

Society and Clubs

By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

D.A.R. HAS VERY INTERESTING MEETING AT CHURCHILL HOME

The D.A.R. members were entertained at a most enjoyable dessert-luncheon Monday afternoon by Mrs. F. H. Churchill, Mrs. D. N. Busenbark and Mrs. C. P. Taylor at the former's attractive home on Oak street.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Homer Grow, Mrs. F. L. Crittenden, Mrs. Mary Beckley, Mrs. George Churchill and Mrs. Helen Stefferson, guests, and Miss Adeline Stewart, Mrs. Boyd Bales, Mrs. Walter V. Monger, Mrs. William McGee, Mrs. Harold Bowerman, Mrs. R. H. Grinstead, Mrs. C. L. Branton, Mrs. D. N. Busenbark, Mrs. Lawrence Woodborn, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. C. P. Taylor, Mrs. Frank Churchill, Mrs. William Bell and Mrs. Ray S. Peterson.

The program, "Biographical Sketches of the Framers of the Constitution," was given by Mrs. Peterson.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Adeline Stewart on February 15th with Mrs. William McGee and Mrs. W. H. Anderson as assistant hostesses.

MRS. J. B. HENNESSY IS HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB MONDAY EVENING

Mrs. J. B. Hennessy was a most gracious hostess Monday evening, when she entertained her bridge club at a charming eight o'clock dessert-supper at her home on Winchester street. Dolly was attractively used to carry out a prettily decorative motif for the occasion.

Covers were placed for Mrs. B. Maddox, a guest, and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mrs. Adria Fisher, Mrs. Louis Fullerton, Mrs. Clyde Fullerton, Mrs. Leslie Cummings, Mrs. Clyde Carstens and the hostess, Mrs. Hennessy.

Score prizes for the evening's

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEETING MONDAY NIGHT

One of the most interesting programs enjoyed by the Roseburg Woman's club was held Monday evening at the clubhouse when a program on "Camp Fire Activities" was presented by a group of Roseburg Camp Fire Girls.

The clubhouse was decorated in keeping with the out-of-doors with greenery and in the center of the room a camp fire was arranged about which the Camp Fire Girls formed a large circle.

An explanation of Camp Fire work was given with a description of the ranks in Camp Fire and the meaning of the seven laws and the watchword. The girls sang a number of Camp Fire songs and closed their program by clapping hands and singing "The Call of the Fire" and "Day is Done." Over thirty girls took part in the program which gave to the Junior Woman club members an ideal picture of the work being carried on by the Camp Fire organization.

At the close of the program the Camp Fire Girls were served refreshments by the club members from a service table centered with greenery and pine cones. Four red lighted tapers completed the arrangement.

Arrangements for the evening's entertainment and social hours in charge of Mrs. Gordon Stewart, Miss Eleanor Fies, Mrs. L. C. Latham and Mrs. William Unrath, Cards and visiting were enjoyed until a later hour.

Club members attending the evening program included: Mrs. C. E. Smith, Mrs. Edwin Gardner, Mrs. E. J. Gardner, Mrs. Paul Smith, Miss Eleanor Fies, Miss Betty Shoemaker, Mrs. William Unrath, Miss Marge Lange, Mrs. Jack Chapman, Miss Verla McLaughlin, Miss Merle Wellman, Mrs. Perry Thiel, Mrs. Ralph Herman, Mrs. Emil Palm, Mrs. Adrian Bowen, Mrs. Gordon Stewart, Mrs. Charles Ostrander, Mrs. Reginald Erskine and Mrs. L. C. Latham.

Contract bridge play were awarded to Mrs. Carstens and Mrs. Louis Fullerton.

Flower committees appointed included: Mrs. Roy Young and Madama M. J. Shoemaker, Jan. 21-28; February 4-11, Mrs. Charles Jenly and Mrs. Earl Ace; February 18-25, Mrs. E. S. Hall and Mrs. A. Bellows.

The next meeting will be a one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon February 22nd with Mrs. E. S. Hall as hostess chairman assisted by Mrs. J. L. Marsters, Mrs. Ivan Pickens, Mrs. E. G. Kohlhaugen and Mrs. R. H. Grinstead.

