

Around the County

CAMAS VALLEY

CAMAS VALLEY, Nov. 18.—Emery and Jerry Thrush, both from near Stockton, California, visited part of last week at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Thrush.

Mrs. Noble Standley took care of Mr. and Mrs. James Adamek's small son last week while the parents visited in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail Lawson and Abbie Lawson left for Portland Sunday after a week's visit at the T. G. Lawson home.

Miss Edna Brown of Roseburg visited friends and attended to business matters here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lawson and son, Morgan, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Lawson Saturday afternoon.

Dee Coon and Frank Church just finished loading out four car loads of incense cedar lumber at Hillard for shipment to Stockton, California. They are operating their saw mill again this week having secured several orders for fir lumber.

Miss Esther Brown, teacher at Medford, spent the week-end at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ethel Brown.

Miss Standley and Bill Smith have just finished doing some repair work in the school gymnasium. New rear doors were hung and repairs made to several places in the floor and base boards.

Raymond Miller from Winchester and a friend from Roseburg called Sunday at the T. G. Lawson home.

School students names appearing on the honor roll for the first six weeks period were as follows: high school, Eldred Rathkey, Guy Moore, Neal McFall, Marie Divine, Ariel Metzler and Donald Coon; eighth grade, Jeanne Moore, Lorraine Perry, Doris Church and Virginia Coon; seventh grade, Juanita Reetz, Earlane Palmer and Frances Church; sixth grade, Gail Church, Bob Perry and LaYonne Amstein; fifth grade, Louise Church and Joanne Lawson; fourth grade, Joanne Church and Albert Wafer; third grade, Lennie Denn and Jimmie Garrett; second grade, Bernice Lounsbury; first grade, Mary Lee Huglan, Lois Johnson, son, Jimmy Standley, Gene Wafer and Helen Wakefield.

CAMAS VALLEY, Nov. 20.—Howard Brown who has lately been working in Eugene, came home Saturday and has been visiting at his home during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Negles and small son of Talent spent Sunday night at the home of Mrs. Negles' father, Charles Wiley, and visited a short time Monday morning with her sister, Mrs. Dee Coon, before going on to Marshfield. They will go on up the coast to Astoria before returning home.

Morris Thrush missed the road on the hill south of Claude Church's Sunday evening due to a heavy fog. He and his wife were bringing in a load of furniture for Mr. Lane. Morris was driving slowly not being able to see the road clearly and was so near the edge of the hill when he found that he was out of the road—he could not pull back to the road. The truck turned over on its side and not even dislodging his load. Neither of the men were hurt. Frank Church pulled the car out the next morning with the loading truck after unloading the contents.

Mrs. Jack Parrott and Mrs. R. L. Richter both returned from Washington last week. Mrs. Parrott visited her mother, Mrs. Douglas, in Pullman, and Mrs. Richter a daughter, Mrs. Clifford Wolbert in Concrete, Wash.

Lowell Standley and Jack Smith left Wednesday for Seattle where they intend to join the coast guards.

Margaret Brown went to Marshfield Wednesday afternoon to visit for a few days with her aunt, Mrs. May Brown.

Mrs. H. C. Boyle, Mrs. Rose Kinman, Mrs. Eth Thrush, Mrs. Lloyd Roberts, Miss Lula Roberts, Mrs. Ethel Brown, Mrs. Ernest Wheeler, Mrs. T. G. Lawson, Mrs. H. J. Church, Mrs. Dixon, Mrs. Joe Kirtland and Mrs. G. R. Moore attended the Safari meeting at the Lookingglass church Wednesday evening. They report a very interesting meeting. Camas Valley will entertain at the annual Safari meeting for November, 1940.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Standley made a business trip to Eugene Thursday.

Mrs. Paul Lane returned the last of the week from Seattle where she was called by the death of a sister.

