Today's Pattern

NICELY DESIGNED "UNDIES" SET

PATTERN 4365

by Anne Adams

A knowing "woman of the fashion world" realizes the importance of well-fitting underthings. In Pattern 4365 Anne Adams presents the perfect slip style to match the new dress silhouettes. Splendid back fullness is created by that extra skirt seam. And see the graceful cut of the neckline. The front bodice panel curves down to form one piece with the skirt—a time-saving dress-making feature that makes for nice fit, too. And the side bodice sections may be on a straight grain or bias. Cut a straight "camisole" bodice top or have a built-up shoulder style. Tailored panties are included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coin for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER. Send your order to News-Review, Pattern Dept., Roseburg, Ore.

POET'S CORNER

LILIES IN A FIELD
By G. M. LEEPER
Linger among the lilies
While the field is dotted white,
Up the sloping hillside
Silhouetted against the night,
Linger in the moonlight
All the night long,
And catch the hidden beauty
In the robins early song.

Watch the white lilies
As they slowly wake,
Among the morning glories
Twisting like a snake.
Some just breaking through
Scarcely show the white,
Will glow like candles
In the silver sunlight.

Lilies in a field;
Pages in an unopened book,
And beauty all around us
Where we seldom look.
