METHODIST LADIES AID SOCIETY HAS LUNCHEON MEETING ON THURSDAY

Mrs. Roy Catching, chairman, Mrs. D. B. Huber, Mrs. George K. Quire, Mrs. Foster Turner, Mrs. H. A. Canaday, Mrs. H. Waltemire, Mrs. Carl Landen and Miss Alice Bostick, assisted by Mrs. R. D. Coon, Mrs. A. S. Coon and Mrs. George Churchill, entertained the Methodist Ladies Aid society at a charming one o'clock luncheon at the church parlors Thursday afternoon. Covers were placed for sixty-five.

The tables, placed in the shape of a cross, were beautifully decorated in the Valentine motif and centered by a bowl of red carnations and white snapdragons with tall lighted red tapers and streamers of red crepe paper.

Mrs. R. L. Whipple, president, conducted the business meeting with Mrs. Charles A. Edwards giving a fine devotional service and reports being presented by Mrs. J. J. Eastling, secretary, and Mrs. P. T. Huber, treasurer.

Extensive plans are being made for the states dinner to be sponsored by the Aid Thursday, February 29, at 6:30 o'clock at the church parlors. Two hundred tickets will be sold for the affair and the ticket sale will open the first of the week. Mrs. P. T. Huber and Mrs. Earl Wiley are general chairmen of the dinner.

Mrs. J. D. Osborn gave a short talk in the interest of the church friendship campaign and Mrs. E. A. Pettey, Mrs. P. T. Huber and Mrs. Osborn were appointed by the president to be on the church morning visiting committee for the next month.

STATES DINNER TO BE OPEN TO PUBLIC ON THURSDAY, FEB. 29

The Methodist Ladies Aid society has announced that a very charming 6:30 o'clock states dinner will be sponsored by the group at the church parlors Thursday, February 29. Two hundred tickets will be on sale during the next two weeks for the affair, which promises to be one of the largest and most delightful social events of the month.

In previous years the Aid society sponsored a birthday dinner, which was changed this year to a states dinner. The tables will be decorated to represent the various sections of the United States and those purchasing tickets will be privileged to enjoy the affair.

Mrs. P. T. Huber and Mrs. Earl Wiley are joint chairmen of the

Today's Pattern

DAINTY FLATTERER FOR MATRONS
PATTERN 4380

by Anne Adams

The illusion of a slim figure depends upon good lines and well-balanced style. Anne Adams has outlined herself with Pattern 4380—a dream of slenderness come true. Those long, flowing seams at both front and back add inches to your height. And clever hip seams have a double purpose of minimizing your hips and giving effortless extra flare to your skirt. See how carefully gathering is placed at the bust-line for gentle softening? You'll like the decorative effect of scallops at the neckline—just may scallop the sleeves too for added charm and perch gay bows down the front. You might make the sleeves and sides of the bodice, front and back, in cheerful contrast.

Pattern 4380 is available in sizes 34 to 48. Size 36 takes 4 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric.
Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coin for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEETING MONDAY NIGHT

Mrs. Margaret Watkins, home economics teacher at senior high school, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Roseburg Junior Woman's club Monday evening, February 5, at the club house. For her topic she chose "American Home."

Mrs. Watkins based her talk on points outlined by Lila Blaine, famous home economist, as necessary features in a 100 per cent American home. She emphasized economical soundness for security, which she showed as reflecting on peace of mind. Other points included in her talk were that an American home be: Physically healthy, morally wholesome, mentally stimulating, artistically satisfying, and to realize its social responsibility and to be spiritually inspiring.

The outstanding point and closing suggestion by Mrs. Watkins was that homes be founded on mutual respect and affection between the parents and children and that parents and children realize that each member of the family is an individual.

During the business meeting a report was heard on the first of a series of "Galloping Teas" given by club members. The tea was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Chapman when a number of club members surprised her by calling one evening last week. At the close of the evening each guest paid the hostess a dime. Returns from the teas will be used for the swimming pool fund.

Plans were made for a benefit card party to be held at the club house Tuesday evening, Feb. 13, at 8 o'clock. The public is being invited to attend and proceeds will be devoted to the swimming pool project.

During the evening a quiz contest on the "American Home" was enjoyed by five club members with Mrs. Wm. L. Smith in charge of the contest and Mrs. Walter Fisher acting as judge. Mrs. Edwin Gardner placed first in the contest with Mrs. Fred Schermer second.

At the close of the evening refreshments were served from a table centered with small bouquets of violets. Lighted white tapers centered the arrangement. Mrs. Ralph Herman and Mrs. William L. Smith were in charge of arrangements for the evening.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Watkins, guest, Mrs. Walter Fisher, club adviser, Miss Verla McLaughlin, Mrs. Ralph Herman, Mrs. Reginald Crisline, Mrs. Perry Thiele, Mrs. Edwin Gardner, Mrs. C. E. Smith, Mrs. Adrian Bowen, Mrs. Ted Roadman, Miss Eleanor Ryan, Miss Betty Shoemaker, Mrs. Ernest Peterson, Mrs. Vm. Unrath, Mrs. Fletcher Gardner, Mrs. Jack Chapman, Mrs. Fred Schermer, Mrs. I. B. Dunn, Mrs. Doris Smith, Mrs. Paul Smith, Miss Meryl Wellman.
