

News of Douglas County

Glendale

GLENDALE, Jan. 19.—C. L. Normoyle was admitted to Josephine General hospital at Grants Pass Friday for medical treatment.

Miss Laura Haess, Mrs. Bora Harper and Mrs. Belle Brooks were Grants Pass visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Belcher transacted business and visited at Roseburg Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gardner, Mrs. Leslie Normoyle and Arthur Paschelke were Sunday visitors at Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hazen and Mrs. Esther Hazen of Astoria were guests at the W. B. Garrett home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Huntington attended a dinner meeting at Alpine lodge Wednesday evening with the committee to arrange for the county B-league basketball and volleyball tournaments. Mr. Huntington is chairman of this committee.

C. J. Kafer of Camp Gasquet, California, is spending the week at his home here.

Donald Wunsch of Spokane is visiting here at the home of his uncle, Wm. Wunsch, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Powell and son, Gene, of Roseburg, were guests at the Carl Sether home Sunday.

Mrs. Sether is a sister of Mr. Powell.

Mrs. B. E. Magchette, Mrs. B. C. Huntington, Mrs. R. B. Gardner and Mrs. C. L. Normoyle spent Thursday afternoon at Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gibbons and daughter, Barbara, spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Gibbons' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hill of Biddle.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Dean of Port Orford arrived Sunday evening for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pirley Winkelmann and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wunsch, Gloria Wunsch and Donald Wunsch were dinner guests at the R. C. Huntington home Sunday.

Among the Glendale people attending the basketball and volleyball games at Myrtle Creek Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McMullin, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wunsch, Mrs. Wm. Lewallen, Mr. and Mrs. Pirley Winkelmann and daughter, Dorothy, and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Garrett.

Mr. and Mrs. Pirley Winkelmann and daughter, Dorothy, and son, Bob, were Grants Pass visitors Saturday.

Lookingglass

LOOKINGGLASS, Jan. 20.—A baby girl arrived in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones on Sunday.

W. J. Jackson, of Biddle is visiting at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones.

Mrs. Mary Smith returned on Saturday from a three month trip visiting friends and relatives in Wisconsin, Ohio, Michigan and Phoenix, Ariz.

Mr. Spooner and Miss Appleberry of Monmouth were visitors in the valley over the weekend.

Leslie Buel, who is attending normal school at Monmouth, underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis on Tuesday evening of last week. He is being cared for in the Salem hospital and reported to be recovering satisfactorily.

Miss Blanche Alcock of Myrtle Creek spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. Alcock.

Cottage prayer meeting was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Larsen.

Elkton

ELKTON, Jan. 20.—Miss Enid Linn, of Eugene, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hatley.

Mrs. Thebe Jones is ill at her home. Dr. DeVore of Drain was called to see Mrs. Jones Tuesday.

Mrs. Nellie Binder, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Morgan, Forest Solomon, LeRoy Morgan and Chas. Haines were attending to business matters in Roseburg Wednesday.

Verla Kesterling, Maybelle Holcomb, Eugene Holcomb, Henry Sagle and Elizabeth Billock attended senior class day at Roseburg Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rydell, of Reedport, were at the home of Nels Rydell, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones were North Bend visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Catherine Fenley is visiting relatives and friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Binder, Mrs. Carl Binder and daughter, Eleanor, were Drain visitors Tuesday. Mr. Binder went to the doctor and found he has a fractured rib he had got in a fall a few days before.

Mrs. Mary Beckley has gone to Salem to visit her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Howell.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Tarnowski have moved into one of the Franklin cabins. The Tarnowskis have been living at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Adams.

Mrs. R. A. Moore, who has been ill with the flu, is better.

Mrs. D. L. Rule, who has been ill, is better.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Huggins went to Eugene Thursday. Mr. Huggins will go to work there in a few days.

Mrs. Beadie Haines, of Harrisburg, has been visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haines of Kellogg. Mrs. Haines stopped over on her way back to work after visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Castner at Grants Pass.

Mrs. Lucille King and Conrad Hendricks, of Roseburg, were at the R. S. Adams home Saturday.

Jerry King, who is at the Adams home, went to Roseburg for the day with his mother, Mrs. King.

Myrtle Creek

MYRTLE CREEK, Jan. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Woodruff and baby of Roseburg, are visiting at the home of Mr. Woodruff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Woodruff, on Hilger creek.

Oral Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clara Jones, is quite ill of influenza. Mr. and Mrs. Joffe have both been sick but are able to be up again.

"Grandma" Weeks of Dale, celebrated her 74th birthday a few days ago. She lives with her son and daughter, Arthur and Miss Helen Weeks. Mr. Oscar Weeks and Mrs. Weeks and children, gathered at the Arthur Weeks' home and celebrated with a birthday dinner honoring the grandmother.

Mrs. Riley Peters, who has been quite ill of high blood pressure is recovering. Mrs. Margaret Way is staying at the Peters home and caring for the invalid.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Beckley and son, Pat, went to Salem last Saturday, where they are seeking a home preparatory to moving the last of the week. During their absence their rooms in being packed by the Buchanan Transfer Co., of Roseburg. Mr. Beckley, who has been local manager of the Shell Oil office, was recently transferred to Salem and promoted to the position of clerk yardman.