Mrs. A. H. Church was very ill Thursday. Dr. Shoemaker of Roseburg was called during the morning to attend her.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross K. Brown attended a school principals' meeting in Roseburg Thursday.

Rex Dick has purchased an eighty-acre farm between Halsay and Shedd, a short distance off the highway east. He left here Thursday afternoon to take possession of his property.

TENMILE, Nov. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Swift took their daughter, Lois, to Roseburg Tuesday to receive medical treatment. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seigel were visiting and attending to business matters in Roseburg Friday.

Still, in Some Ways It's Very Familiar

Miss Lucile Hoelmer and Jerry Park, attended the football game in Eugene last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilson were shopping in Roseburg Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Larson, from Olla, have moved onto the Mrs. Carr place. Mrs. Larson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Metzler of upper Olla. Mr. Larson is formerly from California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rathkey were shopping and transacting business in Roseburg Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, Sr., from Reno, Nev., are visiting at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Simpson.

Mrs. Edith Larson from Salem is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Annie Rathkey while Mrs. Amy Carter, another daughter is in Salem caring for Mrs. Larson's family.

Miss Doreen Henry of Tenmile spent two days this week with Miss Marie Divine in Olla.

Dr. Snell and Amel Matson from Los Angeles, Calif., who formerly resided in Tenmile, were visiting friends in the valley and also in Olla last week.

Alice Albro and Doreen Henry were guests at the Mrs. Larson home last Saturday.

ELKTON, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Fay Madison, of Scottsburg, visited the home of Mrs. Dora Traylor, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Townsend, of Roseburg, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Haines.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lemley and "Dutch" Brookhart, of Reedsport, were in Elkton Wednesday.

Mrs. Lena Bossen has charge of the Red Cross drive at Elkton.

Ray Zaek, Indian student of the Northwest Christian college of Eugene, spoke at the Christian church Sunday morning and afternoon. Sunday visitors at the Nels Rydell and A. R. McDonald homes were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rydell, of Bend.

John Sawyers put a new roof on one of Clara Smith's barns this week.

A turkey picking plant is being opened by Swift and Company in the building that was used for a blacksmith shop by Nels Rydell.

Members of Umpqua Rebekah lodge No. 173 who went to Riddle Wednesday to attend the thirty-third annual Rebekah convention were Mrs. Lena Bossen, Mrs. Anna Franklin, Mrs. Katherine Fenley, Mrs. Kathleen Huges, Miss Iris Haines, Mrs. Frances Hedden, Mrs. Ida Thomas, Mrs. Edith Adams, Mrs. Gladys Griffith and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rader.

Mrs. Elmer Schud has returned home from Eugene, where she has been in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Henderer, Mrs. Ina Henderer and Walter Duff went to North Bend Wednesday evening to see Norman Weatherly, who is in the hospital. Mr. Weatherly is reported somewhat improved.

Mrs. J. E. Haines and Vera Haines were Eugene visitors Wednesday.

C. L. Kins has finished the harvesting of his tiberts and the fall cultivation of the orchard and has returned to his home in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Greer, son Jimmy, and Miss Virginia Feoco left Thursday for Sand Point, Idaho for a visit with Mrs. Greer's parents.

A. P. Slack was a business visitor to Eugene Thursday.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new improvements at the Bonanza mine and the new plant will be in operation soon.

H. Peabody of Myrtle Creek has purchased property on Calapooa street from Mrs. Robert Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young have been remodeling the interior of the home which they recently purchased.

Fred Madigan has returned from Portland where he was treated by a specialist for injuries sustained when he was struck by a car.

The pipe line for the new water system was placed under the highway on Calapooa street Wednesday completing a difficult link in the project. George Beecroft, the contractor, expects to finish the job the last of the week.

Walter Bedell has accepted a job as helper in Herman Myer's Highway garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Norris, former operators of the "Chill Queen" restaurant in Marshfield have leased the Riley building on Calapooa street. They are making extensive alterations and expect to start serving meals in the near future.