The blessing was asked by Mrs. Morris H. Houch and the inspirational devotional service was conducted by Mrs. R. L. Eddy. Reports were presented by Mrs. Mosechenbacher, secretary, and Mrs. Hall, treasurer. Mrs. Mark L. Underwood was welcomed into the Aid as a new member.

Flower committees appointed included: Mrs. Roy Young and Madama M. J. Shoemaker, Jan. 21-28; February 4-11, Mrs. Charles Jenly and Mrs. Earl Ace; February 18-25, Mrs. E. S. Hall and Mrs. A. Bellows.

BETA SIGMA PHI HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING WEDNESDAY

Beta Sigma Phi met on Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the home of Amanda Anderson and Eleanor Hessimer in the Kohlhaugen apartments.

During the business meeting plans for a dinner dance were discussed. The date for the next meeting is Monday, January 29, at the home of Evelyn Willis and Cleora Ter will have its first lesson on the subject of music.

In connection with the group's second lesson on poetry, each girl read her own, imprinted or lyric composed. The group then enjoyed composing a group ballad.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses to: Thelma Smith, guest, Carmel Newland, Wilma Doyle, Betty Guiley, Arlie Corbett, Janet Pickenscher, Dora Braughton, Cleora Engmann and Evelyn Willis.

MRS. S. C. RICHMOND ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. S. C. Richmond very graciously entertained her bridge club at a charming one-thirty luncheon at her lovely home in Laurelwood Wednesday afternoon. Yellow jasmine and tall yellow tapers graced the prettily appointed luncheon table.

Covers were placed for Mrs. W. F. Downer, a guest, and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mrs. M. H. Muncy, Mrs. Phil Harth, Mrs. J. P. Mosechenbacher, Mrs. Frank Long, Mrs. Adria Fisher and the hostess, Mrs. Richmond.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. Wm. Long, second high score and Mrs. Fisher, the traveling prize.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR OF MONDAY EVENING

A very enjoyable 7:30 o'clock dessert-supper and benefit card party was sponsored by Riversdale grante Monday evening at the hall. Nine tables of five hundred were in play during the evening with Mrs. M. Hazel Dixon winning the ladies high score; Ora Welker winning the men's high score and Mrs. Viola Thurston winning the traveling prize.

The grantee will sponsor a benefit five hundred party the evening of February 5 at the hall and following the card play and awarding of prizes, refreshments will be served.

American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. CLAUDE BAKER
Motto: We honor the dead by serving the living.

Friday two car loads of American Legion auxiliary members went to North Bend to attend the district conference. Mrs. Roy Young of Roseburg is district president and will preside. At the regular session of the local unit this week Mrs. M. R. Richards, president, and Mrs. Young outlined the participation of the local unit in the conference. Mrs. Young also presented plans for completion of the park at the south end of the city. Further details will be explained when she has talked with the city council.

The auxiliary will hold a card party January 26. This will be a large affair with 50 tables in play. Its purpose will be to raise funds for local child welfare work; mainly the swimming pool project. A dance will be given at the Facility that week also.

Mrs. Ellen Post, membership chairman and vice president, reported a gain in membership over the same period last year. The unit had 126 reported with several to come before the conference. Nationally last year was a record breaker but this year has topped that high. The advance enrollment is 50,000 ahead of last year, making a new record of 360,000 members at the first of the year.

A new job has presented itself this year in the form of opening educational opportunities for all children of deceased world war veterans. Federal aid is now available for them and in some states state aid. The American Legion and auxiliary will make intensive efforts to locate all such children and acquaint them with the benefits to which they are eligible. The local auxiliary will cooperate in this activity and will endeavor to bring information regarding available educational aid to children of deceased veterans in the community, according to Mrs. M. R. Richards, president.

PRESBYTERIAN AID HAS DELIGHTFUL MEETING THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid society enjoyed a delightful one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon Thursday at the church parlors with Mrs. Ralph L. Russell, hostess chairman, assisted by Mrs. Homer Grow, Mrs. Fred Parrott, Mrs. John Pinkerton, Mrs. L. Robinson and Mrs. Willis Myers.

