Daily Devotions

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

A Christian cannot have a rich experience and fail to give generously to the Lord. When we accepted Christ we had an impulse to give all. We must continue to cultivate that impulse. A systematic plan of giving is essential. Our interest in Christian enterprises and institutions will be quite in proportion to the size of our gifts to them. The size of our gift, of course, is measured by the amount we have to give. Our interest in Christian understanding will be just in proportion to the amount of our giving. One day Jesus saw the people placing their gifts upon the altar. A woman brought two mites and Jesus paid tribute to her, because she had given all she possessed. Others had given out of abundance. She had given all she had. Many never experience the fulness of joy that comes by giving generously. How can we withhold our gifts from one who so generously gave "His all" for our redemption. Amen.

Today's Pattern

CRISP, PRACTICAL APRON STYLE PATTERN 4304

by Anne Adams

Aprons may have "brains and beauty" too—as Anne Adams' Pattern 4304 proves. Both efficient versions give complete, ample protection, yet look cheerful and becoming. Don't you love those smartly pointed, "upped" waistlines and tulip-shaped pockets? It's hard to choose between the two styles. Apron A shows contrasting straps, forming ruffled-edged scallops in front, and pockets of matching color. The simpler style of B is equally effective, especially with ric-rac trim. You'll like that horizontal back piece that keeps your shoulder straps up. So easy to make!

Pattern 4304 is available in sizes small, medium and large. Small size, view A, takes 2 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric and 3/8 yard contrast; view B, 2 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric and 3/4 yards ric-rac. Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly: SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STREET NUMBER. "Can I afford to be in style?" With New Year gaudies almost here, you can't afford NOT to be! ANNE ADAMS' WINTER PATTERN BOOK comes to your aid. There are vivid frocks for day and night festivities, as well as timely gowns and winter vacation wearables. A special corner is reserved for youngsters and coeds... a special section for slimming matrons' modes. Be the best dressed "lady-on-a-budget" in town by ordering our book now! BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. PATTERN FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND PATTERN TOGETHER, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.