The peony dinner and picture show which was held at the Art's building Wednesday evening and sponsored by the P.T.C. was very much enjoyed by those who attended.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Greer and son, Jimmy, have returned to their home in Myrtle Point. Mr. Greer has been employed by the Powrie Logging company in Sutherlin during the summer and fall months.

A. A. Frost has purchased the property owned by Mrs. Margaret Phillips which lies three miles east of town.

Mrs. Ned Bottonburg of Redmond is visiting her father, O. C. Luchterhand, and her sister, Mrs. Frank Holgate, and family, until after the Thanksgiving holiday.

Miss Irene Murphy was a business visitor in Roseburg Thursday.

Mrs. Orville French and Mrs. Leslie Chapman drove to Eugene Thursday to visit with Mrs. French's sister, Mrs. Mabel Barrett.

Mrs. Gilsan Mardin left Thursday for Portland where she will visit relatives until after Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Cora Allen, Helen and Juanita Allen and Dee Atterbury spent last Sunday in Cottage Grove with relatives.

Edna Stacey plans to leave Tuesday for Seattle, Wash., to visit with her cousin, Mrs. Charles Brydson.

Mrs. Jack Culver, Sr., and Mrs. Jack Culver, Jr., were dinner guests of Mrs. Emil Palm in Roseburg Thursday.

Ed Hall had the misfortune to have his car stripped of its tires last Monday night.

a business trip to Cave City Tuesday.

SUTHERLIN

SUTHERLIN, Nov. 21.—Vern Holgate caught a chinook salmon last Sunday on a fishing trip to Scottsburg accompanied by Wesley Thompson of Cottage Grove, and Jerry DeMuth.

Avery Van Duzen, who has been ill at his home for several weeks, was able to be down town Monday.

Mrs. Savilla Bamber, Mrs. Theodore Anderson and Mrs. Brittain Slack attended the Rebekah lodge district convention at Riddle Wednesday. There were about 125 Rebekahs present at the meeting.

C. L. Kins has finished the harvesting of his tiberts and the fall cultivation of the orchard and has returned to his home in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Greer, son Jimmy, and Miss Virginia Feoco left Thursday for Sand Point, Idaho for a visit with Mrs. Greer's parents.

A. P. Slack was a business visitor to Eugene Thursday.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new improvements at the Bonanza mine and the new plant will be in operation soon.

H. Peabody of Myrtle Creek has purchased property on Calapooa street from Mrs. Robert Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young have been remodeling the interior of the home which they recently purchased.

Fred Madigan has returned from Portland where he was treated by a specialist for injuries sustained when he was struck by a car.

The pipe line for the new water system was placed under the highway on Calapooa street Wednesday completing a difficult link in the project. George Beecroft, the contractor, expects to finish the job the last of the week.

Walter Bedell has accepted a job as helper in Herman Myer's Highway garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Norris, former operators of the "Chill Queen" restaurant in Marshfield have leased the Riley building on Calapooa street. They are making extensive alterations and expect to start serving meals in the near future.

The peony dinner and picture show which was held at the Art's building Wednesday evening and sponsored by the P.T.C. was very much enjoyed by those who attended.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Greer and son, Jimmy, have returned to their home in Myrtle Point. Mr. Greer has been employed by the Powrie Logging company in Sutherlin during the summer and fall months.

A. A. Frost has purchased the property owned by Mrs. Margaret Phillips which lies three miles east of town.

Mrs. Ned Bottonburg of Redmond is visiting her father, O. C. Luchterhand, and her sister, Mrs. Frank Holgate, and family, until after the Thanksgiving holiday.

Miss Irene Murphy was a business visitor in Roseburg Thursday.

Mrs. Orville French and Mrs. Leslie Chapman drove to Eugene Thursday to visit with Mrs. French's sister, Mrs. Mabel Barrett.

