POET'S CORNER

FOR IDEAS OF MY OWN

By G. M. Leeper.

For ideas of my own
I have moved today
To a castle
Old and grey.

Where the birds
Come back each year,
And whitercap waves
Come whispering near.

I have moved there,
And expect to stay.
By the garden walls
So cool and grey.

Where I can see
The rising mist
On the distant hills
By the sunset kissed.

And a sail
May sometime pass,
Roughening the water
Like wind.

In the meadow grass,
And I will watch it
Sail, and sail away,
But feel no sorrow
It could not stay.

For I will have
The rough old wall,
Where shadows come
And softly fall.

I am watching from
A window
Way out to the skyline
Where dim shadows fall.