Sprays of holly and tall lighted red tapers graced the table, where covers were placed for Mrs. Morris H. Houch, Mrs. Earl Ulrich, Mrs. Clara Dillard, Mrs. J. P. Mosechenbacher, Mrs. E. G. Kohlhaugen, Mrs. Harold Bellows, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. Karl Chapler, Mrs. J. Roland Parker, Mrs. R. S. Nichols, Mrs. Emma Lenox, Miss Margaret Clapp, Mrs. George Kohlhaugen, Miss Marie and Miss Irma Martens, Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Mrs. G. Solberg, Mrs. E. J. Rodgers, Mrs. Yowell, Mrs. W. L. Scott, Mrs. L. J. Bodie, Mrs. D. G. Clark, Mrs. Mark L. Underwood, Mrs. Emma Miller, Mrs. Thomas Summers, Mrs. E. S. Hall, Miss Emma Bristol, Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mrs. E. R. Metzger and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

The blessing was asked by Mrs. Morris H. Houch and the inspirational devotional service was conducted by Mrs. R. L. Eddy. Reports were presented by Mrs. Mosechenbacher, secretary, and Mrs. Hall, treasurer. Mrs. Mark L. Underwood was welcomed into the Aid as a new member.

Flower committees appointed included: Mrs. Roy Young and Madama M. J. Shoemaker, Jan. 21-28; February 4-11, Mrs. Charles Jenly and Mrs. Earl Ace; February 18-25, Mrs. E. S. Hall and Mrs. A. Bellows.

Flower committees appointed included: Mrs. Roy Young and Madama M. J. Shoemaker, Jan. 21-28; February 4-11, Mrs. Charles Jenly and Mrs. Earl Ace; February 18-25, Mrs. E. S. Hall and Mrs. A. Bellows.

The next meeting will be a one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon February 22nd with Mrs. E. S. Hall as hostess chairman assisted by Mrs. J. L. Marsters, Mrs. Ivan Pickens, Mrs. E. G. Kohlhaugen and Mrs. R. H. Grinstead.

BETA SIGMA PHI HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING WEDNESDAY

Beta Sigma Phi met on Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the home of Amanda Anderson and Eleanor Hessimer in the Kohlhaugen apartments.

During the business meeting plans for a dinner dance were discussed. The date for the next meeting is Monday, January 29, at the home of Evelyn Willis and Cleora Ter will have its first lesson on the subject of music.

In connection with the group's second lesson on poetry, each girl read her own, imprinted or lyric composed. The group then enjoyed composing a group ballad.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses to: Thelma Smith, guest, Carmel Newland, Wilma Doyle, Betty Guiley, Arlie Corbett, Janet Pickenscher, Dora Braughton, Cleora Engmann and Evelyn Willis.

MRS. S. C. RICHMOND ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. S. C. Richmond very graciously entertained her bridge club at a charming one-thirty luncheon at her lovely home in Laurelwood Wednesday afternoon. Yellow jasmine and tall yellow tapers graced the prettily appointed luncheon table.

Covers were placed for Mrs. W. F. Downer, a guest, and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mrs. M. H. Muncy, Mrs. Phil Harth, Mrs. J. P. Mosechenbacher, Mrs. Frank Long, Mrs. Adria Fisher and the hostess, Mrs. Richmond.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. Wm. Long, second high score and Mrs. Fisher, the traveling prize.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR OF MONDAY EVENING

A very enjoyable 7:30 o'clock dessert-supper and benefit card party was sponsored by Riversdale grante Monday evening at the hall. Nine tables of five hundred were in play during the evening with Mrs. M. Hazel Dixon winning the ladies high score; Ora Welker winning the men's high score and Mrs. Viola Thurston winning the traveling prize.

The grantee will sponsor a benefit five hundred party the evening of February 5 at the hall and following the card play and awarding of prizes, refreshments will be served.

American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. CLAUDE BAKER
Motto: We honor the dead by serving the living.

Friday two car loads of American Legion auxiliary members went to North Bend to attend the district conference. Mrs. Roy Young of Roseburg is district president and will preside. At the regular session of the local unit this week Mrs. M. R. Richards, president, and Mrs. Young outlined the participation of the local unit in the conference. Mrs. Young also presented plans for completion of the park at the south end of the city. Further details will be explained when she has talked with the city council.

The auxiliary will hold a card party January 26. This will be a large affair with 50 tables in play. Its purpose will be to raise funds for local child welfare work; mainly the swimming pool project. A dance will be given at the Facility that week also.