Mrs. Gilsan Mardin left Thursday for Portland where she will visit relatives until after Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Cora Allen, Helen and Juanita Allen and Dee Atterbury spent last Sunday in Cottage Grove with relatives.

Edna Stacey plans to leave Tuesday for Seattle, Wash., to visit with her cousin, Mrs. Charles Brydson.

Mrs. Jack Culver, Sr., and Mrs. Jack Culver, Jr., were dinner guests of Mrs. Emil Palm in Roseburg Thursday.

Ed Hall had the misfortune to have his car stripped of its tires last Monday night.

Mrs. Cora Allen of the local

Red and White store has installed some very attractive display islands; the work of George Beller, expert local carpenter.

The Powrie Logging company of Myrtle Point, who have been cutting Port Orford cedar west of Sutherlin, finished hauling logs Tuesday to Marshfield. During the summer the company could decked over one million feet on the local siding for shipment to the coast. According to present plans they expect to return next spring. Among the men who were employed by the company and who have returned to their homes are Howard Bronson of Myrtle Creek, Everett Lortie, Irvin Schroeder, Fred Spies and the employers, Bob and G. B. Powrie of Myrtle Point.

Herman Myers of the Highway garage was a business visitor in Roseburg Friday.

YONCALLA

YONCALLA, Nov. 21.—Rev. and Mrs. Elmer Gandy and two daughters will start evangelistic services at the Methodist church Sunday, Nov. 26, continuing for a week. Mr. Gandy is a well known artist while his wife is an experienced radio singer and the two girls play piano accordion and steel guitar. Mr. Gandy will draw pastel pictures each night and colored lights will be used to enhance the effect of each scene. The church congregation is urging the general public to attend.

When trans-Atlantic cables are raised for repairs, tons of oysters are found clinging to them.

1 Fresh? Just whiff it when I grind it

No mistaking that deep zesty aroma! Airway's fresh, all right! Hours fresh! Your grocer orders it in the bean...right from the roasting ovens! No stop-overs...no delays till it reaches his store. That's why every pound you buy is Airway at its best!

2 Thrifty? That's the pleasant surprise about Airway

So little time is lost between roaster and grocer that special containers aren't needed. A sensible bag does the job...safely, economically. That's why Airway, with all its grand fresh flavor, costs you so little.

3 Good? It's premium coffee tested by experts

And talk about strict! Nothing but choice mellow coffees for Airway! Perfect for blending! Why not try this aristocrat? You can't lose! Airway is unconditionally guaranteed...every pound of it! For freshness, flavor and thrifty price.

AIRWAY COFFEE

The ARISTOCRAT of thrifty coffees

GET IT AT SAFEWAY

Roseburg Dairy Grade A Pasteurized and Raw Milk "Drink Milk for Health" Phone 186

FOR YOUR TAXI Phone 21

"Oh Mother, Daddy's yelling for more SNOW FLAKES!" SATISFY THE FAMILY BY HAVING PLENTY OF SNOW FLAKES ON HAND. BREAK A SNOW FLAKE. See how tender and flaky it is. That's why SNOW FLAKES lead in popularity all over the West. You get them while they are really fresh because they are baked in a nearby National Biscuit Company bakery and rushed to your grocer. BETTER CRACKERS FOR YOUR MONEY. It costs no more to get fresh-baked SNOW FLAKES. They make soups and salads and other good things so much tastier. SNOW FLAKES come in three convenient sizes. Get a package from your grocer today. SUGGESTION OF THE WEEK For seafood cocktails and salads spread SNOW FLAKES with mixture of butter and curry powder or with grated cheese, and toast them. SNOW FLAKE CRACKERS A PRODUCT OF NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

Airway's a good coffee to remember when economy is your buy word. 1 Fresh? Just whiff it when I grind it. 2 Thrifty? That's the pleasant surprise about Airway. 3 Good? It's premium coffee tested by experts. AIRWAY COFFEE. The ARISTOCRAT of thrifty coffees. GET IT AT SAFEWAY.