SLIM COTTON PRINCESS FROCK PATTERN 4189

by Anne Adams

Every vivacious inch of Pattern 4189 has been carefully planned by Anne Adams to take away from your waist and give you proud height. These unbroken princess lines make your figure look lithe and graceful—they're quick as a flash to stitch up, too. Cut the two side-front panels and the back panel effectively on the bias. You'll find the neck-to-hem front buttoning a real blessing, for it lets you in and out with fireman speed and makes for speedy, flat ironing. The sleeves may be straight or with novelty openings. And just see the attractive shape of the collar—wouldn't it look fresh and pretty made of snow-white?

Pattern 4189 is available in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 takes 5 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric and 1/2 yard contrast. Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

"NOW IS THE TIME to prepare for Spring," says Anne Adams about her NEW SPRING PATTERN BOOK which is now ready for you to order. It's alive with attractive styles including a youth corner for tots, teens and twenties, evening-belle frocks, Spring bridal finery, carnival cottons and easy prints. You will even find balanced styles for scale-tipping matrons and charm shop suggestions for forty-plus. The book is fifteen cents but when ordered with a pattern, which is also fifteen cents, THE TWO TOGETHER ARE TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. Send your order to the News-Review, Pattern Department, Roseburg, Oregon.

DRAIN GRADE SCHOOL PRESENTS OPERETTA

DRAIN, Jan. 2.—All teachers of the Drain schools are attending the O.S.T.A. in Portland this week after spending Christmas at their homes.

The grade school, under the direction of Miss Mildred Young, gave an operetta, "Christmas for Othello," on Thursday before Christmas. Both solo and chorus work was exceptional for grade school children and the orchestra which played several numbers showed fine technique and careful training, reflecting much credit to their director. The high school, under the direction of Miss Hawthorne, also gave an excellent musical program, consisting of Christmas carols by the combined girls' and boys' chorus. Choir robes were worn by the singers. A large audience enjoyed the program.