Mrs. Ellen Post, membership chairman and vice president, reported a gain in membership over the same period last year. The unit had 126 reported with several to come before the conference. Nationally last year was a record breaker but this year has topped that high. The advance enrollment is 50,000 ahead of last year, making a new record of 360,000 members at the first of the year.

A new job has presented itself this year in the form of opening educational opportunities for all children of deceased world war veterans. Federal aid is now available for them and in some states state aid. The American Legion and auxiliary will make intensive efforts to locate all such children and acquaint them with the benefits to which they are eligible. The local auxiliary will cooperate in this activity and will endeavor to bring information regarding available educational aid to children of deceased veterans in the community, according to Mrs. M. R. Richards, president.

"Hunchback of Notre Dame"

One of many exciting scenes from "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," starring Charles Laughton, which opens Sunday at the Indian theatre for a three-day showing.

JUDGE AND MRS. MARSTERS ENTERTAIN AT LOVELY DINNER MONDAY EVENING

To compliment their daughter, Mrs. Kermit Johnson, who is visiting here from Snohomish, Wash., a charming informal 6:30 o'clock dinner was given Monday evening by Judge and Mrs. R. W. Marsters at their home on North Jackson street.

Jasmine and greenery graced the serving table, while bouquets of chrysanthemum and laurustinus were used about the room. Covers were placed for Mrs. Johnson, guest of honor, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin

BETA SIGMA PHI HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING WEDNESDAY

Beta Sigma Phi met on Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the home of Amanda Anderson and Eleanor Hessimer in the Kohlhaugen apartments.

During the business meeting plans for a dinner dance were discussed. The date for the next meeting is Monday, January 29, at the home of Evelyn Willis and Cleora Ter will have its first lesson on the subject of music.

In connection with the group's second lesson on poetry, each girl read her own, imprinted or lyric composed. The group then enjoyed composing a group ballad.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses to: Thelma Smith, guest, Carmel Newland, Wilma Doyle, Betty Guiley, Arlie Corbett, Janet Pickenscher, Dora Braughton, Cleora Engmann and Evelyn Willis.

MRS. S. C. RICHMOND ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. S. C. Richmond very graciously entertained her bridge club at a charming one-thirty luncheon at her lovely home in Laurelwood Wednesday afternoon. Yellow jasmine and tall yellow tapers graced the prettily appointed luncheon table.

Covers were placed for Mrs. W. F. Downer, a guest, and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mrs. M. H. Muncy, Mrs. Phil Harth, Mrs. J. P. Mosechenbacher, Mrs. Frank Long, Mrs. Adria Fisher and the hostess, Mrs. Richmond.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. Wm. Long, second high score and Mrs. Fisher, the traveling prize.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR OF MONDAY EVENING

A very enjoyable 7:30 o'clock dessert-supper and benefit card party was sponsored by Riversdale grante Monday evening at the hall. Nine tables of five hundred were in play during the evening with Mrs. M. Hazel Dixon winning the ladies high score; Ora Welker winning the men's high score and Mrs. Viola Thurston winning the traveling prize.

The grantee will sponsor a benefit five hundred party the evening of February 5 at the hall and following the card play and awarding of prizes, refreshments will be served.

American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. CLAUDE BAKER
Motto: We honor the dead by serving the living.

Friday two car loads of American Legion auxiliary members went to North Bend to attend the district conference. Mrs. Roy Young of Roseburg is district president and will preside. At the regular session of the local unit this week Mrs. M. R. Richards, president, and Mrs. Young outlined the participation of the local unit in the conference. Mrs. Young also presented plans for completion of the park at the south end of the city. Further details will be explained when she has talked with the city council.

The auxiliary will hold a card party January 26. This will be a large affair with 50 tables in play. Its purpose will be to raise funds for local child welfare work; mainly the swimming pool project. A dance will be given at the Facility that week also.

Mrs. Ellen Post, membership chairman and vice president, reported a gain in membership over the same period last year. The unit had 126 reported with several to come before the conference. Nationally last year was a record breaker but this year has topped that high. The advance enrollment is 50,000 ahead of last year, making a new record of 360,000 members at the first of the year.

A new job has presented itself this year in the form of opening educational opportunities for all children of deceased world war veterans. Federal aid is now available for them and in some states state aid. The American Legion and auxiliary will make intensive efforts to locate all such children and acquaint them with the benefits to which they are eligible. The local auxiliary will cooperate in this activity and will endeavor to bring information regarding available educational aid to children of deceased veterans in the community, according to Mrs. M. R. Richards, president.

