

Conn Wins Easily Over Henry Cooper

Pittsburgh Scrapper Starts on Heavyweight Road in Hope of Reaching Louis.

By JUDSON BAILEY
NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Billy Conn, the Pittsburgh phantomweight, has started on the road he hopes will lead to the heavyweight championship. But like the road to Tipperary, it's going to be a long and winding trail. He has had two bouts with the big boys. Last night he took an easy 12-round decision from Henry Cooper of Brooklyn in Madison Square Garden and last August he scored a technical knockout over Gus Dorazio in Philadelphia. This success has made the right heavyweight champion and his handlers jubilant and they talk now in terms of Johnny Paycheck, Lee Savoldi, Bob Pastor—and leave the flat hanging on mid-air so a listener can add no other steps right up the throne-room.

"He'll fight anybody, that kid."

murmured Manager Johnny Ray in the dressing room after last night's fight. I'm not the matchmaker, so I don't know who'll be next. Maybe we'll take the winner of that Apostol-Bettina business, but he (Conn) wants those heavyweights. They can't touch him.

This was true against Cooper, who was called in on ten days notice to substitute for Steve Duane and was no match for Conn. Everybody sensed it in advance and a crowd of only 5,658 was on hand, paying a gross gate of $14,400, the smallest take Conn ever has mustered at the garden.

Pancho led all the way, and put Montana down for a six-count in the sixth round.

Pancho weighed 114 and Montana 110.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Winning every round by a wide margin, Al Delaney of Montreal, Canada, punched out a 10-round decision over Eddie "Unknown" Winston, Boston, last night. Delaney gave away 16 pounds at 200.

U. O.-O. S. C. Hoop Battle Awaited

(By the Associated Press)
The Yagis and seers who are trying to predict the northern division Pacific coast conference basketball champion will focus their attention on Eugene, Ore., tomorrow night.

Two teams which have split the Yagis into factions will be clashing for the first time, and one of them will stay undefeated in the still young schedule as Oregon, defending champion, and the neighbors from Oregon State collide.

Both clubs took two straight from the hapless Vandals of Idaho. Oregon had a 22-point superiority in its two games, while O. S. C. wound up 16 points ahead for the pair. Off-hand, it would appear Oregon should defeat the Beavers by anywhere up to six points, but you can't take these feuding series between Ducks and Beavers off-hand.

Washington State, ranked with the Ducks and Beavers as a titular threat, plays Idaho Saturday night, and the Vandals will thus prove to be the guinea pig for the three contenders. The game will be at Pullman.

The unpredictable Washingtons, who split with W. S. C. last week; play Montana in a pair of non-conference games Friday and Saturday nights at Seattle.

Hunger Jails Fugitive Slayer of Aged Aunt

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Hunger Jailed Raymond W. Mugford, sought since Saturday for the slaying of his 67-year-old aunt and benefactor.

Mugford asked a former employer, William Potter, for food and a chance to shave. While he shaved, Mrs. Potter telephoned police.

Booked on a murder charge, he told police his aunt, Mrs. Louise Mugford Brewer, "would have got me if I hadn't got her." She helped gain his release from an asylum at Ukiah two months ago.

Mrs. Brewer was stabbed with a butcher knife, beaten with a baseball bat and left dying in her home, where she had cared for her nephew.

M-J-B WHY?

"We found the answer in a snowstorm..."

2 I dug through the drift with a ski. Luckily the door was unlocked so we barged right in and made ourselves at home. There was food on the shelves and an unopened can of coffee. We started a fire and put the coffee on the stove. Maybe it was because we were tired and cold, but that coffee tasted wonderful. It had a deep, rich flavor like rare old wine.

1 We were skiing 'cross country, miles from anywhere, when it started to snow. We lost our way and floundered around for hours. Believe me, we were scared stiff. And then we stumbled on a trapper's cabin half buried in the drifts.

3 "What kind of coffee is this?" I said. "Look at the can, silly," laughed the wife. "I've been telling you about M-J-B's Richer Roast for years, but you wouldn't let me change. Remember?" "You win," I said. Next morning the storm had passed so we left some money and the wife scribbled a note: Many thanks from two orphans who discovered your cabin and M-J-B!"
