POET'S CORNER

SAD DREAMS
By L. A. Fritz
When darkness descends on the valley,
And lights twinkle near and afar,
In visions I hear you singing,
An' strummin' your sweet-voiced guitar.
We sat on the porch in the evening,
And sang while the sun met the sea,
Its rays kissed your hair with soft glory,
I hoped then that you were for me.
But now you have gone to the city,
To meet men more polished than I,
You may forget the poor farmer,
Who sadly heard your cool "Good-bye."

Japan Asked For Army-Navy Funds

TOKYO, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Japan's army and navy today asked parliament to approve a new seven-year arms program costing about $671,000,000, after the war minister had declared the army "is not relaxing its watch" along soviet Russia's borders.

The appropriation asked today, for the "replenishment and rehabilitation" of arms, would be in addition to a total of $1,862,017,680 which already has been approved for this purpose.

The request for the seven year fund was made after War Minister General Hata had declared Russia had committed "deeds of illegal acts" after conclusion of the truce on the Manchukuo-Outer Mongolia border.

Japan's army, said Gen. Hata, "therefore is not relaxing its watch."

Gen. Hata and Navy Minister Yoshida said the new funds were necessary to push the "China incident" and because "of the change in the international situation."

Foreign Minister Arita told the Tokyo diet that he hoped "the treatyless situation" with the United States would be ended soon and disavowed any intention of curbing "the rights and interests of the United States and other third powers" in China.