"Hunchback of Notre Dame"

One of many exciting scenes from "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," starring Charles Laughton, which opens Sunday at the Indian theatre for a three-day showing.

JUDGE AND MRS. MARSTERS ENTERTAIN AT LOVELY DINNER MONDAY EVENING

To compliment their daughter, Mrs. Kermit Johnson, who is visiting here from Snohomish, Wash., a charming informal 6:30 o'clock dinner was given Monday evening by Judge and Mrs. R. W. Marsters at their home on North Jackson street.

Jasmine and greenery graced the serving table, while bouquets of chrysanthemum and laurustinus were used about the room. Covers were placed for Mrs. Johnson, guest of honor, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin

BETA SIGMA PHI HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING WEDNESDAY

Beta Sigma Phi met on Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the home of Amanda Anderson and Eleanor Hessimer in the Kohlhaugen apartments.

During the business meeting plans for a dinner dance were discussed. The date for the next meeting is Monday, January 29, at the home of Evelyn Willis and Cleora Ter will have its first lesson on the subject of music.

In connection with the group's second lesson on poetry, each girl read her own, imprinted or lyric composed. The group then enjoyed composing a group ballad.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses to: Thelma Smith, guest, Carmel Newland, Wilma Doyle, Betty Guiley, Arlie Corbett, Janet Pickenscher, Dora Braughton, Cleora Engmann and Evelyn Willis.

MRS. S. C. RICHMOND ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. S. C. Richmond very graciously entertained her bridge club at a charming one-thirty luncheon at her lovely home in Laurelwood Wednesday afternoon. Yellow jasmine and tall yellow tapers graced the prettily appointed luncheon table.

Covers were placed for Mrs. W. F. Downer, a guest, and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mrs. M. H. Muncy, Mrs. Phil Harth, Mrs. J. P. Mosechenbacher, Mrs. Frank Long, Mrs. Adria Fisher and the hostess, Mrs. Richmond.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. Wm. Long, second high score and Mrs. Fisher, the traveling prize.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR OF MONDAY EVENING

A very enjoyable 7:30 o'clock dessert-supper and benefit card party was sponsored by Riversdale grante Monday evening at the hall. Nine tables of five hundred were in play during the evening with Mrs. M. Hazel Dixon winning the ladies high score; Ora Welker winning the men's high score and Mrs. Viola Thurston winning the traveling prize.

The grantee will sponsor a benefit five hundred party the evening of February 5 at the hall and following the card play and awarding of prizes, refreshments will be served.

American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. CLAUDE BAKER
Motto: We honor the dead by serving the living.

Friday two car loads of American Legion auxiliary members went to North Bend to attend the district conference. Mrs. Roy Young of Roseburg is district president and will preside. At the regular session of the local unit this week Mrs. M. R. Richards, president, and Mrs. Young outlined the participation of the local unit in the conference. Mrs. Young also presented plans for completion of the park at the south end of the city. Further details will be explained when she has talked with the city council.

The auxiliary will hold a card party January 26. This will be a large affair with 50 tables in play. Its purpose will be to raise funds for local child welfare work; mainly the swimming pool project. A dance will be given at the Facility that week also.

Mrs. Ellen Post, membership chairman and vice president, reported a gain in membership over the same period last year. The unit had 126 reported with several to come before the conference. Nationally last year was a record breaker but this year has topped that high. The advance enrollment is 50,000 ahead of last year, making a new record of 360,000 members at the first of the year.

A new job has presented itself this year in the form of opening educational opportunities for all children of deceased world war veterans. Federal aid is now available for them and in some states state aid. The American Legion and auxiliary will make intensive efforts to locate all such children and acquaint them with the benefits to which they are eligible. The local auxiliary will cooperate in this activity and will endeavor to bring information regarding available educational aid to children of deceased veterans in the community, according to Mrs. M. R. Richards, president.

EASTERN STAR HAS LARGE CELEBRATION ON THURSDAY EVENING

Roseburg chapter of Eastern Star celebrated its fifty-fourth anniversary at one of the largest social affairs held in several years by the order here on Thursday evening at the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. A. H. Taylor, worthy matron, presided.

