GREEN P. T. A. HAS INTERESTING MEETING

The Green P. T. A. held its regular monthly meeting at the school house on the evening of Feb. 2.

Mrs. Fred Agoe, president, had charge of the business meeting. It was decided to have hot lunches for the school children with Mrs. Claude Claypool in charge. Reports of the various committee chairmen were heard. Mrs. Volle Lewis was appointed to take charge of the young people's party in March and Mrs. Fred Agoe to take charge of the high school pupils' party in March. Mrs. Carl Schmidt gave an interesting report on the last county council meeting.

At the close of the business meeting Mrs. George Holm cut and sold the Founder's day cake which was made by Mrs. Claude Claypool. A candle lighting ceremony was presented by eight ladies of the P. T. A. An interesting talk was given by A. W. Davis on his trip back to Michigan last summer.

Mrs. Volle Lewis had charge of the entertainment at which time she presented four girls in a button-hole demonstration. Claude Claypool had charge of a demonstration with the handicraft boys. The girls' sewing class, under the direction of Mrs. Lewis, presented a one-act play. The cast included Marilyn Preston, Norma Fisher, Olive Lewis, Josephine Husey, Beverly Frowell, Phyllis Jacobs, Barbara Jacobs and Gladys Lewis. Many of the articles made by the girls' sewing club were on display as was also the articles made by the boys' handicraft class.

Following the program refreshments were served in the basement of the school. The next regular meeting will be March 1 at the school house with Mrs. John Husey, refreshment chairman, and Mrs. Florence Pfaff and Mrs. George Wilcox, teachers, in charge of the entertainment.

MRS. WILLIAM FISHER ENTERTAINS CLUB

The Northside Sunshine club was graciously entertained by Mrs. William Fisher at her home on Winchester street last Thursday afternoon.

The business meeting was in charge of Mrs. C. C. Becroft, president. It was decided to give Pollyanna gifts every three months. Mrs. Anderson was voted a member of the club. A present was given to Mrs. T. J. Wriston and Mrs. Dewey Kruse for their work last year as president and secretary-treasurer. A birthday present was given Mrs. T. J. Wriston.

Today's Pattern

JUMPER OUTFIT OR SUN DRESS
PATTERN 4314

by Anne Adams

The kindergarten brigade can lead a "double life" with this clever Pattern, Anne Adams' 4314! For it makes a smart jumper outfit now, and may later be turned into a sun-dress. The jumper is so easy to make, with its circular, flaring skirt that has no side seams. The nicely fitting bodice is smartly cut in points, and the whole jumper buttons quickly down the back. Lace-trim the sweet little blouse, or you might add a small collar. The effin cap looks jaunty in a fabric to match the jumper. Bloomers are also included in this useful four-garment pattern.

Pattern 4314 is available in children's sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 6 jumper and cap, takes 12 yards 35 inch fabric and blouse, 2 yard contrast; sun-dress, 12 yards 35 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

Send your order to News-Review, Pattern Dept., Roseburg, Oregon.

GRACEFUL

A graceful pose
Is like a rose,
Like a field of daisies
Bending.

To the sun
They turn as one,
Such grace as theirs
Needs no mending.

PERSONAL DENIAL
There is more sorrow
In joy,
And more tears in a
Smile,
Than we can well
Destroy.
Four our great joys,
Hold the tears
Of personal denial.
