NOVEL COLLAR ON MATRON STYLE
PATTERN 4305

by Anne Adams

Ever see a dress pattern with a dual personality? Anne Adams has designed one in versatile Pattern 4305. Use a cheery print and you've a perfect house style. Make it in soft wool or silk, and you're ready for shopping, office or visiting. Generous darts at the shoulders and above the waist give smooth fit and keep fullness in through the bustline. There are tall-and-slim panels at both front and back skirt. And the long, well-shaped collar is smart in crisp contrast or with gay trim. The at-home version has puffed sleeves with little cuffs; the other style uses long, full sleeves. Order this becoming style today!

Pattern 4305 is available in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 takes 4 yards 39 inch fabric and 2 yards ric-rac. Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

Talk on Dentistry Given To Lions by Dr. Swanson

The Roseburg Lions club heard a very interesting discussion on "The History of Dentistry," by Dr. E. E. Swanson, at a dinner meeting at Carl's Tavern Wednesday evening. Dentistry, Dr. Swanson told the club, dates back to ancient Egyptian times, when reeds of Egypt were made to do bridge work; using fine wire and animals' teeth cut down. The speaker followed progress down through the ages to the present time, with interesting comments on the men who have contributed largely to the science. Dr. Swanson was introduced by John Rish, Lion President. Bill Goodwin presided over the meeting, which was well attended. New committee appointments made included: E. C. Walton, attendance; Albert Micelli, entertainment; and Everett Wimer, membership. Committee reports were read on membership activities and on the progress being made on the Lions minstrel show. George Grimm was a guest of the evening.

Lukens' Appeal In Traffic Case Heard

Circuit court here today heard the appeal of George Lukens of Roseburg from a justice court conviction on a charge of drunken driving. Lukens, who pleaded innocent to the charge filed in the lower court was found guilty at a jury trial. The complaint followed a collision with a car driven by Attorney Thomas Hartfield.

The jury hearing the trial is composed of Ernest Bruck, Emory Cole, Thomas Wainford, John F. Musgrave, George A. Bonebrake, Mona Rydell, Carlton Goff, N. E. Richardson, King Canille, John Busenbark, Myrtle Kent and William J. Burdine.

The jury which yesterday heard the suit of M. L. Collins against Carl Huebner, an action for damages, returned a verdict in favor of the defendant. Huebner, Collins claimed damages for injuries alleged to have resulted from a fall from a load of hay. The defense contended that Collins was riding without consent or knowledge of the defendant.
