Singers Dated At Christian Church

An interesting program for music lovers will be presented at the First Christian church in Roseburg, Monday, March 11, starting at 7:30 p. m., when the male quartet from Northwest Christian college at Eugene will be presented in concert. It was announced today. The quartet is reported to have traveled several hundred miles since the first of the year, presenting their program in churches and before various groups of the Pacific northwest.

Their musical program consists of negro spirituals, sacred numbers and ballads, together with solo numbers and readings.

Personnel of the group includes: Jim Winn, Bakersfield, Calif., first tenor; Gilbert Kistler, Spokane, Wash., second tenor; William Richardson, Vancouver, Wash., baritone, and Vernon Kullowatz, Albany, Ore., bass.

No admission will be charged for the concert, to which the public is invited, but an offering will be taken for the benefit of the singers.

Evangelist Edmunson to Preach at Canyonville

Revival services being conducted by Evangelist M. E. Edmunson of Texas at the Full Gospel Assembly of Roseburg will come to a close this coming Sunday night. These services have been in progress for four weeks with splendid results, being well attended each night, with extra seats needed for Sunday evenings.

Rev. Mr. Edmunson goes to Canyonville to begin a series of special meetings with the Bible academy there. Rev. A. M. Shaffer is president and pastor of the academy. Services began on Tuesday night.

Pension Forum Refuses to Endorse Any Measure

The Douglas County Pension forum has voted that for the present time it will not endorse any bill or initiative measure. It was announced today. The forum met at Roseburg last Saturday, at which time reports were heard on various pension plans proposed to be submitted to the voters of the state at the coming elections. The forum did not vote approval of the Monks bill, as previously reported. It was stated, deciding, at which time reports were heard on various pension plans proposed to be submitted to the voters of the state at the coming elections.
