BEAUTIFUL PAGEANT PRESENTED BY SCHOOL

RUTHERLIN, November 28.—The Rutherford grade school pupils presented a very enjoyable pageant, "The Soul of Princeton," to an appreciative audience Tuesday evening at the Community hall. Success of the pageant was due to Miss Mabel Williams and Mrs. Hazel Davis, intermediate and primary.

Roseburg Lumber Co. Says It's a Fact!

And We Can Prove It!

Porcupines do not shoot out their quills at enemies! Quills are used entirely for defensive purposes. The notion of shooting quills may have arisen from the fact that loose ones sometimes fall out when the animal bristles them. 1—"Chamber's Encyclopedia." 2—"Century Dictionary." 3—"Popular Fallacies"—A. North County Hoop League Organized

A northern Douglas county independent basketball league, comprising teams representing Roseburg, Elkton, Elkton CCC, Drain, Oakland and Yoncalla, was formed at a meeting held Monday evening at Yoncalla. Play will start during the week of December 11 and the season will consist of two halves, with a play-off between the respective winners of each half to determine the champion.

The group elected Homer Parks of Yoncalla, president; Jay Shipin of Roseburg, vice-president; Cliff La Mear of Drain, secretary-treasurer, and Ray Morgan of Roseburg, chairman of publicity. Each team will post an entrance fee of $5 to guarantee that the schedule will be completed.

Another meeting of the participants was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Cooke, Mrs. Walter Kemp, Mrs. Rodney Smith, Mrs. Albert Booth, Mrs. John Feldmiller and the hostess, Mrs. Hagen.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent in playing bridge, with Mrs. Kemp winning the high score prize, Mrs. Booth consolation and Mrs. Lubbe the traveling prize.
