Student Body Officers

Chosen at Days Creek

DAYS CREEK, Feb. 10.—The semi-annual election of officers for student body of the Days Creek high school was held Monday. Maurice Matthews, Maybelle Rainville and Wiletha Hutchinson being elected to the positions of president, secretary and treasurer, respectively. The remaining officers chosen were vice-president, Lester Ferguson and sergeant-at-arms, Johnny Sutton.

Preliminary plans for the self-government plan to soon be put in operation were also discussed.

The student body-sponsored magazine subscription contest closed Wednesday with the senior-freshman team winning over the juniors and sophomores. The losers are to entertain the winning team with a party at an early date.

The honor roll for the six weeks recently ended included for the high school, Elva Matthews, Betty Calhoun, Josephine Wright, Mary Ellen May, Wiletha Hutchinson and Maurice Matthews and for the grade school, Leon Moore, Beverly Worthington, Hazel Welch, Richard Snyder, Alice Welch, Jean Duncan, Roy Houston and Norma Duncan.

Shoed

CHICAGO—Elizabeth Hubert, attractive 19-year-old clerk in a dry cleaner's shop, literally floored a robber with one contemptuous word.

"Listen, lady," said a young man who entered the shop last night, "give me that cash box or I'll shoot."

"Phooey," replied Elizabeth, turning with a shrug.

Unnerved, the robber fled.
