GLANCE at the total figures in the proposed national budget reveals that the amount of money paid out in interest on the amount of money owed by the government is now more than the regular operating costs of running the vast federal government.

When we pay out more than we take in, we add to the public debt—we move toward the ceiling. Some time we must begin having budgets with surplus figures in the last column in place of deficit figures.

The largest item in the budget as presented to congress is for national defense.

We do not need the largest army in the world nor is it necessary that we have a navy greater than any possible combination of enemy navies—but we should have the best army and the best navy.

In a world that seems war mad and dominated by predatory minds many foolish things have happened recently. There is no certainty that this nation, the richest on earth, might not at some time be faced with invasion.

Remittances for Yule Seals Urged by Chairman

Residents of Douglas county who have not sent in their money for the annual tuberculosis seal sale are being urged to do so as soon as possible, according to an announcement made today by Mrs. C. E. Roberts, Douglas county seal sale chairman.

according to Mrs. Roberts, but as yet the drive is still several hundred dollars short of reaching the desired 8 per cent per capita for the county. If this per capita is reached, considerable more money will be retained in the county for the fight against tuberculosis.

Junior High Squad Kept in Top Shape

The Roseburg junior high school quintet resumes play tomorrow evening on the local floor after a lengthy holiday rest against a strong quintet from Medford junior high school. The little Indians have been victorious in their first two games, defeating the Oakland high school B squad and Corvallis high school.

Coach Hod Turner has kept his charges in top condition over the holidays by scheduling stiff daily workouts. The return of their only letterman, Schrimpt, to the squad will materially strengthen the Papoosees in both first team and reserve strength.

The Papoosees quintet this season is both small and inexperienced but is fast developing into a speedy smooth machine. They have been especially good in defensive work, with every man a close ball-hawking player. The youngsters have been a bit slow in developing an offensive punch, but their lack of perfection in playing finesse has been overshadowed by some excellent shooting.

Likely to get the call in the starting assignments on the basis of their work in the previous contests are "Babe" Wimberly and Melvin Baker, forwards; Gerald Denny, center; Don King and Jack Weaver, guards. Schrimpt will likely be used a lot, but is not in the best of condition at present.

Reserves will come from Howard Houck, Duane Harvey, Jim Rutter, Harold Cay, Craig Dishman, Charles Clark, George Vincent, Bruce Barker, Art Young and Gordon Gerrotten.

A special meeting of team captains of the Commercial league will be held at the Roseburg Alleys at 8 p. m. tonight. All captains are urged to be present as important matters are to be discussed.

R. H. S.—North Bend Battle Postponed

The opening of the District No. 5 hoop race for Roseburg high school at North Bend this evening was indefinitely postponed because of the illness of several members of the Bulldog squad. The cancellation of the game was delayed until the last possible moment when it became apparent that the team would be in no condition to play. No new date for the game has been set.

With the loss of this date, Coach Jim Watts' Indians will be idle until Tuesday evening, January 9, when they go to Grants Pass to engage the Caymen quintet in a non-conference game. Coach Watts welcomed the postponement of the conference game, as several members of his own squad are nursing bad ankles or recovering from slight attacks of flu. Watts believes the squad will be in top physical condition by next Friday when they open the district race against Coquille high school on the senior high floor.

Rubenstein Basketeers Defeat U. of O., 48 to 36

EUGENE, Jan. 5.—(AP)—The University of Oregon basketball team completed its pre-season schedule here last night by dropping a 48-to-36 decision to Rubenstein's Oregonians.

The game marked the Rubenstein's first triumph in three tries against the defending national intercollegiate champions. Laddie Gale and Wally Johansen, who played with the University last year, sparked the Rubenstein's offense, with Gale chalking up 15 points and Johansen, 11.

Everett (Red) McNeely was high for the Webfoots with 12. The Rubenstein led the midway in the opening half and never relinquished it. They led 33 to 21 at half time.

Four Changes Made In Football Rules

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Jan. 5.—(AP)—College football fans may mark down four changes in the rule book for 1940, including one designed to speed up play and another to encourage the use of short forward passes.

The major change, announced by the rules committee of the National Collegiate Athletic association at the conclusion of its meeting here yesterday, involves the short forward pass.

The new rule says that when a forward pass touches an ineligible player on or behind the line of scrimmage, the penalty will be merely the loss of the down.

If the passer is trapped, however, and throws the ball to save yardage and it touches an ineligible rabbits that are said to devour fighting bulldogs, while others tell of the huge and hostile squirrels that have often turned the tables on luckless hunters. And I must not forget the enormous bees of Liar's creek that are able to carry a gallon of honey at a time.

I've often wondered why people stray so far from the truth of veracity in order to make their tales colorful and interesting, when there are so many natural wonders to talk about. I'll never forget the wash-tub trees on my father's farm in North Dakota. They were tall and slender, with huge rough leaves that made excellent washboards, while the blossoms could easily be formed into serviceable wash-tubs. From the sap mother made the best laundry soap I have ever known, and we always used small pieces of the leaves for currycombs.

The marvelous insects made their nests in the blossoms, or tubs, of the tub trees, and on moonlight nights could be heard yodeling "South of the Border" in a way to bring tears to the eyes of the most callous person. The lasso bird can sing, whistle, yodel and yell and his limitations of a colored person at a revival meeting surpassed anything of the sort I have ever heard. The tail of the lasso bird is long, rosy and prehensile. It is used to lasso small animals and even birds. These birds throw their tails with more accuracy than a top hand cowboy does a rope. Once in its toils, a small animal is doomed.

We used to shoot them for their tails which made very good halter ropes and clothes lines. Another remarkable thing about these birds is the fact that there is an eye at the end of the tail that enables them to see in all directions at once, and is used as a periscope when the bird is diving in deep water. Time and space forbid that I tell of all the marvels of that wonderful form, but I hope the above will ever bear the belief of those who, like myself, maintain that "truth is stranger than fiction." LYMAN A. FRITZ.

Lecture on Alaska Set At Lutheran Church Here: An illustrated lecture on Alaska will be given at St. Paul's Lutheran church, West Roseburg, Monday, January 8, beginning at 8 p. m. Rev. W. F. George, superintendent of Lutheran missions for the northwest, will be the speaker. The Rev. Mr. George spent approximately two years in Matanuska valley at the colony established there by the government, organizing and supervising the Lutheran mission there. His lecture and pictures will show not only the work being done by the Lutheran church in Alaska; but also bring much general information on Alaska and the Matanuska valley in particular. In addition to serving the Lutheran mission in Palmer, Matanuska valley, the Rev. Mr. George conducted services at a government school for Indians situated at Ektana and Anchorage. The public is most cordially invited to attend this interesting lecture. A free-will offering will be taken up to help defray expenses involved.
