Fire Insurance Assn.

Ends Pleasant Meeting

The Northwestern Mutual Fire association convention, in session here for two days, closed Friday afternoon. About 30 agents and company officials were present at what officials termed as one of the most successful meetings they have held. Premiums from this territory, according to reports given by the visiting officials, show a 15 per cent increase for 1939 over 1938, with a favorable loss experience. All visitors were loud in their praise of the friendly hospitality shown them while in Roseburg, and especially were they pleased with the entertainment provided by Miss Helen Casey and a group of local talent at the banquet on Thursday evening. This banquet was held at the Rose hotel, with Charles Emery acting as toastmaster. Short talks were given by A. J. Geddes, Roseburg district agent, Tom Parkinson and A. C. Martens, with Col. E. F. Tandy being the speaker of the evening.

OREGON EVENTS FLASHED FROM WIRE SERVICE

PORTLAND, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Ashby C. Dickson, Portland attorney, announced at a Multnomah county democratic central committee meeting last night he intended to run for congress from the third district.

He will seek the seat of Representative Angell, republican.

PORTLAND, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Four young men who asked a bank teller to give them currency for 2649 nickels landed in jail yesterday. Possession of odd-shaped wire and a magnet led officers to conclude they had taken the sackful of coins from slot machines.

PORTLAND, Jan. 27.—(AP)—While two deputies were looking for him, Z. M. Chase, 59, called at the U. S. marshal's office yesterday and surrendered. He was indicted by the federal grand jury Thursday on a charge of converting $351 of postal funds to his own use when he served as postmaster at Monitor, Ore.

McMINNVILLE, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Linfield college's financial condition is good and outstanding debts are being liquidated, President William G. Everson told the board of trustees yesterday.

PORTLAND, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Sixteen-year-old Norman Swindler can return to his paper route, free of criminal responsibility for the fatal shooting of his stepfather, James B. Hart, 40.

A coroner's jury returned a verdict of "justifiable homicide" and recommended Norman's exoneration. The lad, held in technical custody, said he shot his stepfather last Sunday to protect himself and his mother.

PORTLAND, Jan. 27.—(AP)—A federal grand jury set aside charges against Ivan Gerberding, Robinette sheep herder, yesterday. Gerberding was accused of writing a letter threatening to kidnap the son of W. W. Evans, Halfway banker, unless he received $500.
