as an after thought, an excuse for your discredited and ruinous economic theory."

Discussing exports of war materials, Reed declared:

"The press informs us that 500 planes at regular intervals roar over the peaceful villages of Finland, dropping crates of bombs to terrify, maim and kill defenseless women and children. These planes, hundreds of them driven by American engines, propelled by American gas and loaded with American munitions, represent a vast increase in our exports to Russia."

Labor Legislation Planned

A house judiciary subcommittee was asked to broaden the Walsh-Healey act to cover small government contractors, merchant marine shipbuilding, and highway construction with federal funds.

Cameron Guilty, Verdict of Jury

A circuit court jury hearing the case of the state of Oregon against Al Cameron, accused of assault with intent to commit rape, took only one ballot Tuesday evening before returning a verdict of guilty. Imposition of sentence was postponed by the court until the completion of the jury cases.

The court today took up the civil action of L. W. Ruhl against George Law Curry, a suit for damages growing out of an automobile accident, April 18, 1938, at Oak and Stephens streets in Roseburg. The plaintiff seeks damages totalling $481.26 while the defendant in a cross complaint asks damages of $137.50.

The jury selected to hear the case includes Thomas H. Cornutt, B. S. Adams, E. A. Jordan, Hilda M. Quine, J. B. Devore, Ivan W. Haines, Amy Adair, Frances Gerretsen, Vera H. Rydell, Julia Bacher, Mary S. Roberts and Edna Rauch.

points were captured."

A Russian attempt to send reinforcements to surrounded detachments near Kuhmo, about midway on the Russian-Finnish frontier, was repulsed.

Finnish Planes Score

Finnish planes scouted behind the soviet lines and bombed Russian encampments during a day which saw extensive aerial activity extending into the night.

"Several fierce air battles" were reported both in the war zone and far behind the lines but "in many cases attacks by enemy formations were foiled and formations dispersed."

The Finns charged a passenger train was machine-gunned and in one locality an infants' nursery damaged by bombs. However, only "a couple of civilians" were reported killed in the raids.

Soviet Planes Swarm

Two air raid alarms sounded in Helsinki as Russian warplanes returned to Finland to follow up their far-ranging raids of yesterday in which 10 persons were killed and 20 hurt in attacks on at least 30 communities.

Eight hundred Russian planes were authoritatively estimated to have participated in yesterday's raids, which continued into the early morning.

A Finnish announcement said although many bombs were dropped yesterday damage was relatively slight. It said that probably 1,000 bombs fell in the town of Rithimaki and the surrounding area alone.

Apparently attempting a knock-out blow from the skies, the soviet aerial armada ranged southern and central Finland through the night and into the early morning hours, sending bombs crashing on to cities, railways and roads.

Nothing in the world's wars to date approaches the power of the Russian aerial offensive.

The world war's largest bombing raid was made Oct. 5, 1918, by a fleet of 350 allied planes which flew over German lines on the western front sector held by American forces.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Major L. Palmer, after waiting unsuccessfully for six days for a passenger vessel to take him from Guernsey to Alderney, today "mailed" himself for the 20-mile English channel journey.

He bore a label with the word "parcel," and was accompanied by a postman charged with the task of "delivering" him to the addressed destination.

Astrid Perttu, related that at 12:15 p. m. she received a call from a border station stating that foreign planes were observed. Half an hour later a call came from Kengis village, near the border, stating that seven Russian planes were proceeding into Swedish territory at high speed.

"I immediately informed the nearest military commander and then went to work to inform people and answer calls," said Miss Perttu.

Although a building only 100 yards away was struck by a bomb and burned to the ground, Miss Perttu stuck to her post throughout the raid.

"Here is water that makes beer as good as" the beers of Burton and Munich

. . . said Leopold Schmidt when he established the first Olympia Brewery at Tumwater in 1895!

The modern Olympia Brewery, one of the finest and cleanest in America, situated at Tumwater (Olympia), Washington, where in 1895 Leopold Schmidt discovered the water that makes beer as good as the beers of Burton and Munich.

VISITORS WELCOME AT
"One of America's Exceptional Breweries"
OLYMPIA BREWING COMPANY • OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON, U.S.A.

Now in 1940, the Schmidt family of master-brewers produces for your enjoyment a beer as good as those of Burton and Munich. This high excellence is made possible by the marvelous brewing qualities of the water from the subterranean springs at the Olympia Brewery, one of the finest in America. This water does four important things in the brewing of Olympia Beer.

1. Extracts hidden flavors from the hops and grains;
2. Gives light golden color and sparkling life to the beer;
3. Creates more active fermentation of the yeast cells, thereby making the beer more digestible and of constant purity;
4. Prevents detrimental changes when beer is bottled and chilled.

"It's the Water"
—that makes Olympia Beer Different and Better!
