Today's Pattern

KIDPIE PARTY OR PLAY FROCK PATTERN 4360 by Anne Adams

"Yes, my mummy made this all herself—and it didn't take long either!" your youngster will proudly announce when she wears her new dress. Designed by Anne Adams, Pattern 4360 buttons all down the front and has princess lines that curve out in a yoke-effect at the front and back shoulders. There's a double-awing at each side of the skirt, emphasized even more if you make the side panels bias. Why not sew an everyday style with colorfully blanket-stitched collar and cuffs, perhaps in contrast. Then stitch up a party version of, say, velvet, with lace at the neck and finished sleeves and butterfly bows. Panties are included. Pattern 4360 is available in children's sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 6, dress, takes 2 3/8 yards 35 inch fabric and 3 3/8 yard contrast. Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER. Send your order to News-Review, Pattern Dept., Roseburg, Ore.

Girls' Drum Corps, Tumblers Billed

The Roseburg Junior high school girls tumbling team and the Medford Junior high school girls drum corps will present very interesting special entertainment between halves of the Roseburg-Medford basketball game at the junior high gymnasium Saturday night. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

The Medford girls drum corps, consisting of 32 members, is widely known for its outstanding performances. The visiting girls will arrive in Roseburg about 4:30 p. m. Saturday, and give a demonstration on the street shortly after their arrival. The drum corps is directed by L. A. Williams.

The Roseburg girls tumbling team will appear in new taffeta costumes. Nine of the eighteen girls wear turquoise-colored costumes and the remainder wear coral colored uniforms, producing a beautiful color effect as they build pyramids and fountains and present other formations.

EPISCOPAL GUILD TO MEET ON MONDAY

St. George's Episcopal guild will hold a very important meeting at two o'clock next Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Hume on Blakey street with Mrs. Will H. Gervsten as joint hostess. A report of the nominating committee will be given. All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. Wm. Berdine of Roberts Creek Dies

Linnie Alma Berdine, 66, wife of William Berdine, well known resident of Roberts Creek, died suddenly at her home early this morning. She had been ill for several weeks, but death resulted unexpectedly today. She was found dead in her bed by her husband after he had returned from morning chores. She was born in Ohio, Oct. 4, 1873.

Surviving besides her husband are the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. A. H. Marsh, Happy Valley; Mrs. A. S. Bowman, Seattle; Willard Snedeker, James E. Snedeker and Chester Snedeker, all residing in Kansas.

Mrs. Berdine was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star at Myrtle Creek.

The body was removed to the Roseburg Undertaking company parlors. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Eagles Lodge Sets Drive to Reach Member Quota

With only 11 new members to be secured to reach the established quota, the Eagles lodge of Roseburg, at its regular meeting this week organized a campaign with the purpose of completing its membership quota by March 1. A report was given on the New Year's party, which was one of the most successful ever held, with approximately 150 persons in attendance. Announcement was made today that the Eagle hall again is to be opened in the public, and as in the past, a large part of the money raised by dances will be used for the lodge's charity work. New members initiated at the meeting were August Harriek and Roy O. Young.

MARKET REPORTS

BOSTON, Jan. 5.—(AP)—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow:

"The year has opened quietly in the wool trade. There has been some call for woolen wools, especially of medium qualities but worried descriptions have been inactive. Prices have hardly changed for the week, though steady."

"There appears to be a disposition in the piecegoods market to analyze the situation carefully before making very heavy commitments. Some movement in the sales of medium scoured wools here. Deliveries continue fair in men's wear lines."

"Orders called for Australian wool under the new allocation plan appear to have been almost wholly filled."