About one-hundred and twenty-five were present for the affair, which was one of the most colorful and enjoyable affairs to be enjoyed by the chapter. The new 1940 Roseburg officers were their new white matching robes and a special feature of the affair was the presentation of the standard work of fifty years ago, given by twenty-five members of Glendale chapter. The participants in this degree work were all costumed in beautiful old-fashioned, hoop-skirted gowns of the styles worn fifty years ago. The junior past matron of Glendale chapter, who was crowned in an old-fashioned dress of salmon color, had charge of the degree work and Carl Sether, presiding as worthy patron in the ceremony, wore a wedding suit of the 1860's.

Mrs. George Kohlhaugen, charter member of Roseburg chapter, Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, of the jurisprudence committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, Mrs. Maureen Robinson, worthy matron of Glendale chapter and Ralph Fies, worthy patron of Glendale, were reported to the east, where a lovely gift was presented to Mrs. Kohlhaugen.

Mrs. Kathryn Harber, representative of the Grand Chapter of the Oregon Eastern Star, and S. J. Cavell and Mrs. E. G. Kohlhaugen, relatives of charter members, were introduced.

Following the impressive chapter meeting, the members and visiting members enjoyed lovely refreshments at long tables in the banquet room. Jasmine, heather and tall yellow tapers decorated the tables. H. H. Turner, worthy patron of Roseburg chapter, presided and several talks were given by members. Miss Margaret Fies concluded the evening's entertainment by giving a resume of the highlights of Roseburg chapter.

Refreshments were in charge of Mrs. E. A. Britton, general chairman, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Smith, Mrs. Clifford Boyle, Mrs. William Unrath and Mrs. F. L. Crittenden.

The fine arts department of the Junior Woman's club will meet Thursday evening, January 25, at the home of Mrs. Ralph Herman with Miss Eleanor Fies in charge of arrangements.

The department met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Perry Thiel, at which time Miss Patricia White gave an informal talk on the subject of "Sculpturing" showing with clay the preliminary steps taken in preparing a clay model for its plaster Paris cast.

During the evening the club members carved figures from soap. Later in the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. Thiel to Mrs. Jack Chapman, Mrs. Reginald Erskine, Mrs. Paul Smith, Mrs. Ralph Herman, Mrs. William Unrath, Miss Patricia White, Miss Betty Shoemaker, Miss Eleanor Fies and Miss Margaret Lange.

Refreshments were in charge of Mrs. E. A. Britton, general chairman, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Smith, Mrs. Clifford Boyle, Mrs. William Unrath and Mrs. F. L. Crittenden.

The fine arts department of the Junior Woman's club will meet Thursday evening, January 25, at the home of Mrs. Ralph Herman with Miss Eleanor Fies in charge of arrangements.

The department met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Perry Thiel, at which time Miss Patricia White gave an informal talk on the subject of "Sculpturing" showing with clay the preliminary steps taken in preparing a clay model for its plaster Paris cast.

During the evening the club members carved figures from soap. Later in the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. Thiel to Mrs. Jack Chapman, Mrs. Reginald Erskine, Mrs. Paul Smith, Mrs. Ralph Herman, Mrs. William Unrath, Miss Patricia White, Miss Betty Shoemaker, Miss Eleanor Fies and Miss Margaret Lange.

Refreshments were in charge of Mrs. E. A. Britton, general chairman, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Smith, Mrs. Clifford Boyle, Mrs. William Unrath and Mrs. F. L. Crittenden.

The fine arts department of the Junior Woman's club will meet Thursday evening, January 25, at the home of Mrs. Ralph Herman with Miss Eleanor Fies in charge of arrangements.

The department met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Perry Thiel, at which time Miss Patricia White gave an informal talk on the subject of "Sculpturing" showing with clay the preliminary steps taken in preparing a clay model for its plaster Paris cast.

During the evening the club members carved figures from soap. Later in the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. Thiel to Mrs. Jack Chapman, Mrs. Reginald Erskine, Mrs. Paul Smith, Mrs. Ralph Herman, Mrs. William Unrath, Miss Patricia White, Miss Betty Shoemaker, Miss Eleanor Fies and Miss Margaret Lange.

