Harkness Wealth Left for Charity

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Not even death stopped the multi-million-dollar philanthropies of Edward S. Harkness.

The financier, whose vast fortune stemmed from the foundation of Standard Oil and whose lifetime benefactions ran more than $100,000,000, left the bulk of his estate in trust to his widow with instructions that it go to charitable and educational institutions after her death.

The estate was valued at "more than $10,000" when his will was filed yesterday.

Mrs. Harkness, the former Mary E. Stillman, and Malcolm P. Aldrich, general manager of the Harkness interests, were named executors.

Aldrich was given $100,000, as "a mark of my friendship and his great service to me."

Altogether Harkness, who died Jan. 23 at the age of 66, bequeathed $1,250,000 to 78 employees.

He never made a public speech nor gave an interview during his life, and left no children to share in his wealth.

The family fortune started when his father, Stephen, contributed $70,000 to keep the oil concern of John D. Rockefeller afloat when the oil man found himself in difficulties.

Acid Test

STOCKHOLM, Sweden.—The metal workers union at Varberg grew tired of hearing Soviet Russia lauded by its communist members and decided to do something about it.

They offered free one way tickets to Moscow on condition departure be made immediately for nothing less than a ten-year visit.

There have been no takers, union members said.

H. E. Club to Meet—An all-day meeting with a noon pollock luncheon will be held Thursday by the Evergreen Home Economics club at the home of Mrs. Curtis Calkins.
