PIE SOCIAL ENJOYED BY KELLOGG GRANGE

The Home Economics club of the Kellogg grange sponsored a pie social at the hall this last week-end. A short program was enjoyed first which included selections by the Kellogg orchestra, a monologue by Cecil Deany, "The Poor Little Match Girl," a skit entitled, "The Upper Berth," with Milo Bullock and Tom Higginbotham taking the part of the traveler and the station agent; and a splendid reading by Mrs. Ida Thomas.

Carl Huebner, master of Sunnydale grange, auctioned the pies and entertained the crowd by his ability to have something doing every minute.

Mable Rader received the prize for the most uniquely decorated pie and Virginia Anderson was awarded the first prize for the most beautiful one.

Games were enjoyed until a late hour.

At the next regular meeting of the Kellogg grange December 13 a potluck supper for all of the members will be held. At this time everyone is expected to hand in their dollar on the "Earn a Dollar Drive" and tell how they earned theirs. This money is to be applied on the building fund. The grand prize for the year will be awarded. Supper will be served at six-thirty.

ART EXHIBIT TO BE LARGE AFFAIR OF SATURDAY, DEC. 2ND

The public has been cordially invited to enjoy a very fine art exhibit to be sponsored by Miss Margaret Carr, local art teacher in the public schools, assisted by Mrs. T. G. Watson, Saturday afternoon from two to five, and in the evening from seven to nine-thirty o'clock at the Circle club room of the Hotel Umpqua.

Roseburg artists, who will exhibit their work, include: Doris Shoemaker, Frederick Chapman, Mr. May, Courton, Mrs. Kenneth Ford, Clyde Carstensen, Frank Conn, Bill Wharton, E. R. Walton, Miss Patricia White, Mrs. Charles Ostrander, Mrs. Claude Baker, Mrs. L. L. Spencer, Mrs. E. E. Wimberly, Frank Holston, Mr. Clark, Mrs. Cobb and Mrs. C. W. Clark, in addition to the sponsors, Miss Carr and Mrs. Watson.

Hostesses assisting Miss Carr and Mrs. Watson include Mrs. C. W. Sinner, Mrs. L. A. Wells, Mrs. M. R. Richards, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. A. J. Young and Miss Verla McLaughlin. Mrs. Homer Grow will have charge of the special music for the affair and Mrs. G. V. Wimberly is in charge of decorations. There will be no charge made for the exhibit, as the affair is being sponsored to show Roseburg residents the work in "art lines" of local artists.

EPISCOPAL GUILD HAS MEETING MONDAY NIGHT

St. George's Episcopal Guild met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. L. C. Church with Mrs. Vard Cummings as joint hostess at a lovely seven-thirty o'clock dessert-supper. Covers were placed for twenty-four.

Mrs. J. M. Judd, president, conducted the business session, at which time all members were requested to bring white elephants to the parish hall this week to be sold at the annual bazaar, cooked food sale and noon luncheon to be sponsored by the Guild Saturday, December 2nd, at the parish hall. Mrs. J. C. Hume was appointed general chairman of the food sale. Plum pudding and holiday fruit cakes will be features of the sale. Mrs. C. H. Davies will be in charge of the tea towel booth; Mrs. L. A. Dillard will have charge of the apron booth and Mrs. William Bell will conduct the white elephant sale. The noon luncheon will be served between eleven and two o'clock. Mrs. Perry Smith is chairman of the luncheon. The public has been cordially invited to attend.

K.K.K. TO SPONSOR BAZAAR DECEMBER 6

The sixth annual bazaar of the Kellogg Community Club will be held in the grange hall Wednesday evening, December 6, at eight o'clock. A group of university students under the direction of Mrs. Seybold, professor of drama, will present two one-act plays. These are entitled "Bargains" and "The Way." Mrs. Seybold promises them to be very enjoyable and entertaining. There will be special music too, both vocal and instrumental.

Many beautiful pieces of fancy work have been made by the members as well as more practical articles. There will be the usual "fish pond" for the youngsters and an added attraction this year especially for the men.

The committee members for the supper are making extensive plans to assist in making the event an enjoyable one.

A hat box filled with lovely fancy work will be awarded as a door prize.

S.D.C. GRANGE TO MEET SATURDAY NIGHT

The South Deer Creek grange will meet in regular session Saturday evening at the hall. A social hour of dancing, with the grange orchestra furnishing the music, will follow the grange business session. All members are urged to be present.