Misses Marjorie and Dorothy Bates of Eugene spent Saturday night and Sunday visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Bates.

Two car loads of Gypsies visited Myrtle Creek Tuesday. Included in their crowd were ten children.

Miss Blanche Alcock, one of the bank clerks, visited over the weekend with her parents at their home in Lookingglass.

Myles Jones, the progressive proprietor of the Myrtle Creek auto camp and service station, is building another pair of de luxe cabins at the back of the twin cabins constructed last year. These cabins are commodious and strictly modern and first class in every respect, and as a result there is a call for more like them.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gates of Days Creek were business visitors in the Myrtle Creek vicinity Tuesday and were dinner guests at the C. Woodruff home.

Misses Vera and Pearl Brumbaugh, of Madison, Kansas, arrived last week for an extended visit with their brother, Lafayette Brumbaugh, who is recovering from a recent illness.

Lesmond Brown, who has lived in this vicinity for several years, and moved to Roseburg a few months ago where he has been employed in the veterans' hospital, is very ill of diphtheria there now. The last news received was that he was slightly improved.

Watson A. Woodruff, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Woodruff, accompanied by his parents, went to Marshfield, Monday, January 8, where he enlisted in the U. S. navy. He was sent to Portland and from there to the naval training school in San Diego, Calif. He writes home that he is doing well and that his address is 10-4 Naval Training Station, San Diego.

The Christian Sunday school held the first business meeting of the new year last Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. March. Many plans were laid and discussed for the betterment of the school. The need for more missionary work and observance in both the church and school are being stressed in every department. A teacher training class will shortly be organized, which is expected to be attended by all the teachers and assistant teachers. Light refreshments were served at the close of the meeting which was well attended.

The Methodist church enjoyed a fellowship dinner in the church dining room last Sunday.

Mrs. N. D. Wood and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Max David stayed over night at the Lynn Hurst home following the funeral of Rev. N. D. Wood at the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Hurst is a daughter of Mrs. Wood. Mrs. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. David returned to their homes in Medford and Ashland Wednesday.

Drain

DRAIN, Jan. 18.—Max Vandover of Dunsmuir came Thursday for a few days visit with his mother, Mrs. L. H. Vandover.

Dwight Rossiter left last Friday.

Heart Stealing in Crook's Repertoire

Scene from "Hallelu," co-starring David Niven and Olivia de Havilland, at the Indian theater in Roseburg for four days, starting tomorrow.

to again enlist in the navy. He is now at Bremerton, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Thompson and son, Glenn, recently from Council Bluffs, Iowa, have located temporarily at the Van Kirk camp. Glenn Thompson has taken Dwight Rossiter's place in the service aviation at Harry Mason's.

Rev. C. F. Trimble went to Elkton Thursday where he conducted funeral services for George W. Kingston, who was killed Monday night at Kellogg.

The officers and heads of committees of the Townsend club met Monday night at the home of the president, R. L. Harlan, whom plans were made for the year.

A new radio has been purchased for the grade school with funds raised by student activities. A planned group of radio programs, especially prepared for schools, are being started.

The WPA hot lunch project has been delayed, though promise was given by government officials. Final action has not been completed.

The Drain grade school basketball team was defeated 19 to 16 by the Cottage Grove junior high, at Cottage Grove last Friday.

In the opening conference game the Drain high school basketball team was defeated by Sutherlin 27 to 18. In the preliminary game, Drain volleyball girls defeated Sutherlin girls 41 to 14.

Melrose

MELROSE, Jan. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Don Harbaugh, of Wenatchee, Wash., visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Williams and other relatives and friends. The Harbaughs are former Melrose residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pierce of Lakeview, Ore., recently visited Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lutman and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pierce. The former resided at Melrose above ten years ago.

Norman Williams made a business trip to Gold Hill last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Long and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Long and small daughter, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Olson and family left Friday morning for Astoria, where they will be employed in the Wallace gravel plant.

Miss Florence Neilson arrived home last week from North Dakota where she has visited since last September.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Goodburn left last week for Los Angeles to visit for three weeks with the latter's uncle and aunt. Mr. and Mrs. Royce Albin, former Melrose residents and with other relatives.

Mrs. Carl Backlund and her daughter, Miss Helen, spent Sunday at Myrtle Creek visiting friends.

A friend to be greeted
An order to be placed
A date to be made

Extension telephones reach friends, stores, all the agencies of quick aid and protection just as every telephone does. In addition, that "extension" telephone in your kitchen is doubly handy when a pot is bubbling, or a cake is being watched, or hands are covered with flour — just when you want your telephone there. Extensions are only a few cents a day. May we tell you more?... Please ask our Business Office.

THE PACIFIC TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY
Telephone 71 121 So. Stephens St.

who left recently for Arizona, arrived there safely. Mr. Applegate is well known in this community, being the son of Paul Applegate, formerly of Youcalla.

