Married on Thanksgiving Day

Reading left: Miss Elois Wilson, of Portland, bridesmaid; Mr. and Mrs. Hubert R. Ulrich, and the best man, Eldon Ulrich, and flower girl, Nancy Marie Gile, of Roseburg.

At a beautiful and impressive service Thanksgiving day, November 23rd, Miss Olivia Purvance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Purvance, of Coquille, became the bride of Hubert R. Ulrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich, of Portland, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. R. L. Gile, in Edenbowser.

The ceremony was performed at one-thirty o'clock by Rev. Kenneth Wishart, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, who is pastor of Peninsula Avenue Evangelical church in Portland. About forty relatives and close friends attended the wedding and reception.

The wedding took place before a beautifully decorated improvised altar in front of the fireplace, which was flanked by sprays of sword ferns and huckleberry and flanked by large baskets of Turner chrysanthemums in white, while pale orchard and white chrysanthemums were used about the candlelighted room.

Following the ceremony, Miss Elois sang, "Love Your Truly," accompanied on the organ by Miss Myrtle Minter, of Coquille, and by Oscar Carlson, Salem violinist. At the close of the ceremony, Miss Elois Wilson sang and the benediction was given by Rev. Mr. Wishart.

The bride was charming in a wedding gown of white tulle, with a white tulle wedding veil fashioned with a head-wreath of lilies of the valley. She carried a round shower bouquet of bouvardia, Tulliaman rosebuds, sweetpeas, gardenias and argeratum.

Miss Elois Wilson, of Portland, acted as bridesmaid and was lovely in a formal frock of aqua blue. She carried a bouquet of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums. Eldon Ulrich, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man, and little Nancy Marie Gile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Gile, was flower girl and was beautiful in a frock of yellow silk with matching ribbons in her hair.

Following the impressive wedding service, a Thanksgiving dinner was served buffet style. Pastel pink, orchid and yellow chrysanthemums graced the table. The two-tiered wedding cake, beautifully decorated in white and pastel-colored rosebuds, was cut by the bride.

Guests invited to the wedding and dinner-reception included: Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich, Eldon, Ivan and Gladys Ulrich, Miss Marie Ellis, Miss Elois Wilson, Miss Pauline Hayden, Gerald and Gordon Jaffer, Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Wishart, all of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Gile and son, Schuyler, and Oscar Carlson, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. E.

M. Wilson, Miss Myrtle Minter, Miss Eleanor Peterson and Richard Christianson and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Purvance, of Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. R. L. Gile, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Marsters, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Gile and daughter, Nancy Marie, Mrs. W. H. Richardson, Charles Hamilton, Miss Marion Murray and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Post, all of Roseburg.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich left for points north, after which they will go to Portland to make their home. For traveling, the bride chose a Viking blue frock and matching coat with black accessories.

The bride attended high school in Coquille and later went to Portland to attend Bible college, after which she returned to Coquille to work as a bookkeeper and stenographer in the offices of Smith-Woods company. Mr. Ulrich is a student at the Bible college in Portland. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich are very talented musicians.

The bride is well known in Roseburg, having visited here a number of times at the home of her aunt, Mrs. R. L. Gile.