JUDGE AND MRS. MARSTERS ENTERTAIN AT LOVELY DINNER MONDAY EVENING

To compliment their daughter, Mrs. Kermit Johnson, who is visiting here from Snohomish, Wash., a charming informal 6:30 o'clock dinner was given Monday evening by Judge and Mrs. R. W. Marsters at their home on North Jackson street.

Jasmine and greenery graced the serving table, while bouquets of chrysanthemum and laurustinus were used about the room. Covers were placed for Mrs. Johnson, guest of honor, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin

BETA SIGMA PHI HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING WEDNESDAY

Beta Sigma Phi met on Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the home of Amanda Anderson and Eleanor Hessimer in the Kohlhaugen apartments.

During the business meeting plans for a dinner dance were discussed. The date for the next meeting is Monday, January 29, at the home of Evelyn Willis and Cleora Ter will have its first lesson on the subject of music.

In connection with the group's second lesson on poetry, each girl read her own, imprinted or lyric composed. The group then enjoyed composing a group ballad.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses to: Thelma Smith, guest, Carmel Newland, Wilma Doyle, Betty Guiley, Arlie Corbett, Janet Pickenscher, Dora Braughton, Cleora Engmann and Evelyn Willis.

MRS. S. C. RICHMOND ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. S. C. Richmond very graciously entertained her bridge club at a charming one-thirty luncheon at her lovely home in Laurelwood Wednesday afternoon. Yellow jasmine and tall yellow tapers graced the prettily appointed luncheon table.

Covers were placed for Mrs. W. F. Downer, a guest, and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mrs. M. H. Muncy, Mrs. Phil Harth, Mrs. J. P. Mosechenbacher, Mrs. Frank Long, Mrs. Adria Fisher and the hostess, Mrs. Richmond.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. Wm. Long, second high score and Mrs. Fisher, the traveling prize.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR OF MONDAY EVENING

A very enjoyable 7:30 o'clock dessert-supper and benefit card party was sponsored by Riversdale grante Monday evening at the hall. Nine tables of five hundred were in play during the evening with Mrs. M. Hazel Dixon winning the ladies high score; Ora Welker winning the men's high score and Mrs. Viola Thurston winning the traveling prize.

The grantee will sponsor a benefit five hundred party the evening of February 5 at the hall and following the card play and awarding of prizes, refreshments will be served.

American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. CLAUDE BAKER
Motto: We honor the dead by serving the living.

Friday two car loads of American Legion auxiliary members went to North Bend to attend the district conference. Mrs. Roy Young of Roseburg is district president and will preside. At the regular session of the local unit this week Mrs. M. R. Richards, president, and Mrs. Young outlined the participation of the local unit in the conference. Mrs. Young also presented plans for completion of the park at the south end of the city. Further details will be explained when she has talked with the city council.

The auxiliary will hold a card party January 26. This will be a large affair with 50 tables in play. Its purpose will be to raise funds for local child welfare work; mainly the swimming pool project. A dance will be given at the Facility that week also.

Mrs. Ellen Post, membership chairman and vice president, reported a gain in membership over the same period last year. The unit had 126 reported with several to come before the conference. Nationally last year was a record breaker but this year has topped that high. The advance enrollment is 50,000 ahead of last year, making a new record of 360,000 members at the first of the year.

A new job has presented itself this year in the form of opening educational opportunities for all children of deceased world war veterans. Federal aid is now available for them and in some states state aid. The American Legion and auxiliary will make intensive efforts to locate all such children and acquaint them with the benefits to which they are eligible. The local auxiliary will cooperate in this activity and will endeavor to bring information regarding available educational aid to children of deceased veterans in the community, according to Mrs. M. R. Richards, president.

EASTERN STAR HAS LARGE CELEBRATION ON THURSDAY EVENING

Roseburg chapter of Eastern Star celebrated its fifty-fourth anniversary at one of the largest social affairs held in several years by the order here on Thursday evening at the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. A. H. Taylor, worthy matron, presided.

About one-hundred and twenty-five were present for the affair, which was one of the most colorful and enjoyable affairs to be enjoyed by the chapter. The new 1940 Roseburg officers were their new white matching robes and a special feature of the affair was the presentation of the standard work of fifty years ago, given by twenty-five members of Glendale chapter. The participants in this degree work were all costumed in beautiful old-fashioned, hoop-skirted gowns of the styles worn fifty years ago. The junior past matron of Glendale chapter, who was crowned in an old-fashioned dress of salmon color, had charge of the degree work and Carl Sether, presiding as worthy patron in the ceremony, wore a wedding suit of the 1860's.