Sutherlin

SUTHERLIN, Jan. 23.—Miss Irene Murphy and LaVerne French visited Mr. and Mrs. William Miller at their home in Happy Valley last Sunday.

Leonard Barge took Gerald Hall and George Pankey to Marshfield Thursday where the latter two have employment. Leonard returned here the same evening.

Mrs. Henry Harge, Jack Culver, Sr. and Jack Culver, Jr., motored to Eugene Thursday evening to visit Frank Culver of Bandon, who is in a hospital in that city. Mr. Culver is improving.

Jerry Smith and Wade Fenton attended the fights in Eugene last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Cland Selleck spent the first part of last week in Portland visiting with Mrs. Selleck's mother, Mrs. Fanny Gilstrap, and brother, Gus, and family.

Clair Arnold of Portland was a business visitor in Sutherlin Friday.

George Allen and Emmitt Hall, of Wilbur, were business visitors in town Friday.

A. B. Chester and John Musgrove made a business trip to Portland the middle of last week.

Jack Chapman of Roseburg was a visitor in Sutherlin Friday.

Delores Longbrake is employed at the A. B. Chester home.

Olatia

Mrs. John Orr and Mrs. R. C. Heater were shopping and transacting business in Roseburg Saturday.

Homer Ireland arrived from California Monday to spend a few days visiting his brothers, Henry and Portland.

Word has been received from Tucson, Ariz., that Rex Applegate,

News of 4-H CLUBS

(Continued from yesterday)

Mr. Hill finished the meeting by awarding the members with pins for the accomplishment of last year's work. Those members receiving pins were Wiltha Hutchison, Susie Crispin, Harry Wright, Roy Boyd, Lester Ferguson, Noel Welch, Maurice Matthews and Josephine Wright.

The Forest Scouts held their regular meeting at the Days Creek school Wednesday. The usual business formalities were taken care of before the work was discussed. Mr. Barkhurst, leader of the group, will give a talk on "Forestry" at will give a chance to select some subject pertaining to forestry and report to the group the information they find. The members were told that they would be taught the elementary factors of surveying this year.

The Master Marketeers began their regular meeting with two vells. After the business meeting Clifford Woodruff gave a report on the seventh lesson, "Financing, Risk Bearing, Insurance, and Speculation." Their essays were planned and each member made an outline of his subject. They are going to select some article and carry it through to a finished product.

Marcellus Ireland, He went to Marshfield Wednesday to visit another brother, William Ireland, and to Bandon to visit his sister, Mrs. Maude Giles. He expects to return to San Francisco the last of the week.

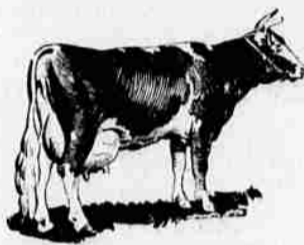

The Girls' Cooking club held its meeting at the school Friday afternoon. This was the club's seventh meeting. Roll call was answered by each member choosing a fruit and telling why it is valuable as a food for our diet. Alice Mae Welch reported on oranges; Hazel Welch, pears; Beverly Worthington, cherries; Jean McGee, bananas; Norma Duncan, peaches; Laina Perdue, apples; Maxine Wright, pineapples; Jean Duncan, berries; Violet Goin, tomatoes; and Josephine Wright, fruits in general. Several members of the cooking club have completed their work. Those who have finished their work are Alice Mae Welch, Lavina Perdue, Henrietta Ulan, Jean Duncan, Violet Goin and Josephine Wright.

(By Juanita Kruse of Riversdale)

The Sewing Trio met at the home of their leader, Mrs. Alice Kruse, Thursday, January 18. The members worked on their dresser scarfs and luncheon cloths. Later refreshments were served by Mrs. Kruse to Patricia Burr, Beverly and Juanita Kruse.

(By Betty Anne Matthews)

The Stitch and Chat club met Thursday at the home of their leader, Mrs. J. M. Bartley. Social chairman was instructed to provide ten-minute entertainment for each meeting. Special Committee Chairman Audrey Roseland will direct members in a working roll call with something of unusual interest. The importance of position, cleanliness and proper light, while sewing, were stressed. Instruction was given for wearing thimble and proper way to take thread from the spool and thread needle. Even basting, even basting and running stitches, were practiced. Bonnie Jean Tyrer was absent because of illness. Popcorn was enjoyed by the group.

The Cow That Lived In Clover

A certain cow, though pastured in bountiful meadows, was attracted by the more tempting appearance of distant fields. Shunning the abundance at hand, she wandered afar, always finding the new spots less appetizing and less plentiful and always leaving them untasted for the new fields inviting her on.

Growing hunger only spurred her on until finally, exhausted by it, she fell to the sands of a desert from which she never rose again.

People who shun the stores at home because of the allurements of those in larger cities often find themselves getting less than they expected.

Get in the habit of seeing your local dealer first. If he hasn't got what you want, he'll gladly get it. You'll be helping him to serve you better by helping him to make it pay.

Support the Town That Supports You
TRADE AT HOME