MRS. F. C. GURNEE'S DAUGHTER, MILDRED, IS OBJECT OF FEATURE ARTICLE

A very interesting feature article by Clyde Drummond appeared in the December 3rd magazine section of the Oregon Journal, regarding Mildred Andrews, creator of the Drowsy pixie. She is the daughter of Mrs. F. C. Gurnee, of this city.

The article describes the "pixies," which were created by Miss Andrews, who makes a special hobby of ceramic. The article explains the method used by Miss Andrews in creating her pixies.

Miss Andrews' model pixies are part little creatures about five inches tall, always surrounded by an aura of good-natured mischief, sitting or reclining on a flower or leaf.

Besides creating pixies, Miss Andrews conducts classes in pottery and does considerable photo colorizing. Her studio, called The Drowsy Studio, is a small pottery shop at 2316 N. W. Lovejoy street.

ART AND EMBROIDERY CLUB MEETS WEDNESDAY

The Roseburg Art and Embroidery club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. George Cluck on Umpqua avenue. Bouquets of colorful fall flowers were used about the room.
