angles. Governor Charles A. Sprague will be one of the early speakers on the subject "State and Grower Cooperation in Marketing." Dean William Schoenfeld of O. S. C. is going to discuss the European situation, while other marketing problems will be handled by E. R. Pooley, president of the Oregon-Washington pear bureau, and Harry J. Eastace of Agricultural Trade Relations, Inc. The detailed program will be announced later.

KRRR Mutual Broadcasting System 1500 Kilocycles

REMAINING HOURS TODAY

- 4:00—Pulton Lewis, Jr., MBS. 4:15—Haven of Rest, MBS. 4:45—Tea Time Dance. 5:15—Tina Warner, MBS. 5:30—Conch Sketches. 6:00—Tonight's Tune. 6:05—News, Calif. Pacific Utilities Co. 6:10—News-Review NewsFlashes. 6:15—Shafter Parker, MBS. 6:30—John B. Hughes, MBS. 6:45—Dinner Dance. 7:00—American Family Robinson. 7:15—Mutual Maestro. 7:30—Neil Jordan, Secret Agent, MBS. 8:00—Adventures in Rhythm, MBS. 8:30—Interlude. 8:35—Dick Jorgens' Orch., MBS. 8:45—Twilight Trails, Avalon Cigarettes, MBS. 9:00—Aika Seltzer News, MBS. 9:15—Everett Hoagland's Orch., MBS. 9:30—Jan Garber's Orch., MBS. 9:45—Pulton Lewis, Jr., MBS. 10:00—Sign Off.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 22

- 6:40—Farm Bureau Service Program. 7:00—Stuff and Nonsense. 7:15—News-Review of the Air. 7:40—Night Dances. 7:45—J. M. Judd Says "Good Morning." 7:50—Rhapsody in Wax. 8:00—Breakfast Club, MBS. 8:30—Keep Fit to Music, MBS. 8:45—Homesitters' Forum, MBS. 9:00—Christmas Shoppers' Special. 9:30—Man About Town. 10:00—Happy Young, MBS. 10:10—The Manhattan, MBS. 10:45—Adventures of Uncle Jimmy, Copco. 11:00—Hollywood Whispers, MBS. 11:15—Chas. Openul's Hawaiians, MBS. 11:30—Spraybook Stories, MBS. 11:45—Jimmy Walsh's Orchestra, MBS. 12:00—Lunch Dance. 12:15—"Chipping in on the Family Menu," Blue Bell Potato Chips. 12:20—Rhythm at Random. 12:35—Parkinson's Information Exchange. 12:45—News, Safeway Stores. 12:50—News-Review of the Air. 1:00—Heninger's Man on the Street. 1:15—Mischa Borr's Ensemble, MBS. 1:30—The Quiet Hour. 2:00—At Your Command. 2:30—Johnson Family, MBS. 2:35—Ma Perkins, Proctor and Gamble, MBS. 2:45—Chapel Moments, MBS. 3:00—The Feminine Fancies, MBS. 3:30—Lois Hanger, MBS. 3:45—To Be Announced, MBS. 4:00—Pulton Lewis, Jr., MBS. 4:15—Haven of Rest, MBS. 4:45—Tea Time Dance. 5:00—Glen Miller's Orchestra, MBS. 5:20—Pioneers of the Prairie. 5:30—Tonight's Tune. 6:05—News, Calif. Pacific Utilities Co. 6:10—News-Review News Flashes. 6:15—Shafter Parker, MBS. 6:30—John B. Hughes, Avalon Cigarettes, MBS. 6:45—Dinner Dance. 7:00—Mutual Maestros. 7:30—Lois Hanger, MBS. 8:00—Griff Williams' Orchestra, MBS. 8:30—Interlude. 8:35—Dick Jorgens' Orchestra, MBS. 9:00—Aika Seltzer News, MBS. 9:15—Glen Lombardo's Orchestra, MBS. 9:30—Jan Garber's Orchestra, MBS. 9:45—Pulton Lewis, Jr., MBS. 10:00—Sign Off.

Advertisement for MENTHOLATUM cold relief. Includes text: 'for Discomforts from COLDS use MENTHOLATUM Link them together in your mind!'