Prices have been strengthened on these medium to low crossbreds, sometimes as much as two to three cents.

"Otherwise, the activity of the week has been confined to fine cape wools chiefly at fully firm rates, supplemented by a moderate demand from the woolen mills for medium secured pulled wools at very firm prices.

"Western operations are limited. One sale of fall wool in Texas at 27 cents is reported, 8 cents under the recent peak level, or about 70 cents clean basis at Boston.
