Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Bronchitis, acute or chronic, is an inflammatory condition of the mucous membranes lining the bronchial tubes. Even if other medicines have failed you may get relief now with Creomulsion. Chronic bronchitis can develop if your chest cold is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Creomulsion blends beechwood resins by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding that you are to like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are so have your money back. See that the name Creomulsion is on the bottle and you will get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

Heavy Odds Favor Joe Louis to Win

Chilean Challenger, Godoy, Expected to Be Added to List of Bomber's Victims.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—(AP)—The boys who bet a bob or two on the fight are "getting down" as plenty on tomorrow night's Joe Louis-Arturo Godoy championship stuggle, despite the fact that the Brown Bomber is rated so highly that his next title defense already has been lined up. Promoter Mike Jacobs, who directs the activities of the fight game's most expensive and dangerous prize of brass, broke just about all rules for flimsy publicity last night in announcing, on the eve of one title tilt, that Louis' next trip to the post would be in May against Johnny Paycock, the heavyweight out of Des Moines, who recently has run up quite a victory string. "Uncle Mike" did qualify the announcement by pointing out that Louis would have to whip Godoy first, in 15 rounds or less tomorrow in Madison Square garden. But not even the Chilean fisherman's best friends would tell him he figured to dethrone the champion. Even the letters, having examined the somewhat peculiar "schedule" of odds for the fight, let the 1 to 7 price on the Bomber to finish on top in his ninth title defense strictly alone. Instead, they climbed aboard another item as a check to put meat and potatoes on the table. Only Question of Rounds. This was a quotation of even money that Godoy would last five rounds. The odds-makers have rigged up a acute on just how long

Challenger

Arturo Godoy

Scheduled to meet Joe Louis, the heavyweight champion, in a 15-rounder at New York tomorrow night, Arturo Godoy, above, Chilean challenger, is on the short end of big betting odds. Experts concede him a chance to stay from 5 to 10 rounds with the Brown Bomber.

Fun Riot on Tap For Local Fans

The Broadway Clowns of Harlem, New York, negro exponents of razzle-dazzle basketball, will meet the Cass Street Clowns of Roseburg, an organization of local cage experts, in a feature attraction set for the senior high maple court tonight at 8 o'clock.

Proceeding the regular contest, a 15-minute exhibition of "ghost" basketball will be presented by both teams. According to advance notices, this demonstration will be one of the most entertaining, and at the same time, most amazing ever presented on the local court. It will represent the latest wrinkle in court cavorting. During this period all lights in the gym will be turned off and the two quintets will play a game of basketball in the ensuing darkness with only the ball, the hoops, the hands, feet and numbers of the players, visible to the spectators.

The regular contest has been billed as a laugh riot from start to finish. As their name implies, the Broadway Clowns present a "three ring circus" of fun, buffoonery and crazy antics, while playing regulation basketball. Reports indicate that this group is one of the top box office hoop attractions touring the country today.

Meeting these ebony-hued basketweavers will be Jim Watts, Cliff Horner, "Club" Church, Ray Morgan, Fred Dent, Harry Henry, Ivan Hatfield, Phil Laurance and several others.

15,000 Ticketed As Parking Violators

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8.—(AP)—How to arrest and prosecute 15,000 violators of the automobile parking ordinance, as ordered by a municipal judge, today stamped the district attorney and police, who were already harassed trying to untangle downtown traffic.

The arrests were ordered suddenly yesterday by Municipal Judge Alden Ames, in charge of traffic court, who decided it was time somebody did something about an estimated 50,000 overtime parking citations which have been ignored.

San Franciscans have a traditional way of handling the citations. The holder ones ignore them, tear them up, or just forget them.

Woman Named Senator for Multnomah County

PORTLAND, Feb. 8.—(AP)—The Multnomah county commission named Mrs. Ina K. Hatchell of Portland yesterday to succeed the late Dr. A. K. Higgs as state senator.

Although Mrs. Hatchell was approved by the county democratic central committee, she said she would not be a candidate for the office in the May primary election.

W. H. Fawcett, Magazine Publisher, Dies at 55

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Wilfred Hamilton Fawcett, 55, wealthy publisher of motion picture and humor magazines, died today in a hospital of a heart attack.

Fawcett's first publication, began soon after the war, was "Captain Bill's Whiz Bang," a humor magazine. He also was publisher of True Confessions, several motion picture "fan" magazines and some technical publications.

His survivors are his widow, Frances, who was his third wife, four sons and his daughter.

Mr. Grubbe Here—Frank Grubbe, of Wilbur, spent yesterday in this city attending to business.

It's the Early Bird that gets the Fun. The model illustrated is the Buick Super model 51 four-door touring sedan $1129 delivered at Flint, Mich. White interior tires additional. ONE of these days the itch is going to hit you to get out and get in on the fun a Buick can be in the spring-time. You're going to feel an irrepresible yen to touch off that husky, sweet-singing Dynaflex power plant and swing out in gentle coil-spring comfort to take in the fresh spring landscape. Maybe, like others we know of, you've even got the model picked out, and are just "waiting a few weeks" to do something definite about it. But may we emphasize, in purely friendly interest, that a lot of other people probably have the same idea. And that when they start buying in droves—as they do every year about the idea of March—even Buick's big factory has trouble keeping up with them. Of course, we're doing all we can to be ready for everyone. But you can get only so many cars in a warehouse. And a full warehouse can empty awfully fast. And what with everybody wanting Buicks this season, we can't say how long we can promise the delivery we can give now. So why not play the early bird this year? Why not get the jump on your neighbor and be driving your Buick while he's still talking about getting his? You've nothing to lose, a lot of fun to gain—and you'll find the address of your Buick dealer in the phone book. Not a six but an EIGHT for $895 delivered at Flint, Mich. *Excludes taxes and license (if any). Special equipment and accessories extra. Prices subject to change without notice.
