Today's Pattern

BUSTLE-BOW ACCESSORY
FROCK
PATTERN 4310

by Anne Adams

"Who is she?" they'll buzz admiringly when you make your entrance in this captivating dress. A quietly distinguished style—Anne Adams' Pattern 4310—yet it will hold the center of the stage anywhere. Because fashion so enthusiastically "backs" the bustle, the flash, lies in a big, luscious bustle-bow in back. Without the flash just the high front point waist seam alone looks slimly smart. And don't miss the six-paneled skirt and that very new back buttoning. Your gold jewelry will gleam against the high neckline, and the rough young yoke holds in the soft bodice fullness below. Make the sleeves short, three-quarter or long length.

Pattern 4310 is available in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 takes 41 yards 29 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly, NAME, ADDRESS AND STYLE NUMBER.

POET'S CORNER

AESOPS FABLES—1939

By Kellon Douglas.
The ancient Greeks legend tell:
The mice in confab met to bell
The feline dragon there, who preyed
Upon them, and such havoc made
Within their ranks that each and all
Scared dared to leave their money
The conference broke in noisy riot,
When no one dared to dare the fight.
And nations have, since history's
page,
Was turned, let other brave this rage
Of nations gone berserk; the goat
Was cheered by those who held his coat.
And now we look across the sea—
I should go help them out? Not ME!

Although it makes me feel so blue,
I'll just stay home and cheer them too!