Mrs. George Kohlhaugen, charter member of Roseburg chapter, Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, of the jurisprudence committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, Mrs. Maureen Robinson, worthy matron of Glendale chapter and Ralph Fies, worthy patron of Glendale, were reported to the east, where a lovely gift was presented to Mrs. Kohlhaugen.

Mrs. Kathryn Harber, representative of the Grand Chapter of the Oregon Eastern Star, and S. J. Cavell and Mrs. E. G. Kohlhaugen, relatives of charter members, were introduced.

Following the impressive chapter meeting, the members and visiting members enjoyed lovely refreshments at long tables in the banquet room. Jasmine, heather and tall yellow tapers decorated the tables. H. H. Turner, worthy patron of Roseburg chapter, presided and several talks were given by members. Miss Margaret Fies concluded the evening's entertainment by giving a resume of the highlights of Roseburg chapter.

Refreshments were in charge of Mrs. E. A. Britton, general chairman, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Smith, Mrs. Clifford Boyle, Mrs. William Unrath and Mrs. F. L. Crittenden.

The fine arts department of the Junior Woman's club will meet Thursday evening, January 25, at the home of Mrs. Ralph Herman with Miss Eleanor Fies in charge of arrangements.

The department met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Perry Thiel, at which time Miss Patricia White gave an informal talk on the subject of "Sculpturing" showing with clay the preliminary steps taken in preparing a clay model for its plaster Paris cast.

During the evening the club members carved figures from soap. Later in the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. Thiel to Mrs. Jack Chapman, Mrs. Reginald Erskine, Mrs. Paul Smith, Mrs. Ralph Herman, Mrs. William Unrath, Miss Patricia White, Miss Betty Shoemaker, Miss Eleanor Fies and Miss Margaret Lange.

Refreshments were in charge of Mrs. E. A. Britton, general chairman, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Smith, Mrs. Clifford Boyle, Mrs. William Unrath and Mrs. F. L. Crittenden.

The fine arts department of the Junior Woman's club will meet Thursday evening, January 25, at the home of Mrs. Ralph Herman with Miss Eleanor Fies in charge of arrangements.

The department met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Perry Thiel, at which time Miss Patricia White gave an informal talk on the subject of "Sculpturing" showing with clay the preliminary steps taken in preparing a clay model for its plaster Paris cast.

During the evening the club members carved figures from soap. Later in the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. Thiel to Mrs. Jack Chapman, Mrs. Reginald Erskine, Mrs. Paul Smith, Mrs. Ralph Herman, Mrs. William Unrath, Miss Patricia White, Miss Betty Shoemaker, Miss Eleanor Fies and Miss Margaret Lange.

Refreshments were in charge of Mrs. E. A. Britton, general chairman, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Smith, Mrs. Clifford Boyle, Mrs. William Unrath and Mrs. F. L. Crittenden.

The fine arts department of the Junior Woman's club will meet Thursday evening, January 25, at the home of Mrs. Ralph Herman with Miss Eleanor Fies in charge of arrangements.

The department met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Perry Thiel, at which time Miss Patricia White gave an informal talk on the subject of "Sculpturing" showing with clay the preliminary steps taken in preparing a clay model for its plaster Paris cast.

During the evening the club members carved figures from soap. Later in the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. Thiel to Mrs. Jack Chapman, Mrs. Reginald Erskine, Mrs. Paul Smith, Mrs. Ralph Herman, Mrs. William Unrath, Miss Patricia White, Miss Betty Shoemaker, Miss Eleanor Fies and Miss Margaret Lange.

JUDGE AND MRS. MARSTERS ENTERTAIN AT LOVELY DINNER MONDAY EVENING

To compliment their daughter, Mrs. Kermit Johnson, who is visiting here from Snohomish, Wash., a charming informal 6:30 o'clock dinner was given Monday evening by Judge and Mrs. R. W. Marsters at their home on North Jackson street.

Jasmine and greenery graced the serving table, while bouquets of chrysanthemum and laurustinus were used about the room. Covers were placed for Mrs. Johnson, guest of honor, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin

BETA SIGMA PHI HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING WEDNESDAY