POET'S CORNER

THE BLIND MARE

By LYMAN A. FRITZ
She does not see her eyes,
There are curtains in her eyes,
That make the darkness linger,
In spite of glowing lights.

She always does her best
And is not afraid of work,
The blind mare has no notion
Of how to balk, or shirk.

The gallant spirit of that mare
Makes me feel quite ashamed,
How many human beings,
By lesser things are tamed?

Today's Pattern

CRISP, SLIM MATRON'S DRESS PATTERN 4386

by Anne Adams

In this your first timid attempt with seissors and needle? Or are you professional about it all? Either way, you'll welcome Anne Adams' Pattern 4386—it's so quick, it's so easy to make, it's so stylish, it's so simple, it's so perfect. The waistline is SEAMLESS, with just simple darts for neat fit (see open diagram). Make the belt all-around or stitch it through the front darts. The nicely shaped yoke holds in fullness below. Have the sleeves close-fitting with pointed tabs, or loose and flared. Use all the neckers, and use any decorative or ruffle. If you like striking effects, let the yoke, pockets and sleeve tabs all contrast.

Pattern 4386 is available in women's sizes 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50. Size 36 takes 3 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric and 2 1/2 yards ruffling.
