Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Bronchitis, acute or chronic, is an inflammatory condition of the mucous membranes lining the bronchial tubes. Even if other medicines have failed you may get relief now with Creomulsion. Chronic bronchitis can develop if your chest cold has not been treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expectorate mucus, relieve and soothe the inflamed and raw tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends with other medicines by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding that you are to like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, so you are so have your money back. See that the name Creomulsion is on the bottle and you will get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

Armstrong Kayoes Montanez in Ninth

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The three-point landing welterweight champion Henry Armstrong mapped for 1940 was one-third completed today—Pedro Montanez down; Al Davis and Cofarino Garcia coming up.

It took only nine of the allotted 15 rounds last night for the hammer to pound his plucky Puerto Rican foe into a bloody, helpless figure.

Watching 1394, four and three-quarter pounds less than Montanez but the heaviest in his career, the Los Angeles searog looked capable of crushing anyone who could come under the welterweight limit and was a mighty account as a middleweight, as well.

That, of course, is exactly what he hopes to do—one more defense of his championship, preferably against Davis, and then abdication for a grab at Garcia's middleweight title, recognized in New York and California.

Possibly because of his increased weight and his aim at the heavier class, Armstrong last night appeared a trifle slower but more powerful than ever before.

The forty erid was 47 seconds into the ninth round when Referee Billy Cavanaugh finally stopped it for a technical knockout.

The challenger was down three times before that and was twice saved by the bell.

Paposes Ready For Eugene Hoopsters

Roseburg junior high school and Woodrow Wilson junior high school of Eugene meet tomorrow evening on the local court in the first of a two-game, home-and-home, basketball series. A victory over the Paposes would give Coach Hoopster's charges a season's standing of four victories as against two defeats.

Gerald Denny, husky center of the Papose quintet, is expected to be ready for the contest after suffering a severe cut on his face in the Medford game last week-end. The injury, which occurred in the first quarter, forced Denny to the sidelines for the remainder of the contest.

The balance of the squad is in good condition and will be ready for the invasion of the Lane county quintet. Coach Turner will probably open with the same lineup that started the Medford game—Wimberly and Schriener, forwards; Johnny center; Weaver and Kingguards, reserves likely to see action are Baker, Ritter, Young, Loulek, Coey, Vincent, Clark, Gerston and several others.

The school's excellently-trained girls' tumbling team will again present an exhibition between halves of the contest.

Lumbermen Will Discuss Problems

PORTLAND, Jan. 25.—An industrial drama of the Pacific north-west on the theme of "The Boxed Heart" will unfold in the annual meeting of the West Coast Lumbermen's association, at Portland, Friday, January 26, local officials of the association said today in announcing the full program of the meeting.

"Boxed Heart" is a trade term for a large timber cut from the coarse-grained center heartwood of a log. The officials stated, "Once upon a time boxed hearts were in large demand for export trade and for railroad uses and industrial construction. These outlets for west coast lumber have contracted during the past decade, particularly the export outlet. The boxed heart of the west coast log is now largely manufactured into dimension lumber and boards for home and farm building. That means loss of raw material, greater cost of manufacture and frequent shutting of the domestic market with low-grade lumber. It means that many low-grade logs must be left in the woods. It means a lopsided domestic market and unbalanced production throughout the industry.

"All this will form an underlying theme of the address of Association President Edmund Hayes, Portland, which will open the afternoon session. Mr. Hayes' subject is "Our Future, Present and Future." He will summarize the problems of the industry and the work of the association in forest conservation and utilization, low-cost housing, the education of lum-

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS
 Do we not all have one Father? That ancient query is the standard and been asked to all the man racial and religious intolerance running riot throughout the world today. It is also the ringing challenge to organized religion, whether Protestant, Roman Catholic or Jewish, to draw together, to seek, to find, and then to follow the trails of tolerance that alone can build anew the broken-down bridges of human brotherhood. And these trails can be found if we will only try to find them. A full knowledge, instead of a distorted opinion of each other; appreciation of what each group has contributed to the world other than our own; has made to the religion morality, and common culture of humanity. A full fellowship and a more intimate association with each other would go far to bring about a better understanding. Let us, help us to be truly tolerant. May we see the good marks in every brother we meet. Deepen our insight into the values of other people, of whatever race or creed. Give us more of the mind of Christ. Amen.

You can put yourself behind a husky Dynaflex straight-eight that's a veritable tornado when it comes to going places—but actually silkier than waterworks in its smooth-and-easy freedom from vibration.

You can switch to gentle coil springs and never need another "lube job." You can discard the old-type gear lever for Handshift transmission that works with a finger-click.

You can help yourself to roomy spacious expanse of the Buick Super's next-to-five-foot front seats. You can ride in Foamtex cushion comfort, with Safety Plate Glass all around you and everything from a built-in automatic choke to Buick's exclusive Fore-N-Air Direction Signal to make driving easy and convenient.

TAMPER-PROOF GAS TANKS—prevented by locks the gas tank in the fueler, prevent tampering in a theft attempt. Gas tank and fueler are an extra cost.

So why wait to get your Buick? Prices are low now—lower than on some sixes—and delivery is prompt. Your dealer has a full line to show, too, and your old car's worth more now than it will be later.

How about some action? Time's a-wasting, there's fun to be had—and there's a Buick waiting to hang your license plates on!
